

At the request of the State agency, the Department reviewed the certification for workers of the subject firm. New information shows that worker separations occurred involving employees of the Dayton, Ohio facility of Hewitt Soap Works, Inc., a subsidiary of Bradford Soap Works, Inc. located in Peapack, New Jersey and Atlanta, Georgia.

Mr. Thomas O'Callaghan and Mr. Larry Southard provided sales support services for the production of bar soap at the Dayton, Ohio location of the subject firm.

Based on these findings, the Department is amending this certification to include employees of the Dayton, Ohio facility of Hewitt Soap Works, Inc., located in Peapack, New Jersey and Atlanta, Georgia. Since workers of the Dayton, Ohio location of the subject firm were certified eligible to apply for alternative trade adjustment assistance, the Department is extending this eligibility to Mr. Thomas O'Callaghan in Peapack, New Jersey and Mr. Larry Southard in Atlanta, Georgia.

The intent of the Department's certification is to include all workers of Hewitt Soap Works, Inc., a subsidiary of Bradford Soap Works, Inc., Dayton, Ohio, who were adversely affected by increased imports.

The amended notice applicable to TA-W-55,298 is hereby issued as follows:

All workers of Hewitt Soap Works, Inc., a subsidiary of Bradford Soap Works, Inc., Dayton, Ohio (TA-W-55,298), including employees of Hewitt Soap Works, Inc., a subsidiary of Bradford Soap Works, Inc., Dayton, Ohio, located in Peapack, New Jersey (TA-W-55,298A) and Atlanta, Georgia (TA-W-55,298B), who became totally or partially separated from employment on or after June 22, 2003, through August 25, 2006, are eligible to apply for adjustment assistance under Section 223 of the Trade Act of 1974 and are also eligible to apply for alternative trade adjustment assistance under Section 246 of the Trade Act of 1974.

Signed at Washington, DC this 23rd day of February 2005.

Linda G. Poole,

Certifying Officer, Division of Trade Adjustment Assistance.

Notice of Determinations Regarding Eligibility To Apply for Worker Adjustment Assistance

In accordance with section 223 of the Trade Act of 1974, as amended, (19 U.S.C. 2273), the Department of Labor herein presents summaries of determinations regarding eligibility to apply for trade adjustment assistance for workers (TA-W) number and alternative trade adjustment assistance (ATAA) by (TA-W) number issued during the periods of February 2005.

In order for an affirmative determination to be made and a certification of eligibility to apply for directly-impacted (primary) worker adjustment assistance to be issued, each of the group eligibility requirements of section 222(a) of the Act must be met.

I. Section (a)(2)(A) all of the following must be satisfied:

A. A significant number or proportion of the workers in such workers' firm, or an appropriate subdivision of the firm, have become totally or partially separated, or are threatened to become totally or partially separated;

B. The sales or production, or both, of such firm or subdivision have decreased absolutely; and

C. Increased imports of articles like or directly competitive with articles produced by such firm or subdivision have contributed importantly to such workers' separation or threat of separation and to the decline in sales or production of such firm or subdivision; or

II. Section (a)(2)(B) both of the following must be satisfied:

A. A significant number or proportion of the workers in such workers' firm, or an appropriate subdivision of the firm, have become totally or partially separated, or are threatened to become totally or partially separated;

B. There has been a shift in production by such workers' firm or subdivision to a foreign country of articles like or directly competitive with articles which are produced by such firm or subdivision; and

C. One of the following must be satisfied:

1. The country to which the workers' firm has shifted production of the articles is a party to a free trade agreement with the United States;

2. The country to which the workers' firm has shifted production of the articles to a beneficiary country under the Andean Trade Preference Act, African Growth and Opportunity Act, or the Caribbean Basin Economic Recovery Act; or

3. There has been or is likely to be an increase in imports of articles that are like or directly competitive with articles which are or were produced by such firm or subdivision.

Also, in order for an affirmative determination to be made and a certification of eligibility to apply for worker adjustment assistance as an adversely affected secondary group to be issued, each of the group eligibility requirements of section 222(b) of the Act must be met.

(1) Significant number or proportion of the workers in the workers' firm or an appropriate subdivision of the firm have become totally or partially separated, or are threatened to become totally or partially separated;

(2) The workers' firm (or subdivision) is a supplier or downstream producer to a firm (or subdivision) that employed a group of workers who received a certification of eligibility to apply for trade adjustment assistance benefits and such supply or production is related to the article that was the basis for such certification; and

(3) Either—

(A) The workers' firm is a supplier and the component parts it supplied for
