

Particulars Sheet that indicates no change in shareholding after the name change; (6) a pre-name change advertising flyer that shows The Pas Lumber Company employing the brand name "Winton" for its products; (7) samples of letters to customers advising them that there has been a name change; (8) pre- and post-name change organizational management charts; (9) an insurance appraisal report covering the company's assets dated five days prior to the name change; and (10) vendor and customer lists for the pre- and post-name change period.

Based on the information submitted by Winton Global, we preliminarily find that Winton Global is the successor-in-interest to The Pas. Based on the evidence reviewed, we find that Winton Global operates as the same business entity as The Pas and that the company's senior management, production facilities, supplier relationships, and customers have not changed. Thus, we preliminarily find that Winton Global should receive the same antidumping duty cash-deposit rate (i.e., 1.83 percent) with respect to the subject merchandise as The Pas, its predecessor company.

However, because cash deposits are only estimates of the amount of antidumping duties that will be due, changes in cash deposit rates are not made retroactive. If Winton Global believes that the deposits paid exceed the actual amount of dumping, it is entitled to request an administrative review during the anniversary month of the publication of the order of those entries to determine the proper assessment rate and receive a refund of any excess deposits. See Certain Hot-Rolled Lead and Bismuth Carbon Steel Products From the United Kingdom: Final Results of Changed-Circumstances Antidumping and Countervailing Duty Administrative Reviews, 64 FR 66880 (November 30, 1999). As a result, if these preliminary results are adopted in our final results of this changed circumstances review, we will instruct the Customs Service to suspend shipments of subject merchandise made by Winton Global at The Pas's cash deposit rate (i.e., 1.83 percent). Until that time, the cash deposit rate assigned to Winton Global's entries is the rate in effect at the time of entry (i.e., the "all others" rate).
