

and not be modified to meet the standard.

NHTSA's Analysis: The modifications G&K identified as necessary to comply with the standard would not preclude the vehicle from being deemed eligible for importation. Conformity packages submitted for vehicles imported under the decision must demonstrate that the vehicle is equipped with components that allow it to conform to the standard. Any modification or replacement of components necessary to meet the requirements of the standard must be shown to bring the vehicle into compliance. Such proof must be submitted by an RI as part of any conformity package submitted for 2003 Ferrari 306 Spider and Coupe passenger cars.

(4) FMVSS No. 301 Fuel System Integrity: The petition identified a number of fuel system components in the non-U.S. certified model that must be replaced with U.S.-model components to achieve conformity with the standard. FNA requested that the same modifications required for 2002 Ferrari 360 Spider and Coupe passenger cars be required for the 2003 model as well.

NHTSA's Analysis: Because FNA described the 2002 and 2003 models as being identical with respect to their conformance with all applicable FMVSS and G&K did not take issue with this representation, the agency has concluded that the following modifications, which were identified as needed to conform the 2002 model to the requirements of the standard, are appropriate for the 2003 model as well:

(a) Replacement of the fuel/vapor separator, rollover valve, filler neck, vapor lines, evaporative (charcoal) canister, air pump, and associated hardware on non-U.S. certified versions of the vehicle to make them identical to those in the U.S. certified version;

(b) modification of the U.S.-model filler neck so that it can be attached to the non-U.S.-model tank; and

(c) relocation of the charcoal canister, air pump, fuel filler neck, and rollover valve so that they are in essentially the same position as those components found on the U.S. certified vehicle.

Conclusion

In view of the above considerations, NHTSA decided to grant the petition.

Vehicle Eligibility Number for Subject Vehicles

The importer of a vehicle admissible under any final decision must indicate on the form HS-7 accompanying entry the appropriate vehicle eligibility number indicating that the vehicle is eligible for entry. VSP-410 is the vehicle eligibility number assigned to vehicles admissible under this decision.

Final Decision

Accordingly, on the basis of the foregoing, NHTSA decided that 2003 Ferrari Spider and Coupe passenger cars that were not originally manufactured to comply with all applicable FMVSS, are substantially similar to 2003 Ferrari Spider and Coupe passenger cars originally manufactured for importation into and sale in the United States and certified under 49 U.S.C. 30115, and are capable of being readily altered to conform to all applicable FMVSS.
