SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION:

I. HUD Section 504 Self-Evaluation

HUD has conducted a self-evaluation of its regional office facilities and its policies and practices, consistent with HUD's responsibilities under section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act of 1973 (29 U.S.C. 794) (Section 504). Section 504 prohibits discrimination on the basis of disability in federally assisted programs and activities. In 1978, Section 504 was amended to extend its coverage to programs and activities conducted by federal executive agencies, including HUD. The Department's regulations implementing Section 504 for its programs and activities are codified at 24 CFR part 9 (entitled "Enforcement of Nondiscrimination on the Basis of Disability in Programs and Activities conducted by the Department of Housing and Urban Development").

The objective of the self-evaluation is two-fold: (1) To determine whether current HUD policies and practices (including regulations, handbooks, notices, and other written guidance) discriminate, or have the effect of discriminating, on the basis of disability; and (2) to determine if HUD facilities are accessible to persons with disabilities. The types of disability discrimination the self-evaluation seeks to disclose include those situations where:

1. Otherwise qualified persons are excluded from participation in, or denied benefits of, HUD programs and activities on the basis of disability;
2. HUD policies that, although neutral on their face, in operation limit the ability of persons with disabilities to benefit from program opportunities (e.g., requiring a person to make a written request for information on HUD's assisted housing programs); and
3. Separate or different benefits or services are provided to persons on the basis of disability where such action is not required to provide a benefit or service as effective as those provided to others (e.g., holding a separate training program for persons with hearing impairments is discriminatory when the training can be effectively held in an integrated setting with the provision of interpreters).

II. Draft Self-Evaluation Report

HUD has prepared a draft report presenting the results of its self-evaluation. The draft report also discusses the methodology HUD used to conduct the self-evaluation, and contains recommendations for addressing identified barriers. The HUD draft report is located at <http://www.hud.gov/offices/fheo/disabilities/index.cfm>.

HUD seeks public comment on the draft report from interested parties, including persons with disabilities, or organizations representing individuals with disabilities. Comments must be submitted to HUD no later than July 22, 2005 and must be submitted to the address specified in the ADDRESSES section of this notice. HUD will issue a final self-evaluation report after consideration of the public comments received on the draft report.

Dated: June 14, 2005.

Roy A. Bernardi,
Deputy Secretary.
