SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION: This administrative final rule reflects the administrative action of changing the address of the Utah State Office of BLM. It changes the street address for the personal filing of documents relating to public lands in Utah, but makes no other changes in filing requirements. This rule is an administrative action to change the address for one BLM State Office. The BLM has determined that it has no substantive impact on the public, imposes no costs, and merely updates a list of addresses included in the Code of Federal Regulations for the convenience of the public. The Department of the Interior, therefore, for good cause finds under 5 U.S.C. 553 (b)(B) and 553 (d)(3) that notice and public procedures are unnecessary and that the rule may take effect upon publication.

Procedural Matters*Regulatory Planning and Review (Executive Order 12866)*

Regulatory Flexibility Act

This final rule is a purely administrative regulatory action having no effects upon the public or the environment, it has been determined that the rule will not have a significant effect on the economy or small entities. Further, the Department has determined under the Regulatory Flexibility Act (5 U.S.C. 601, et seq.) that it will not have a significant economic impact on a substantial number of small entities. Reporting address change for this BLM State Office will not have any economic impact whatsoever.

Small Business Regulatory Enforcement Fairness Act

Paperwork Reduction Act of 1995

This final rule is a purely administrative regulatory action having no effects upon the public or on information collections. This rule does not contain information collection requirements that require approval by the Office of Management and Budget under 44 U.S.C. 3501 et seq.

Takings Implication Assessment (Executive Order 12630)

As required by Executive Order 12630, the Department of the Interior has determined that the rule would not cause a taking of private property. No private property rights would be affected by a rule that merely reports address change for this BLM State Office. The Department therefore certifies that this proposed rule does not represent a governmental action capable of interference with constitutionally protected property rights.

Civil Justice Reform (Executive Order 12988)

This final rule is a purely administrative regulatory action having no effects upon the public and will not unduly burden the judicial system and meets the requirements of Sections 3(a) and 3(b)(2) of the Executive Order.

This final rule is a purely administrative regulatory action having no effects upon the public or the environment, it has been determined that the rule is categorically excluded from review under section 102(2)(C) of the National Environmental Policy Act of 1969 (42 U.S.C. 4332(2)(C)).

Unfunded Mandate Reform Act of 1995 (Executive Order 12866)

This final rule is a purely administrative regulatory action and will not impose an unfunded mandate on state, local, or tribal governments.

Consultation and Coordination With Indian Tribal Governments (Executive Order 13175)

This final rule is a purely administrative regulatory action and has no implications under Executive Order 13211.

Clarity of the Regulations (Executive Order 12866)

Executive Order 12866 requires each agency to write regulations that are simple and easy to understand. The BLM invites your comments on how to make these regulations easier to understand, including answers to questions such as the following:

1. Are the requirements in the final regulations clearly stated?
2. Do the final regulations contain technical language or jargon that interferes with clarity?
3. Does the format of the final regulations (grouping and order of sections, use of headings, paragraphing, etc.) aid or reduce their clarity?
4. Would the final regulations be easier to understand if they were divided into more (but shorter) sections?
5. Is the description of the final regulation in SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION section of this preamble helpful in making the final regulation easier to understand?

Please send any comments you have on the clarity of the regulations to the address specified in the ADDRESSES section.
