j. Deadline for filing comments and motions to intervene: August 18, 2005.

All documents (original and eight copies) should be filed with: Magalie R. Salas, Secretary, Federal Energy Regulatory Commission, 888 First Street, NE., Washington, DC 20426.

Comments, protests, and interventions may be filed electronically via the Internet in lieu of paper; see 18 CFR 385.2001(a)(1)(iii) and the instructions on the Commission's Web site under the "e-Filing" link. The Commission strongly encourages electronic filings. Please include the project number (P-2304-008) on any comments or motions filed.

The Commission's Rules of Practice and Procedure require all intervenors filing documents with the Commission to serve a copy of that document on each person in the official service list for the project. Further, if an intervenor files comments or documents with the Commission relating to the merits of an issue that may affect the responsibilities of a particular resource agency, they must also serve a copy of the document on that resource agency.

k. Description of Application: The United States (U.S.) and the Salt River Valley Water Users' Association (Association) jointly operate and maintain the Salt River Federal Reclamation Project (Reclamation Project). The Reclamation Project includes all dams on the Salt River and the associated hydroelectric facilities regulated by the Bureau of Reclamation (BR). The application was filed to facilitate the incorporation of the Project into the Reclamation Project pursuant to section 213 of the Arizona Water Settlements Act of 2004, Pub. L. No. 108-451 (the Settlements Act). The Settlements Act provides that the Secretary of the Interior shall accept transfer of title to the project from SRP and hold title for the benefit of the Reclamation Project; that upon transfer of the title, the Commission shall have no further licensing and regulatory authority over the project; that the Association and SRP shall be responsible for the care, operation, and maintenance of the project pursuant to the contract between the U.S. and the Association, dated September 6, 1917, as amended; and that all other applicable Federal environmental laws shall continue to apply to the Project. The Project will ultimately be operated under the oversight of the BR.

l. Locations of Application: A copy of the application is available for inspection and reproduction at the Commission in the Public Reference Room, located at 888 First Street NE., Room 2A, Washington, DC 20426, or by calling (202) 502-8371.
