The information provided by these forms is used by CMS to prepare the grant awards to States for the Medicaid and CHIP programs, to ensure that the appropriate level of Federal payments for State expenditures under the Medicaid program and CHIP are made in accordance with the CHIP related Balanced Budget Act legislation provisions, and to track, monitor, and evaluate the numbers of related children being served by the Medicaid and CHIP programs; Form Number: CMS-21 and CMS-21B (OMB# 0938-0731); Frequency: Quarterly; Affected Public: State, Local or Tribal Gov.; Number of Respondents: 56; Total Annual Responses: 448; Total Annual Hours: 7,840.

6. Type of Information Request: Revision of a currently approved collection; Title of Information Collection: Quarterly Medicaid Statement of Expenditures for the Medical Assistance Program; Use: The State Medicaid agencies use the form CMS-64 for the Medical Assistance Program to report their actual program benefit costs and administrative expenses to CMS. CMS uses this information to compute the Federal financial participation for the State's Medicaid Program costs. The structure of the current form CMS-64 has evolved from the previous forms used for reporting and has been revised. Title: Employment Retention and Advancement (ERA) Evaluation 42-Month Survey.

OMB No.: New Collection.

Description: The Employment Retention and Advancement (ERA) Evaluation is sponsored by the Administration for Children and Families (ACF) of the U.S. Department of Health and Human Services (HHS),¹ and involves the conduct of a multi-year evaluation that studies the net impact and cost-benefits of programs designed to help Temporary Assistance for Needy Families (TANF) recipients, former TANF recipients or families at risk of needing TANF benefits retain and advance in employment.² The ERA Evaluation involves 15 random assignment experiments in eight states, testing a diverse set of strategies designed to promote stable employment and/or career advancement for low-income people. The ERA Evaluation will generate rigorous data on the implementation, effects and costs of these alternative approaches. The data collected as part of the 42-month survey will be used for the following purposes:

- To study ERA's long-term impacts on employment, earnings, participation, educational attainment and income;
- To gather data on a wider range of outcome measures than is available through welfare or Unemployment Insurance records in order to understand how individuals were affected by ERA; participation in employment and education activities; educational attainment; employment history; marriage, household composition and child care; housing; household income; household food insecurity; health coverage and status; and child outcomes;
- To build upon data collected as part of the earlier 12-month survey wave;
- To conduct non-experimental analyses, in addition to experimental analyses, and provide a descriptive picture of the circumstances of low-wage workers; and
- To obtain participation information important to the evaluation's cost-benefits component.

Respondents: The respondents of the 42-month survey are Temporary Assistance for Needy Families (TANF) applicants, current and former TANF recipients or individuals in families at risk of needing TANF benefits (working poor and hard-to-employ) who are in the research sample in a subset of the 15 programs participating in the ERA Evaluation. Survey participants will be administered a telephone survey approximately 42 months after the date they were enrolled in the research sample and randomly assigned to the treatment or control group. For those individuals who cannot be reached by phone, survey firm staff will attempt to contact them in person. A total of
