SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION: The Commission instituted this investigation on April 14, 2004, based on a complaint filed on behalf of Zoran Corporation and Oak Technology, Inc. both of Sunnyvale, CA (collectively "complainants)." 69 FR 19876. The complaint, as supplemented, alleged violations of section 337 of the Tariff Act of 1930 in the importation into the United States, the sale for importation, and the sale within the United States after importation of certain optical disk controller chips and chipsets and products containing same, including DVD players and PC optical storage devices, by reason of infringement of claims 1-12 of U.S. Patent No. 6,466,736 (the '736 patent), claims 1-3 of U.S. Patent No. 6,584,527, and claims 1-35 of U.S. Patent No. 6,546,440 (the '440 patent). The notice of investigation identified 12 respondents. On June 7, 2004, the ALJ issued an ID (Order No. 5) terminating the investigation as to two respondents on the basis of a consent order and settlement agreement. On June 22, 2004, the ALJ issued an ID (Order No. 7) granting complainants' motion to amend the complaint and notice of investigation to add nine additional respondents. Those IDs were not reviewed by the Commission.

On December 22, 2004, complainants moved pursuant to Commission rule 210.21(a) to terminate the investigation in part by withdrawal of the infringement allegations as to claims 2-6, 8-10, and 11 of the '736 patent and claims 2-4, 6, 9, 11, 12, 15-18, 20, 22-34, and 35 of the '440 patent. No responses to the motion were filed.

On December 22, 2004, the presiding administrative law judge issued an ID (Order No. 33) granting the motion.

No petitions for review of the ID were filed.

The authority for the Commission's determination is contained in section 337 of the Tariff Act of 1930, as amended (19 U.S.C. 1337), and in section 210.42 of the Commission's Rules of Practice and Procedure (19 CFR 210.42).

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION:

I. Background

On November 15, 2004, in accordance with section 2104(a)(1) of the Trade Act of 2002, the United States Trade Representative (USTR) notified the Congress of the President's intent to enter into free trade negotiations with Oman. The notification letters to the Senate and the House of Representatives can be found on the USTR Web site at http://www.ustr.gov/assets/Document_Library/Letters_to_Congress/2004/asset_upload_file22_6743.pdf and http://www.ustr.gov/assets/Document_Library/Letters_to_Congress/2004/asset_upload_file752_6742.pdf, respectively. In December, USTR announced its intention to hold a public hearing on January 14, 2005, for the interagency Trade Policy Staff Committee (TPSC) to receive written comments and oral testimony from the public to assist USTR in formulating positions and proposals with respect to all aspects of the negotiations (69 FR 70498) (Dec. 6, 2004). USTR intends to launch the negotiations in March 2005.

The Trade Act of 2002 (Pub. L. 107-210) (the Trade Act) sets forth special procedures (Trade Promotion Authority) for approval and implementation of Agreements subject to meeting conditions and requirements in Division B of the Trade Act, "Bipartisan Trade Promotion Authority." Section 2102(a)-(c) of the Trade Act includes negotiating objectives and a listing of priorities for the President to promote in order to "address and maintain United States competitiveness in the global economy" in pursuing future trade agreements. The President assigned several of the functions in section 2102(c) to the Secretary of Labor. (E.O. 13277). These include the functions set forth in section 2102(c)(8), which requires that the President "in connection with any trade negotiations entered into under this Act, submit to the Committee on Ways and Means of the House of Representatives and the Committee on Finance of the Senate a meaningful labor rights report of the country, or countries, with respect to which the President is negotiating," and the function in section 2102(c)(9), which requires that the President "with respect to any trade agreement which the President seeks to implement under trade authorities procedures, submit to the Congress a report describing the extent to which the country or countries that are parties to the agreement have in effect laws governing exploitative child labor."

II. Information Sought

Interested parties are invited to submit written information as specified below to be taken into account in drafting the required reports. Materials submitted should be confined to the specific topics of the reports. In particular, agencies are seeking written submissions on the following topics:

1. Labor laws of Oman, including laws governing exploitative child labor, and that country's implementation and enforcement of its labor laws and regulations;
 2. The situation in Oman with respect to core labor standards;
 3. Steps taken by Oman to comply with International Labor Organization Convention No. 182 on the worst forms of child labor; and
 4. The nature and extent, if any, of exploitative child labor in Oman.
- Section 2113(6) of the Trade Act defines "core labor standards" as:
- (A) The right of association;
 - (B) The right to organize and bargain collectively;
 - (C) A prohibition on the use of any form of forced or compulsory labor;
 - (D) A minimum age for the employment of children; and
 - (E) Acceptable conditions of work with respect to minimum wages, hours of work, and occupational safety and health.

To ensure prompt and full consideration of submissions, we strongly recommend that interested persons submit comments by electronic mail to the following e-mail address: FRFTAoman@dol.gov. Persons making submissions by e-mail should use the following subject line: "Oman: Labor Rights and Child Labor Reports." Documents should be submitted in WordPerfect, MSWord, or text (.TXT) format.
