SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION:

Comments Invited

The FAA invites interested persons to participate in this rulemaking by submitting written comments, data, or views. We also invite comments relating to the economic, environmental, energy, or federalism impacts that might result from adopting the proposals in this document. The most helpful comments reference a specific portion of the proposal, explain the reason for any recommended change, and include supporting data. We ask that you send us two copies of written comments.

We will file in the docket all comments we receive, as well as a report summarizing each substantive public contact with FAA personnel concerning this proposed rulemaking. The docket is available for public inspection before and after the comment closing date. If you wish to review the docket in person, go to the address in the ADDRESSES section of this preamble between 9 a.m. and 5 p.m., Monday through Friday, except Federal holidays. You may also review the docket using the Internet at the Web address in the ADDRESSES section.

Privacy Act: Using the search function of our docket web site, anyone can find and read the comments received into any of our dockets, including the name of the individual sending the comment (or signing the comment on behalf of an association, business, labor union, etc.). You may review DOT's complete Privacy Act Statement in the Federal Register published on April 11, 2000 (65 FR 19477-78) or you may visit <http://dms.dot.gov>.

Before acting on this proposal, we will consider all comments we receive on or before the closing date for comments. We will consider comments filed late if it is possible to do so without incurring expense or delay. We may change this proposal in light of the comments we receive.

If you want the FAA to acknowledge receipt of your comments on this proposal, include with your comments a pre-addressed, stamped postcard on which the docket number appears. We will stamp the date on the postcard and mail it to you.

Sensitive Security Information

Do not file in the docket information that you consider to be sensitive security information. Send or deliver this information (identified as docket number FAA-2003-17005) directly to Edith V. Parish, Acting Manager, Airspace and Rules, Office of System Operations and Safety, Federal Aviation Administration, 800 Independence Avenue, SW., Washington, DC 20591, telephone (202) 267-8783. You must mark information that you consider security-sensitive.

Under 14 CFR 11.35 (a), we will review comments as we receive them, before they are placed in the docket. If a comment contains sensitive security information, we remove it before placing the comment in the general docket.

Background

On August 4, 2005 (70 FR 45250), the FAA proposed to amend 14 CFR part 93 to permanently codify the temporary flight restrictions over the Washington, DC Metropolitan Area. The comment period closed November 2, 2005. The FAA has received requests from the U.S. House of Representatives Committee on Transportation and Infrastructure, the National Business Aviation Association, Inc. (NBAA), the Aircraft Owners and Pilots Association (AOPA), the General Aviation Manufacturers Association (GAMA), and the Secretary of Transportation of the Commonwealth of Virginia to extend the comment period and hold public meetings.

Today's Action

The FAA has determined that it is in the public interest to reopen the comment period for the proposed rule published on August 4, 2005 (70 FR 45250) until February 6, 2006 and hold a public meeting. The date, time, and location of this public meeting will be announced in a future Federal Register document.

Issued in Washington, DC, on November 3, 2005.

Edith V. Parish,

Acting Director, System Operations and Safety.

[Docket No. OST-03-15759]

RIN 2105-AD25

Actual Control of U.S. Air Carriers

AGENCY: Office of the Secretary, DOT.

ACTION: Notice of proposed rulemaking (NPRM); request for comments.

SUMMARY: The Department is seeking comments on a proposal to clarify policies that may be used during initial and continuing fitness reviews of U.S. carriers when citizenship is at issue. We propose to add a new section to 14 CFR part 399 that clarifies how the Department will interpret "actual control" of a U.S. air carrier during fitness reviews. This proposal will affect how we interpret the circumstances influencing a determination of "actual control," allowing easier access to foreign capital for U.S. airlines. We are also proposing minor amendments to 14 CFR part 204 to reference the new section and update existing language in part 204.

DATES: Comments are due on or before January 6, 2006.

ADDRESSES: You may send comments identified by DMS Docket No. OST-03-15759 using any of the following methods:

- Web site: <http://dms.dot.gov> Follow the instructions for submitting comments on the DOT electronic docket site.
- Fax: 1-202-493-2251.
- Federal eRulemaking Portal: <http://www.regulations.gov> Follow the instructions for submitting comments.
- Mail: Docket Operations, U.S. Department of Transportation, 400 Seventh Street, SW., Nassif Building, Room PL-401, Washington, DC 20590-0001.
- Hand Delivery: Room PL-401 on the plaza level of the Nassif Building, 400 Seventh Street, SW., Washington, DC, between 9 a.m. and 5 p.m., Monday through Friday, except Federal holidays.

Instructions: All submissions must include the agency name and docket number or Regulatory Identification Number for this rulemaking. For detailed instructions on submitting comments and additional information on the rulemaking process, see the Public Participation heading in the Supplementary Information section of this document. Note that all comments received will be posted without change to <http://dms.dot.gov>, including any personal information provided. Please see the Privacy Act heading under Supplementary Information for further information.

Docket: For access to the docket to read background documents or comments received, go to <http://dms.dot.gov> at any time or to Room PL-401 on the plaza level of the Nassif Building, 400 Seventh Street, SW., Washington, DC, between 9 a.m. and 5 p.m., Monday through Friday, except Federal holidays.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION: Comments

Invited: The Department invites interested persons to participate in this rulemaking by submitting written comments, data, or views. We also invite comments relating to any economic, environmental, energy, or federalism impacts that might result from adopting the proposals in this document. The most helpful comments will reference a specific portion of the proposal, explain the reason for any recommended change, and include supporting data.

Public Participation

The DMS is available 24 hours each day, 365 days each year. You can get electronic submission and retrieval help and guidelines under the "help" section of the DMS Web site. If you want us to notify you that we received your comments, please include a self-addressed, stamped envelope or postcard or print the acknowledge page that appears after submitting comments on-line.

Comments received after the comment closing date will be included in the docket, and we will consider late comments to the extent practicable.

Privacy Act: Using the search function of our docket Web site, anyone can find and read the comments received in any of our dockets, including the name of the individual sending the comment (or signing the comment on behalf of an association, business, labor union, etc.).
