Federal Energy Regulatory Commission

[Docket No. EL05-108-000]

Longview Power, LLC, Complainant, v. Monongahela Power Company, Doing Business as Allegheny Power, and Allegheny Energy Supply Company, LLC, Respondents; Notice of Complaint and Request for Fast Track Processing

May 10, 2005.

Take notice that on May 9, 2005, Longview Power, LLC (Longview) filed a formal complaint against Monongahela Power Company, doing business as Allegheny Power, and Allegheny Energy Supply Company, LLC (collectively, Allegheny) pursuant to section 206 of the Federal Power Act, 16 U.S.C. 824e (2000), and Rule 206 of the Commission's Rules of Practice and Procedure, 18 CFR 385.206 (2004), alleging that Allegheny has violated the interconnection requirements of both the Commission and PJM Interconnection, L.L.C. (PJM). Longview has requested Fast Track Processing of the complaint pursuant to 18 CFR 385.206(h) (2004).

Longview certifies that a copy of the complaint was served on the contacts for Monongahela Power Company, Allegheny Energy Supply Company, LLC, and PJM, as listed on the Commission's list of Corporate Officials, and on the Public Service Commission of West Virginia.

Any person desiring to intervene or to protest this filing must file in accordance with Rules 211 and 214 of the Commission's Rules of Practice and Procedure (18 CFR 385.211 and 385.214). Protests will be considered by the Commission in determining the appropriate action to be taken, but will not serve to make protestants parties to the proceeding. Any person wishing to become a party must file a notice of intervention or motion to intervene, as appropriate. The Respondent's answer and all interventions, or protests must be filed on or before the comment date. The Respondent's answer, motions to intervene, and protest must be served on the Complainants.

The Commission encourages electronic submission of protests and interventions in lieu of paper using the "eFiling" link at <http://www.ferc.gov>. Persons unable to file electronically should submit an original and 14 copies of the protest or intervention to the Federal Energy Regulatory Commission, 888 First Street, NE., Washington, DC 20426.

This filing is accessible on-line at <http://www.ferc.gov>, using the "eLibrary" link and is available for review in the Commission's Public Reference Room in Washington, DC. #### Federal Energy Regulatory Commission

[Docket No. PL 05-5-000]

Inquiry Regarding Income Tax Allowances; Policy Statement on Income Tax Allowances

(Issued May 4, 2005)

Before Commissioners: Pat Wood, III, Chairman;

Nora Mead Brownell,
Joseph T. Kelliher, and Sudeen G. Kelly

1. On December 2, 2004, the Commission issued a notice of inquiry regarding income tax allowances. The Commission asked interested parties to comment when, if ever, it is appropriate to provide an income tax allowance for partnerships or similar pass-through entities that hold interests in a regulated public utility. The Commission concludes that such an allowance should be permitted on all partnership interests, or similar legal interests, if the owner of that interest has an actual or potential income tax liability on the public utility income earned through the interest. This order serves the public because it allows rate recovery of the income tax liability attributable to regulated utility income, facilitates investment in public utility assets, and assures just and reasonable rates.

I. Background

2. The instant proceeding was initiated by the Commission in response to the U.S. Court of Appeals for the District of Columbia remand in BP West Coast Products, LLC, v. FERC,<sup>1</sup> in which the court held that the Commission had not justified the so-called Lakehead policy regarding the eligibility of partnerships for income tax allowances. The Lakehead case<sup>2</sup> held that a limited partnership would be permitted to include an income tax allowance in its rates equal to the proportion of its limited partnership interests owned by corporate partners, but could not include a tax allowance for its partnership interests that were not owned by corporations. Prior to Lakehead, the Commission's policy provided a limited partnership with an income tax allowance for all of its partnership interests, but did so in the context that most partnerships were owned by corporations. This ruling was not appealed until a series of orders involving SFPP, L.P. in the proceedings underlying the remand.<sup>3</sup> The Commission's rationales for permitting a tax allowance for corporate partner interests were (1) the double taxation of corporate earnings, (2) the equalization of returns between different types of publicly held interests, i.e. the stock of the corporate partner (which involves two layers of taxation of partnership earnings) and the limited partnership interests (which involve only one), and (3) encouraging capital formation and investment.

3. The court found all of these rationales unconvincing. First, the court rejected the double taxation rationale in Lakehead, concluding that (1) only the costs of the regulated entity may be recovered, and (2) taxes are but one cost paid by a corporate partner as part of its cost of doing business.<sup>4</sup> The court also rejected the rationale that the investor should be able to obtain the same returns without regard to which instrument the investor purchases. The court rejected this argument by noting that if any income tax allowance is provided, this benefits all investors holding instruments proportionately because the additional income is shared on a pro rata basis.<sup>5</sup> Given this pro rata distribution of income by the partnership, the court concluded that non-corporate partners would receive an excess rate of return.

4. Thus, while the double taxation function may affect the eventual return for the investor, the court made clear that this is a function of corporate structure and the attendant tax consequences, not the regulated utility's risk.<sup>6</sup> The court therefore concluded

<sup>3</sup> Opinion No. 435 (86 FERC ¶ 61,022 (1999)), Opinion No. 435-A (91 FERC ¶ 61,135 (2000)), Opinion No. 435-B (96 FERC ¶ 61,281 (2001)), and an Order on Clarification and Rehearing (97 FERC ¶ 61,138 (2001)) (collectively the Opinion No. 435 orders.) These are now pending before the Commission on remand and rehearing in Docket Nos. OR92-8-000, et al., and OR96-2-000, et al., respectively.

<sup>6</sup> In making a decision whether to buy a limited partnership interest (where only the unit holder's income is taxed), or a share of a corporate partner (where the corporate income is taxed as well), it should be the individual investor that makes the adjustment for the double taxation. The individual investor can do this by paying prices that equalize
