DEPARTMENT OF STATE

22 CFR Part 22

[Public Notice 4984]

RIN 1400-AB94; 1400-AB95

Schedule of Fees for Consular Services, Department of State and Overseas Embassies and Consulates

AGENCY: State Department.

ACTION: Final rule.

SUMMARY: This rule adopts as final the Department of State's proposed rule to revise the Schedule of Fees for Consular Services ("Schedule of Fees" or "Schedule"), with four changes, one incorporating and finalizing an already effective additional exemption to the MRV fee and the others adding three new fees authorized by the Consolidated Appropriations Act, 2005 (Pub. L. 108-447). None of these changes are being made in response to public comments. Only one comment was received during the period for public comment, but the Department has decided that the comment does not warrant any changes in the proposed rule. The additional exemption being added to the Schedule simply incorporates and finalizes an exemption that has been in effect during the comment period on the revised Schedule as a result of an Interim Rule issued pursuant to a separate but related rulemaking. No comments on the additional exemption were received during the comment period for that rulemaking. The three new fees are being added because they were established by legislation enacted after the comment period for this rulemaking closed. The addition of these fees does not require public comment. The proposed rule, modified only to incorporate the new exemption and the new legislatively established fees, is therefore adopted as final.

EFFECTIVE DATE: This rule is effective March 8, 2005.

Director, Bureau of Consular Affairs, fax: 202-663-2499; e-mail: fees@state.gov.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION: The Department published a proposed rule in the Federal Register at 69 FR 42913-42919 on July 19, 2004 (Public Notice 4765, RIN 1400-AB94), proposing to amend sections of part 22 of Title 22 of the Code of Federal Regulations. Specifically, the rule proposed changes to the Schedule of Fees for Consular Services, including seven increases and two decreases. The Department's proposed rule solicited comments, and one general comment sent by e-mail was received. The comment, dated July 19, 2004, criticized all consular fees as still being too low.

After publication of the aforementioned proposed rule, the Department also published a separate but related interim rule in the Federal Register at 69 FR 53618-53619 on September 2, 2004 (Public Notice 4809, RIN 1400-AB95), amending the Schedule of Fees for Consular Services to include an exemption from the nonimmigrant visa application processing fee for family members traveling to the United States for the funeral or burial of a U.S. Government employee killed in the line of duty or to visit a U.S. Government employee critically injured in the line of duty. The amendment became effective upon publication on September 2, 2004. Interested parties were invited to submit written comments by September 24, 2004. No comments were received. The exemption added to the existing Schedule of Fees by the amendment is finalized and carried forward in the Schedule of Fees for Consular Services as published in this final rule.

As explained when the revised Schedule of Fees was published as a proposed rule, the majority of the Department of State's consular fees are established pursuant to the general user charges statute, 31 U.S.C. 9701, and/or 22 U.S.C. 4219, which, as implemented through Executive Order 10718 of June 27, 1957, authorizes the Secretary of State to establish fees to be charged for official services provided by embassies and consulates. Other fees are established pursuant to more specific statutory authorities, some of which provide for full or partial exemptions.

With the exception of nonimmigrant visa reciprocity fees, which are established based on the practices of other countries, and fees that are established at amounts specified by statute, all consular fees are established on a basis of cost recovery and in a manner consistent with general user charges principles, regardless of the specific statutory authority under which they are promulgated. The Department of State is required to review consular fees periodically to determine the appropriateness of each fee in light of applicable provisions of OMB Circular A-25, and it was as a result of such a review that the amendments to the Schedule of Fees were proposed. This review attempted to identify the fully allocated costs of consular services (direct and indirect).

In situations where services are provided often enough to develop a reliable estimate of the average time involved, a flat service fee was adopted. In other situations where services are provided infrequently, the consular hourly rate was made the basis of the fee. In either case, the fee is designed to recover some or all—but not more than—actual fully allocated costs the Department expects to incur over the period that the Schedule will be in effect. When the fee is set below costs, the remaining cost is either recovered through allocation to related services for which fees are charged, or will be covered through appropriations.

(Detailed information concerning the methodology of the study is available from the Bureau of Consular Affairs.)

Based on this effort and subsequent analysis, the Department proposed adjustments to the Schedule of Fees, including the fee to search Department of State files to verify an applicant's U.S. citizenship (from $45 to $60); the Diversity Visa (DV) Lottery surcharge for a diversity immigrant visa application (from $100 to $375); the Affidavit of Support Review fee (from $65 to $70); the fee for determining returning resident status (from $360 to $400); the fee for a transportation letter issued to a Legal Permanent Resident Alien (LPRA) who needs a transportation letter to reenter the U.S. (from $300 to $165); the fee for waiver of the two-year return residency requirement (from $230 to $215); the fees for processing Letters Rogatory and Foreign Sovereign Immunities Act (FSIA) judicial assistance cases (from $650 to $735); and the fee for consular time (from $235 to $265).

In addition, the fee for loan processing was combined with the fee for assistance regarding the welfare and whereabouts of a U.S. citizen, including child custody inquiries. This is a purely technical change in the Schedule.

Significantly, Division B, Title IV (Diplomatic and Consular Programs appropriation) of the Consolidated Appropriations Act, 2005 (Public Law 108-447), authorized two new fees while section 426 of Division J, title IV

(Visa Reform) of the same Act authorized a third. In each of these three cases, the amount of each fee was also specified. These three fees are incorporated in the Schedule as new items 8 (a passport surcharge of $12 to enhance the security of the passport document), 25 (a fraud prevention and detection fee of $500 for H-1B and L visa applicants), and 36 (an immigrant visa surcharge of $45 to enhance the security of the immigrant visa).

Analysis of Comments

As noted, the proposed rule (Public Notice 4765 at 69 FR 42913–42919) was published for comments on July 19, 2004. During the comment period, which closed August 18, 2004, the Department received only one comment, which criticized all consular fees as still being too low. The commenter said that the Department should increase all of the fees rather than provide below-cost services to non-U.S. citizens. In many cases, of course, the fees are in fact paid by U.S. citizens for services to U.S. citizens. Leaving that aside, in virtually all cases the fees result in full cost recovery either by (1) setting the fee for the specific service at full cost; (2) recovering the cost of a service through both the fee for the specific service and a fee for a related service (e.g., the passport fee recovers costs of certain overseas citizens services for which there is no specific, separate fee or for which the separate fee is set below cost); or (3) by shifting the cost of a service to other users, when specifically authorized by the statute. A few fees (such as the fee for a nonimmigrant visa application, the fee for refugee parole, the fee for documentary services, and the fee for scheduling depositions) are set below actual cost; in each of these cases, the Department has determined that it is in the public interest to recover the difference from U.S. Government appropriations so as not to make these particular services prohibitively expensive for the public, and/or because there is a public as well as private benefit from performance of the service.

Regulatory Findings

Administrative Procedure Act

On July 19, 2004, the Department published a proposed rule comprehensively amending its Schedule of Fees and providing a 30-day period for public comments (69 FR 42913–42919, Public Notice 4765, RIN 1400–AB94). Subsequently, it published an interim rule in the Federal Register (69 FR 53618–53619, Public Notice 4809, RIN 1400–AB95) that amended the existing Schedule of Fees effective immediately only to include as Item Number 22 (g) an exemption from the nonimmigrant visa application processing fee for family members traveling to the United States for the funeral or burial of a U.S. Government employee killed in the line of duty or to visit a U.S. Government critically injured in the line of duty. The change made by that interim rule, which became effective upon publication on September 2, 2004, is thus now part of the Schedule of Fees being comprehensively amended, and the exemption is carried forward and included as final in the Schedule of Fees for Consular Services, as published in this Final Rule.

The Consolidated Appropriations Act, 2005, signed into law by the President on December 8, 2004, authorized three new fees and specified the amount of each. These are included in the Schedule below in Items 8, 25, and 36. Item 8, a new $12 passport surcharge, applies to all applicants except those who are exempt from passport fees per item 4 of the Schedule. The surcharge is designed to recover the costs of consular services in support of enhanced border security that are in addition to those covered by the passport fees in effect on January 1, 2004. This fee is specifically authorized by Division B, Title IV (Diplomatic and Consular Programs appropriation). Item 25 is a fraud prevention and detection fee of $500. The fee has both a domestic and an overseas component. Abroad, the State Department, through its consuls, will collect the fee from a principal applicant for an “L” nonimmigrant visa who is covered under a blanket petition as provided for in section 214(c)(2) (A) of the Immigration and Nationality Act (INA). This fee is specifically authorized by subsections 214(c)(12)(B) and (C) of the INA as amended by section 426 of Division J, title IV (Visa Reform). Unlike the other two fees, it will take effect for nonimmigrant visa applications filed on or after ninety days from enactment of the Consolidated Appropriations Act—i.e., on or after March 8, 2005 (90 days from Dec. 8, 2004), in accordance with section 426(c). Item 36, a new $45 immigrant visa surcharge, applies to all applicants for immigrant visas, including Diversity Visas. The surcharge was added to recover costs of consular services in support of enhanced border security that are in addition to those covered by the immigrant visa fees in effect on January 1, 2004. This fee is specifically authorized by Division B, Title IV (Diplomatic and Consular Programs appropriation). Since these three new fees have been statutorily authorized and the amounts are statutorily established, the Department for good cause pursuant to 5 U.S.C. 553(b)(B) finds that public comment on the fees is unnecessary.

The final rule will be effective March 8, 2005, in accordance with 5 U.S.C. 553(d). All changes in the Department’s existing fees will take effect at that time.

Regulatory Flexibility Act/Executive Order 13272: Small Business

The changes made by this regulation are hereby certified as not expected to have a significant economic impact on a substantial number of small entities under the criteria of the Regulatory Flexibility Act (5 U.S.C. 601–612) and section 3(b) of Executive Order 13272 (Proper Consideration of Small Entities in Agency Rulemaking).

Unfunded Mandates Reform Act of 1995

This rule will not result in the expenditure by State, local and tribal governments, in the aggregate, or by the private sector, of $100 million or more in any year and it will not significantly or uniquely affect small governments. Therefore, no actions were deemed necessary under the provisions of the Unfunded Mandates Reform Act of 1995.

Small Business Regulatory Enforcement Fairness Act of 1996

This rule is not a major rule as defined by 5 U.S.C. 804, for purposes of congressional review of agency rulemaking under the Small Business Regulatory Enforcement Act of 1996 (5 U.S.C. 801–808). This rule will not result in an annual effect on the economy of $100 million or more; a major increase in costs or prices; or significant adverse effects on competition, employment, investment, productivity, innovation, or on the ability of the United States-based companies to compete with foreign-based companies in domestic and export markets.

Executive Order 12866: Regulatory Review

The Department of State does not consider this rule to be a “significant regulatory action” under Executive Order 12866, section 3(f), Regulatory Planning and Review. In addition, the Department is exempt from Executive Order 12866 except to the extent that it is promulgating regulations in conjunction with a domestic agency that are significant regulatory actions. The Department has nevertheless reviewed the regulation to ensure its consistency with the regulatory philosophy and principles set forth in that Executive Order. In addition, OMB has been provided with a copy of the proposed regulation.

Executive Order 12988: Civil Justice Reform

The Department has reviewed this regulation in light of sections 3(a) and 3(b)(2) of Executive Order No. 12988 to eliminate ambiguity, minimize litigation, establish clear legal standards, and reduce burden.

Executive Orders 12372 and 13132: Federalism

This regulation will not have substantial direct effects on the states, on the relationship between the national government and the states, or on the distribution of power and responsibilities among the various levels of government. Nor would the regulation have federalism implications warranting the application of Executive Orders 12372 and 13132.

Paperwork Reduction Act

This rule does not impose any new reporting or record-keeping requirements subject to the Paperwork Reduction Act, 44 U.S.C. Chapter 35.
