

between exchange markets and markets other than exchange markets.”<sup>17</sup> When the Commission first approved of the Plan on a pilot basis, it found that the Plan “should enhance market efficiency and fair competition, avoid investor confusion, and facilitate surveillance of concurrent exchange and OTC trading.”<sup>18</sup> The Plan has been in existence since 1990 and Participants have been trading Nasdaq securities under the Plan since 1993.

The Commission finds that extending the operation of the Plan for a year furthers the goals described above by preventing the lapsing of the sole effective transaction reporting plan for Nasdaq securities traded by exchanges pursuant to unlisted trading privileges. The Commission believes that the Plan is a critical component of the national market system and that the Plan’s expiration would have a serious, detrimental impact on the further development of the national market system.

The Commission also finds that it is appropriate to extend the exemption under Rule 11Aa3-2(f)<sup>19</sup> from compliance with Section VI.C.1. of the Plan as required by Rule 11Aa3-2(d).<sup>20</sup> The Commission believes that the requested exemptive relief extension is consistent with the Act, the Rules thereunder, and, specifically, with the objectives set forth in Sections 12(f) and 11A of the Act<sup>21</sup> and Rules 11Aa3-1 and 11Aa3-2 thereunder.<sup>22</sup> The Commission believes that the Plan is a critical component of the national market system and that the requested exemptive relief is necessary to assure the effective operation of the Plan.

IV. Conclusion

It is therefore ordered, pursuant to Sections 12(f) and 11A of the Act<sup>23</sup> and paragraph (c)(4) of Rule 11Aa3-2<sup>24</sup> thereunder, that the operation of the Plan be, and hereby is, extended and that certain exemptive relief also be extended until December 21, 2005.

For the Commission, by the Division of Market Regulation, pursuant to delegated authority.<sup>25</sup>

SECURITIES AND EXCHANGE COMMISSION

[Securities Act of 1933, Release No. 8550/ March 3, 2005 and Securities Exchange Act of 1934, Release No. 51313/ March 3, 2005]

Order Approving Public Company Accounting Oversight Board Revised Budget and Annual Accounting Support Fee for Calendar Year 2005

The Sarbanes-Oxley Act of 2002 (the “Act”) established the Public Company Accounting Oversight Board (“PCAOB”) to oversee the audits of public companies and related matters, to protect investors, and to further the public interest in the preparation of informative, accurate and independent audit reports. The PCAOB is to accomplish these goals through registration of public accounting firms and standard setting, inspection, and disciplinary programs. Section 109 of the Act provides that the PCAOB shall establish a reasonable annual accounting support fee, as may be necessary or appropriate to establish and maintain the PCAOB. Section 109(h) amends Section 13(b)(2) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 to require issuers to pay the allocable share of a reasonable annual accounting support fee or fees, determined in accordance with Section 109 of the Act. Under Section 109(f), the aggregate annual accounting support fee shall not exceed the PCAOB’s aggregate “recoverable budget expenses,” which may include operating, capital and accrued items. Section 109(b) of the Act directs the PCAOB to establish a budget for each fiscal year in accordance with the PCAOB’s internal procedures, subject to approval by the Commission.

The PCAOB originally adopted a budget for calendar year 2005 and submitted it to the Commission in October 2004. After further review of its proposed expenditures for 2005, the PCAOB adopted a revised budget for calendar year 2005 and submitted that budget to the Commission for approval on January 6, 2005. In its supporting materials, the PCAOB noted that the revised budget “supports its mission to oversee the auditors of public companies in order to protect the interests of investors and further the public interest in the preparation of informative, fair and independent audit reports. This includes carrying out the
