SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION:

I. Authority to Prescribe Alcohol Beverage Labeling and Advertising Regulations

Sections 105(e) and 105(f) of the Federal Alcohol Administration Act (FAA Act), codified in the United States Code at 27 U.S.C. 205(e) and 205(f), set forth standards for the regulation of the labeling and advertising of distilled spirits, wine (at least 7 percent alcohol by volume), and malt beverages, generally referred to as "alcohol beverage products" throughout this document. These sections give the Secretary of the Treasury the authority to issue regulations to prevent deception of the consumer, to provide the consumer with "adequate information" as to the identity and quality of the product, and to prohibit false or misleading statements on product labels and in advertisements. Additionally, these FAA Act provisions give the Secretary the authority to prohibit, irrespective of falsity, statements relating to age, manufacturing processes, analyses, guarantees, and scientific or irrelevant matters which are likely to mislead the consumer. In the case of malt beverages, the labeling and advertising provisions of the FAA Act apply only if the laws of the State into which the malt beverages are to be shipped impose similar requirements. The Alcohol and Tobacco Tax and Trade Bureau (TTB) is responsible for the administration of the FAA Act and the regulations promulgated under it. The labeling and advertising regulations for wine, distilled spirits, and malt beverages are codified in title 27 of the Code of Federal Regulations (CFR), parts 4, 5, and 7, respectively.

II. Current Regulatory Standards

Sections 5.42(b)(5) and 5.65(a)(8) of the TTB regulations (27 CFR 5.42(b)(5) and 5.65(a)(8)), hereinafter referred to collectively as the "pure regulations," currently state that the word "pure" may not be used on distilled spirits labels or in advertisements unless:

- It refers to a particular ingredient used in the production of the distilled spirits, and is a truthful representation about the ingredient; or
- It is part of the bona fide name of a permittee or retailer for whom the distilled spirits are bottled; or
- It is part of the bona fide name of the permittee who bottled the distilled spirits.

TTB considers variants of the word "pure" such as "purest," "purity," and "pureness" to fall within the purview of these regulations. These prohibitions apply only to distilled spirits. There are no similar prohibitions on the use of the
