Fresh Garlic From the People's Republic of China; Notice of Rescission of Antidumping Duty New Shipper Review

AGENCY: Import Administration, International Trade Administration, Department of Commerce.

EFFECTIVE DATE: May 25, 2005.

SUMMARY: In response to a request from an interested party, the Department of Commerce (the Department) initiated a new shipper review of the antidumping duty order on fresh garlic from the People's Republic of China (PRC) with respect to Huaiyang Huamei Foodstuff Co., Ltd. (Huamei). However, Huamei has failed to respond to our new shipper questionnaire; consequently, we are rescinding the review of this company.

FOR FURTHER INFORMATION CONTACT: Coleen Schoch or Brian Ledgerwood at (202) 482-4551 and (202) 482-3836, respectively, AD/CVD Operations, Office 8, Import Administration, International Trade Administration, U.S. Department of Commerce, 14th Street and Constitution Avenue, NW, Washington, DC 20230.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION:

Scope of the Order

The products covered by this antidumping duty order are all grades of garlic, whole or separated into constituent cloves, whether or not peeled, fresh, chilled, frozen, provisionally preserved, or packed in water or other neutral substance, but not prepared or preserved by the addition of other ingredients or heat processing. The differences between grades are based on color, size, sheathing, and level of decay.

The scope of this order does not include the following: (a) garlic that has been mechanically harvested and that is primarily, but not exclusively, destined for non-fresh use; or (b) garlic that has been specially prepared and cultivated prior to planting and then harvested and otherwise prepared for use as seed.

The subject merchandise is used principally as a food product and for seasoning. The subject garlic is currently classifiable under subheadings 0703.20.0010, 0703.20.0020, 0703.20.0090, 0710.80.7060, 0710.80.9750, 0711.90.6000, and 2005.90.9700 of the Harmonized Tariff Schedule of the United States (HTSUS). Although the HTSUS subheadings are provided for convenience and customs purposes, the written description of the scope of this order is dispositive. In order to be excluded from the antidumping duty order, garlic entered under the HTSUS subheadings listed above that is (1) mechanically harvested and primarily, but not exclusively, destined for non-fresh use or (2) specially prepared and cultivated prior to planting and then harvested and otherwise prepared for use as seed must be accompanied by declarations to U.S. Customs and Border Protection (CBP) to that effect.

Background

The antidumping duty order on fresh garlic from the PRC was published on November 16, 1994. See Antidumping Duty Order: Fresh Garlic From the People's Republic of China, 59 FR 59209. On November 30, 2004, the Department received a request for a new shipper review from Huamei. We conducted an initial examination of its new shipper review request and initiated a new shipper review of the antidumping duty order on fresh garlic from the PRC for Huamei. See Notice of Initiation of New Shipper Reviews, 70 FR 779 (January 5, 2005). The period of review (POR) for the new shipper review is November 1, 2003, through October 31, 2004. As part of this new shipper review, the Department sent an antidumping duty questionnaire to Huamei on January 4, 2005. Pursuant to section 351.301(c)(2)(ii) of the Department's regulations, the questionnaire included (a) a deadline for the response; (b) a description of the form and manner in which Huamei must submit the information; and (c) a statement that failure to submit the requested information in the requested form and manner by the date specified could result in the application of facts available.

In a letter submitted to the Department on March 2, 2005, Huamei's counsel withdrew its representation of Huamei. Huamei's response to the Department's questionnaire was due on March 3, 2005. The Department received no response from Huamei and no other party has filed an entry of appearance on behalf of Huamei.

On March 15, 2005, the Department issued a letter to Huamei's last known address, including a copy of the antidumping duty questionnaire and request that Huamei respond by April 4, 2005. The Department warned that, should Huamei fail to provide the information requested by the due date, the Department could resort to the use of facts available with an adverse inference for purposes of this new shipper review, pursuant to sections 776(a) and 776(b) of the Tariff Act of 1930, as amended (the Act). Also on March 15, 2005, the Department issued a similar letter to the Director of the Bureau of Fair Trade for Imports and Exports at the PRC Ministry of Commerce.

To date, the Department has not received any response from Huamei. Furthermore, we have not received notice that Huamei would be unable to respond to our questionnaire within the specified time limits or that it would be unable to provide the information to the Department in the form required.

Rescission of New Shipper Review

Because Huamei failed to respond to our questionnaire after requesting a new shipper review, we are rescinding the new shipper review of the antidumping duty order on fresh garlic from the PRC with respect to this company.

Cash Deposits

Bonding is no longer permitted to fulfill the security requirements for shipments of subject merchandise produced or exported by Huamei and entered or withdrawn from warehouse for consumption in the United States on or after the date of publication of this notice. Further, effective upon publication of this notice for all shipments of subject merchandise produced or exported by Huamei, and entered or withdrawn from warehouse for consumption, the cash-deposit rate will be the PRC-wide rate of 376.67 percent.

Assessment of Antidumping Duties

The Department will instruct CBP to assess antidumping duties on all appropriate entries. Since we are rescinding this antidumping duty new shipper review, the PRC-wide rate of 376.67 percent that was in effect at the time of entry, applies to all exports of subject merchandise produced or exported by Huamei during the period of review. The Department will issue appropriate assessment instructions directly to CBP within 15 days of publication of this notice.

This notice is published in accordance with section 751 of the Act and 19 CFR 351.213(d)(4).

Dated: May 18, 2005.

Barbara E. Tillman,

Acting Deputy Assistant Secretary for Import Administration.

The period of review ("POR") is December 1, 2003, to November 30, 2004. This review is now being rescinded for Anhui Native Produce Import and Export Corp., and Inner Mongolia Autonomous Region Native Produce and Animal By-Products Import and Export Corporation, because the only requesting party withdrew its request in a timely manner.

EFFECTIVE DATE: May 25, 2005.

FOR FURTHER INFORMATION CONTACT: Catherine Bertrand or Anya Naschak, AD/CVD Operations, Office 9, Import Administration, U.S. Department of Commerce, 14th Street and Constitution Avenue, NW, Room 4003, Washington, DC 20230; telephone (202) 482-3207 or (202) 482-6375, respectively.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION:

Background

On December 10, 2001, the Department published in the Federal Register an antidumping duty order covering honey from the PRC. See Notice of Amended Final Determination of Sales at Less Than Fair Value and Antidumping Duty Order; Honey from the People's Republic of China, 66 FR 63670 (December 10, 2001). On December 1, 2004, the Department published a Notice of Opportunity to Request an Administrative Review of Antidumping or Countervailing Duty Order, Finding, or Suspended Investigation, 69 FR 69889. On December 30, 2004, the American Honey Producers Association and the Sioux Honey Association (collectively, Petitioners), requested, in accordance with section 351.213(b) of the Department's regulations, an administrative review of the antidumping duty order on honey from the PRC for nineteen companies¹ covering the period December 1, 2003, through November 30, 2004. On December 30, 2004, and January 3, 2005, nine Chinese companies requested an administrative review of their respective companies. The Department notes that Petitioners' request covered these nine companies as well.

On January 31, 2005, the Department initiated an administrative review of nineteen Chinese companies. See Initiation of Antidumping and Countervailing Duty Administrative Reviews and Request for Revocation in Part, 70 FR 4818 (January 31, 2005). On February 22, 2005, Petitioners filed a letter withdrawing their request for review of seven companies. On March 29, 2005, the Department rescinded this review with respect to those seven companies, as only petitioners had requested a review of those companies. See Notice of Partial Rescission of Antidumping Duty Administrative Review: Honey from the People's Republic of China, 70 FR 15836 (March 29, 2005).

On April 28, 2005, Petitioners withdrew their request for review of Anhui Native Produce Import and Export Corp., and on April 29, 2005, Petitioners withdrew their request for review of Inner Mongolia Autonomous Region Native Produce and Animal By-Products Import and Export Corporation. Petitioners were the only party to request a review of these two companies.

Rescission of Review

The applicable regulation, 19 CFR 351.213(d)(1), states that if a party that requested an administrative review withdraws the request within 90 days of ¹ Among these 19 companies are "Inner Mongolia Autonomous Region Native Produce and Animal By-Products Import & Export Corp.," and "Inner Mongolia Autonomous Region Native Produce and Animal By-Products." These two names refer to the same company and the review is, therefore, being rescinded with respect to both iterations of the name.
