Burlington Industries LLC Corporate Office, a Division of WL Ross & Company LLC Now Known as International Textile Group, Inc., Greensboro, NC

Amended Certification Regarding Eligibility To Apply for Worker Adjustment Assistance and Alternative Trade Adjustment Assistance

In accordance with section 223 of the Trade Act of 1974 (19 U.S.C. 2273), and section 246 of the Trade Act of 1974, (26 U.S.C. 2913), as amended, the Department of Labor issued a Certification of Eligibility To Apply for Worker Adjustment Assistance and Alternative Trade Adjustment

Assistance on June 9, 2004, applicable to workers of Burlington Industries LLC, Corporate Office, a division of WL Ross & Company LLC, Greensboro, North Carolina. The notice was published in the Federal Register on July 7, 2004 (69 FR 40984).

At the request of the State agency, the Department reviewed the certification for workers of the subject firm. New information shows that Burlington Industries LLC, Corporate Office, a division of WL Ross & Company LLC was purchased by International Textile Group, Inc. during 2004. Workers wages at the subject firm are being reported under the Unemployment Insurance (UI) tax account for International Textile Group, Inc., Greensboro, North Carolina.

Accordingly, the Department is amending the certification to properly reflect this matter.

The intent of the Department's certification is to include all workers of Burlington Industries LLC, Corporate Office, a division of WL Ross & Company LLC, now known as International Textile Group who was adversely affected by increased imports.

The amended notice applicable to TA-W-54,821 is hereby issued as follows:

All workers of Burlington Industries LLC, Corporate Office, a division of WL Ross & Company LLC, now known as International Textile Group, Inc., Greensboro, North Carolina (TA-W-54,821), who became totally or partially separated from employment on or after February 5, 2004, through June 9, 2006, are eligible to apply for adjustment assistance under Section 223 of the Trade Act of 1974, and are also eligible to apply for alternative trade adjustment assistance under Section 246 of the Trade Act of 1974.

Signed at Washington, DC this 14th day of October 2005.

Richard Church,

Certifying Officer, Division of Trade Adjustment Assistance.

Cequent Consumer Products, a Subsidiary of Trimas Corporation, Sheffield, PA; Notice of Revised Determination on Reconsideration of Alternative Trade Adjustment Assistance

By letter dated September 15, 2005, a company official requested administrative reconsideration regarding Alternative Trade Adjustment Assistance (ATAA) applicable to workers of the subject firm. The negative determination was signed on August 16, 2005, and was published in the Federal Register on September 8, 2005 (70 FR 53391).

The workers of Cequent Consumer Products, a subsidiary of Trimas Corporation, Sheffield, Pennsylvania were certified eligible to apply for Trade Adjustment Assistance (TAA) on August 16, 2005.

The initial ATAA investigation determined that the skills of the subject worker group are easily transferable to other positions in the local area.

In the request for reconsideration, the company official provided new information confirming that the skills of the workers at the subject firm are not easily transferable in the local commuting area.

Additional investigation has determined that the workers possess skills that are not easily transferable. A significant number or proportion of the worker group are age fifty years or over. Competitive conditions within the industry are adverse.

Conclusion

After careful review of the additional facts obtained on reconsideration, I conclude that the requirements of Section 246 of the Trade Act of 1974, as amended, have been met for workers at the subject firm.

In accordance with the provisions of the Act, I make the following certification:

All workers of Cequent Consumer Products, a subsidiary of Trimas Corporation, Sheffield, Pennsylvania, who became totally or partially separated from employment on or after August 3, 2004 through August 16, 2007, are eligible to apply for trade adjustment assistance under Section 223 of the Trade Act of 1974 and are also eligible to apply for alternative trade adjustment assistance under Section 246 of the Trade Act of 1974.

Signed in Washington, DC this 12th day of October 2005.

Linda G. Poole,

Certifying Officer, Division of Trade Adjustment Assistance.
