

not respond to the complaint, notice of investigation, or the order to show cause. Consequently, the ALJ found the respondents in default, and pursuant to Commission Rule 210.16(b)(3), to have waived their right to appear, be served with documents, or contest the allegations in the enforcement complaint. The ALJ also ordered the complainant to file a brief by February 23, 2005, addressing the appropriate enforcement remedy. The ALJ indicated that the IA should file a response to complainant's brief by March 4, 2005. No petitions for review of the subject ID were filed.

This action is taken under the authority of § 337 of the Tariff Act of 1930, as amended (19 U.S.C. 1337), and § 210.42 of the Commission's Rules of Practice and Procedure (19 CFR 210.42).

Issued: February 23, 2005.

By order of the Commission.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION:

Background. On September 4, 1991, the Department of Commerce issued an antidumping duty order on imports of electroluminescent flat panel displays from Japan (56 FR 43741). Following five-year reviews by Commerce and the Commission, effective April 11, 2000, Commerce issued a continuation of the antidumping duty order on imports of electroluminescent flat panel displays from Japan (65 FR 19360). The Commission is now conducting a second review to determine whether revocation of the order would be likely to lead to continuation or recurrence of material injury to the domestic industry within a reasonably foreseeable time. It will assess the adequacy of interested party responses to this notice of institution to determine whether to conduct a full review or an expedited review. The Commission's determination in any expedited review will be based on the facts available, which may include information provided in response to this notice.
