SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION:

Background

On October 26, 2004, the Animal and Plant Health Inspection Service (APHIS) published in the Federal Register (69 FR 62419-62421, Docket No. 04-037-1) a notice in which we announced the receipt of, and requested comments on, two petitions from the International Center for Technology Assessment. The first petition requested that APHIS add the entire genus Caulerpa to the list of noxious weeds. The second petition requested, in the case that the first petition was denied, that all varieties of the species C. taxifolia be added to the list of noxious weeds.

Comments on the petitions were required to be received on or before December 27, 2004. We are reopening the comment period on Docket No. 04-037-1 for an additional 30 days from the original close of the comment period.

This action will allow interested persons additional time to prepare and submit comments. We will consider all comments received between December 28, 2004 (the day after the close of the original comment period) and the date of this notice.

[Docket Nos. AO-F&V-923-3; FV03-923-01]

Sweet Cherries Grown in Designated Counties in Washington; Secretary's Decision and Referendum Order on Proposed Amendments to Marketing Agreement and Order No. 923

AGENCY: Agricultural Marketing Service, USDA.

ACTION: Proposed rule and referendum order.

SUMMARY: This decision proposes amending the marketing agreement and order (order) for sweet cherries grown in Washington, and provides growers with the opportunity to vote in a referendum to determine if they favor the changes. The amendments are based on those proposed by the Washington Cherry Marketing Committee (Committee), which is responsible for local administration of the order. The amendments include: adding authority for promotion, including paid advertising, and production research projects; adding authority for supplemental rates of assessment for individual varieties of cherries; adding authority for the Committee to accept voluntary contributions for research and promotion; and, adding a public member to the Committee. Two additional amendments are based on those proposed by the Agricultural Marketing Service: Establishing tenure limitations for Committee members and, requiring that continuance referenda be
