

provided. FCC Form 475B includes fields that ask for the complainant's contact information, including name, address, e-mail address, and telephone number. Form 475B also includes a section that asks for information to help identify the station that aired the alleged obscene, profane, and/or indecent material, including the network's name, name of the station, name of the particular program, host or personality/DJ, time of the program, the time zone, the date of the program and the community where the material was aired. The last section on Form 475B asks the complainant to describe the incident and to include as much detail as possible about specific words, languages, and images, to help the Commission determine whether the program was, in fact, obscene, profane, or indecent.

The data may become the foundation for enforcement actions and/or rulemaking proceedings, as appropriate. The information will strengthen the effectiveness of the Commission's rules in deterring obscene, profane, and indecent content and programming.

Title: Rules and Regulations Implementing Minimum Customer Account Record Obligations on All Local Interexchange Carrier (CARE), CG Docket No. 02-386.

Needs and Uses: In the 2005 Report and Order and Further Notice of Proposed Rulemaking, In the Matter of Rules and Regulations Implementing Minimum Customer Account Record Exchange Obligations on All Local and Interexchange Carriers (2005 Report and Order), CG Docket No. 02-386, FCC 05-29, which was released on February 25, 2005, the Commission adopted rules governing the exchange of customer account information between local exchange carriers (LECs) and interexchange carriers (IXCs).

The Commission concluded that mandatory, minimum standards are needed in light of record evidence demonstrating that information needed by carriers to execute customer requests and properly bill customers is not being consistently provided by all LECs and IXCs.

In the 2005 Further Notice of Proposed Rulemaking, the Commission sought comment on whether to mandate the exchange of particular customer account information between two LECs when a customer switches local service providers. The Commission proposed this action in light of concerns reflected in the record regarding the need for more effective communications between LECs when consumers change local service providers. Because the information exchanges proposed in the 2005 Further Notice of Proposed Rulemaking constitute proposed new information collections under the PRA, the Commission specifically invited the general public and OMB to comment on the proposed requirements.

The information collection requirements include: (1) those that are contained in the 2005 Report and Order, which was released on February 25, 2005; and (2) those that the Commission proposes in the 2005 Further Notice of Proposed Rulemaking, published on June 2, 2005, 70 FR 31406.
