

child's habitual residence and currently located in another country that is also party to the Hague Convention on the Civil Aspects of International Child Abduction (Contracting State). The application requests information regarding the identities of the applicant, the child or children, and the person alleged to have wrongfully removed or retained the child or children. In addition, the application requires that the applicant provide the circumstances of the alleged wrongful removal or retention and the legal justification for the request for return or access. The State Department, as the U.S. Central Authority, uses this information to establish, if possible, the applicants' claims under the Convention; to advise applicants about available remedies under the Convention; and to provide the information necessary to the foreign Central Authority in its efforts to locate the child or children, and to facilitate return of or access to the child or children pursuant to the Convention.

BILLING CODE 4710-05-P

DEPARTMENT OF STATE

[Delegation of Authority 293]

Delegation of Authority by the Secretary of State to Officers of the Department of State and the Administrator of the U.S. Agency for International Development of Authorities Under the Foreign Assistance Act of 1961 and Other Related Acts

By virtue of the authority vested in me as Secretary of State by the laws of the United States, including the Foreign Assistance Act of 1961, as amended, (22 U.S.C. 2151 et seq.) (the Act), Executive Order 12163 of September 29, 1979, as amended (44 FR 56673) (the Order), the Migration and Refugee Assistance Act of 1962 (22 U.S.C. 2601), and section 1 of the State Department Basic Authorities Act, as amended (22 U.S.C. 2651a), I hereby delegate the following functions to the extent authorized by law:

Section 1. Functions Delegated to the Director of Foreign Assistance

Exclusive of the functions otherwise reserved to the Secretary of State herein, there are hereby delegated to the Director of Foreign Assistance:

(a) The functions conferred upon the Secretary of State by sections 101(b), 531(b) and 622(c) of the Act, section 2(b) of the Arms Export Control Act, and section 1523 of the Foreign Affairs Reform and Restructuring Act of 1998 (22 U.S.C. 6593), including the authority to provide for continuous supervision and general direction of development and other economic assistance, military assistance, military education and training, and foreign military financing, designing a U.S. foreign assistance strategy and budgetary approach, determining whether there shall be a program for a country and the amount thereof, and approving the programming of foreign assistance.

(b) The functions conferred upon the Secretary by section 1-100 of the Order and section 1 of Executive Order 11077 of January 22, 1963 (28 FR 629) insofar as such functions are necessary to approve assistance and programs under chapters 3 and 8 of Part I of the Act, Part II of the Act (including chapters 4, 6 and 8 thereof), and the Migration and Refugee Assistance Act of 1962 (22 U.S.C. 2601) as part of a coordinated U.S. foreign assistance strategy.

Section 2. Functions Delegated to Other Officers of the Department of State

Exclusive of the functions reserved to the Secretary or delegated by section 1, the following functions are delegated to officers of the Department of State as indicated:

(a) To the Under Secretary for Arms Control and International Security:

(1) The functions conferred on the Secretary by Executive Order 11958 of January 18, 1977 (42 FR 4311) relating to sales and exports under the Arms Export Control Act (22 U.S.C. 2751 et seq.).

(2) The functions conferred upon the Secretary of State by statute or by section 2(b) of the Arms Export Control Act relating to continuous supervision and general direction of military sales and exports, including, but not limited to, whether there shall be a military sale or export for a country and the value thereof, to the end that such sales and exports are effectively integrated both at home and abroad and the foreign policy of the United States is best served thereby.

(3) The functions conferred on the Secretary of State by section 374 of Title 10, United States Code and other authorities and responsibilities of the Secretary of State related to the provision of Department of Defense equipment and services for narcotics-related purposes.

(4) The functions conferred upon the Secretary of State by—

(A) Sections 39 and 42(b) of the Arms Export Control Act (22 U.S.C. 2751);

(B) Section 504 of the Foreign Relations Authorization Act, fiscal year 1979 (22 U.S.C. 2656d);

(C) Section 1454(d)(1) of the Department of Defense Authorization
