

NUCLEAR REGULATORY COMMISSION

[Docket No. 50–361 and 50–362]

Southern California Edison Company; Notice of Withdrawal of Biweekly Notice of Consideration of Issuance for Amendments to Facility Operating Licenses

The U.S. Nuclear Regulatory Commission (the Commission) is withdrawing the “Notice of Consideration of Issuance of Amendments to Facility Operating Licenses, Proposed No Significant Hazards Consideration Determination, and Opportunity for a Hearing,” in the Federal Register dated March 28, 2006 (71 FR 15485). The proposed amendments were to Facility Operating License No. NPF–10 and NPF–15 for the San Onofre Nuclear Generating Station, Units 2 and 3 (SONGS 2 and 3), located in San Diego County, California.

The licensee requests the NRC consent to the transfer of the City of Anaheim’s 3.16 percent undivided ownership interest in SONGS 2 and 3 to Southern California Edison, excluding Anaheim’s interest in its spent fuel and the SONGS 2 and 3 independent spent fuel storage installation.

The Commission had issued a “Notice of Consideration of Issuance of Amendment to Facility Operating License, Proposed No Significant Hazards Consideration Determination, and Opportunity for a Hearing,” in the Federal Register dated March 28, 2006 (71 FR 15485). However, since the hearing rights for biweekly notices applicable to license amendments do not apply to license transfers, the NRC staff published a new individual transfer notice in the Federal Register dated June 8, 2006 (71 FR 33321), and the originally published biweekly notice is being hereby withdrawn.

For further details with respect to this action, see the application for amendment dated March 10, 2006, as supplemented by the document dated May 16, 2006. Documents may be examined, and/or copied for a fee, at the NRC’s Public Document Room (PDR), located at One White Flint North, Public File Area O1 F21, 11555 Rockville Pike (first floor), Rockville, Maryland. Publicly available records will be accessible electronically from the Agencywide Documents Access and Management Systems (ADAMS) Public Electronic Reading Room on the Internet at the NRC Web site, <http://www.nrc.gov/reading-rm.html>. Persons who do not have access to ADAMS or who encounter problems in accessing the documents located in ADAMS should contact the NRC PDR Reference staff by telephone at 1–800–397–4209, or 301–415–4737 or by e-mail to pdr@nrc.gov.

Dated at Rockville, Maryland, this 28th day of June 2006.

OFFICE OF MANAGEMENT AND BUDGET

Revised 2006 List of Designated Federal Entities and Federal Entities

AGENCY: Office of Management and Budget.

ACTION: Notice.

SUMMARY: As required by the Inspector General Act of 1978, as amended (IG Act), this notice provides a list of Designated Federal Entities and Federal Entities.

FOR FURTHER INFORMATION CONTACT: Tawana Webb, Office of Federal Financial Management, Office of Management and Budget, telephone (202) 395–7586 (direct) or (202) 395–3993 (main office).

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION: This notice provides a revised 2006 List of Designated Federal Entities and Federal Entities which, under the IG Act, the Office of Management and Budget (OMB) is required to publish annually. The revision replaces the title “Secretary” with “Board of Regents” as entity head for the Smithsonian Institution under the “Designated Federal Entity and Entity Heads” list. The previous list was published in the Federal Register on April 27, 2006 (71 FR 24872). This revised list is also posted on the OMB Web site at <http://www.whitehouse.gov/omb>.

The list is divided into two groups: Designated Federal Entities and Federal Entities. Designated Federal Entities are listed in the IG Act, except for those agencies that have ceased to exist or that have been deleted from the list. The Designated Federal Entities are required to establish and maintain Offices of Inspector General to: (1) Conduct and supervise audits and investigations relating to programs and operations; (2) promote economy, efficiency, and effectiveness of, and to prevent and detect fraud and abuse in such programs and operations; and (3) provide a means of keeping the entity head and the Congress fully and currently informed about problems and deficiencies relating to the administration of such programs and operations and the necessity for, and progress of, corrective actions.

Federal Entities are defined, in Section 8G(a)(1) of the Inspector General Act, as any Government corporation (within the meaning of section 103(1) of title 5, United States Code), any Government controlled corporation (within the meaning of section 103(2) of such title), or any other entity in the Executive Branch of the government, or any independent regulatory agency, but does not include:

(1) An establishment (as defined in Section 11(2) of the Inspector General Act) or part of an establishment,

(2) A designated Federal entity (as defined in Section 8G(a)(2) of the Inspector General Act) or part of a designated Federal entity,

(3) The Executive Office of the President,

(4) The Central Intelligence Agency,

(5) The Government Accountability Office, or

(6) Any entity in the judicial or legislative branches of the Government, including the Administrative Office of the United States Courts and the Architect of the Capitol and any activities under the direction of the Architect of the Capitol.

Federal Entities are required to report annually to each House of the Congress and OMB on audit and investigative activities in their organizations.

Herein follows the text of the revised 2006 List of Designated Federal Entities and Federal Entities:

Revised 2006 List of Designated Federal Entities and Federal Entities

The Inspector General Act of 1978, as amended, requires OMB to publish a list of “Designated Federal Entities” and “Federal Entities” and the heads of such entities. Designated Federal Entities are required to establish Offices of Inspector General and to report semiannually to each House of the Congress and the Office of the Management and Budget summarizing the activities of the Office during the immediately preceding six-month periods ending March 31 and September 30. Federal Entities are required to report annually on October 31 to each House of the Congress and the Office of Management and Budget on audit and investigative activities in their organizations.
