

The information may be supplied to state or professional organizations, such as the National Association of State Directors of Teacher Education and Certification (NASDTEC), with whom the DoDEA has reciprocal agreements affecting certificates issued or revoked by the respective systems.

Records may be disclosed to educational accrediting institutions and organizations during review of a school or schools and North Central Association of Colleges and Schools (NCA), one of six regional accrediting associations in the United States, which accredits DoDEA schools.

POLICIES AND PRACTICES FOR STORING, RETRIEVING, ACCESSING, RETAINING, AND DISPOSING OF RECORDS IN THE SYSTEM:

STORAGE:

Paper records are stored in file folders and electronic information in data bases.

RETRIEVABILITY:

The files are indexed by the educator's full name and Social Security Number.

SAFEGUARDS:

Paper records and automated records are maintained in files which are accessible only to authorized personnel. The offices are secured during non-business hours. Access to automated data files is controlled by a user ID and password system.

RETENTION AND DISPOSAL:

Records are maintained for the current as well as the upcoming certification cycles. Records for an expired certification cycle are retained for 3 years; then they are destroyed. If a teacher leaves the system, except in the case of an educator who is participating in the DoDEA Administrative Re-employment Rights Program, the file is maintained for three years following the current expiration date of the certificate.
