

al. v. Coltec Industries, Inc., et al., Civil Action No. 06–3493, was lodged with the United States District Court for the Eastern District of New York.

The proposed Consent Judgment resolves natural resource damages claims of the United States, on behalf of the Undersecretary of Commerce for Oceans and Atmosphere of the National Oceanic and Atmospheric Administration (“NOAA”), and the Secretary of the Interior (“DOI”), under the Comprehensive Environmental Response, Compensation, and Liability Act (“CERCLA”), 42 U.S.C. 9601 et seq., in connection with the Liberty Industrial Finishing Superfund Site in Oyster Bay, New York (“Site”), against Coltec Industries, Inc.; Goodrich, Corporation; 55 Motor Avenue LLC; Cubbies Properties, Inc.; Jeffrey Rosmarin; J. Jay Tanenbaum; Jan Burman; Jerome Lazarus; Liberty Associates; William Heller; Koch-Glitsch, LP; Beazer East, Inc.; and Liberty Aero, Inc. The proposed Consent Judgment also resolves potential contribution claims against the United States pursuant to Sections 107(a) and 113(f) of CERCLA, 42 U.S.C. 9607(a) and 9613(f). The proposed Consent Judgment requires the thirteen defendants to design and construct a fishladder in the Massapequa Preserve, Oyster Bay, New York (estimated at $173,000), and to reimburse NOAA and DOI for their past and estimated future costs in the amount of $131,500. The United States, on behalf of two Settling Federal Agencies, the Department of Defense and the General Services Administration, will pay about 43 percent of the total settlement, which will amount to approximately $130,000. The proposed Consent Judgment provides that the thirteen defendants and the Settling Federal Agencies are entitled to contribution protection as provided by Section 113(f)(2) of CERCLA, 42 U.S.C. 9613(f)(2) for matters addressed by the settlement. The proposed Consent Judgment also resolves natural resource damages claims of the State of New York, on behalf of Denise M. Sheehan, Commissioner of the New York State Department of Environmental Conservation and Trustee of Natural Resources of the State of New York.

The Department of Justice will receive for a period of thirty (30) days from the date of this publication comments relating to the proposed consent Judgment. Comments should be addressed to the Assistant Attorney General of the Environment and Natural Resources Division, Department of Justice, Washington, DC 20530, and should refer to United States, et al. v.

Coleman Cable, Inc., Automotive Division, Including On-Site Leased Workers of Future Force, Including On-Site Workers of Future Force Receiving Wages Paid by Crum and Foster, Miami Lakes, FL; Amended Certification Regarding Eligibility to Apply for Worker Adjustment Assistance and Alternative Trade Adjustment Assistance

In accordance with Section 223 of the Trade Act of 1974 (19 U.S.C. 2273), and Section 246 of the Trade Act of 1974 (26 U.S.C. 2813), as amended, the Department of Labor issued a Certification of Eligibility to Apply for Worker Adjustment Assistance and Alternative Trade Adjustment Assistance on May 5, 2006, applicable to workers of Coleman Cable, Inc., Automotive Division, including on-site leased workers of Future Force, Miami Lakes, Florida. The notice was published in the Federal Register on May 17, 2006 (71 FR 28709).

At the request of the State agency, the Department reviewed the certification for workers of the subject firm. The workers are engaged in the production of automotive cables and extension cords.

Information provided by a company official shows that Crum and Foster was contracted by the leasing firm, Future Force, to provide payroll function services to workers employed on-site at the Miami Lakes, Florida location of Coleman Cable, Inc., Automotive Division.

Information also shows that all on-site leased workers of Future Force separated from employment at the subject firm had their wages reported under a separate unemployment insurance (UI) tax account for Crum and Foster.

Based on these findings, the Department is amending this certification to include leased workers whose wages were reported by Crum and Foster working on-site at Coleman Cable, Inc., Automotive Division, Miami Lakes, Florida.

The intent of the Department's certification is to include all workers of Coleman Cable, Inc., Automotive Division who was adversely affected by increased company imports.

The amended notice applicable to TA-W-59,240 is hereby issued as follows:

All workers of Coleman Cable, Inc., Automotive Division, including on-site leased workers of Future Force, and on-site Future Force workers who's wages were reported by Crum and Foster, Miami Lakes, Florida, who became totally or partially separated from employment on or after April 18, 2005, through May 5, 2008, are eligible to apply for adjustment assistance under Section 223 of the Trade Act of 1974 and are also eligible to apply for alternative trade adjustment assistance under Section 246 of the Trade Act of 1974.

Signed at Washington, DC, this 26th day of July 2006.

Delphi Connection Systems, Packard Hughes Interconnections, Irvine, CA; Amended Certification Regarding Eligibility to Apply for Worker Adjustment Assistance and Alternative Trade Adjustment Assistance

In accordance with Section 223 of the Trade Act of 1974 (19 U.S.C. 2273), and Section 246 of the Trade Act of 1974 (26 U.S.C. 2813), as amended, the Department of Labor issued a Certification of Eligibility to Apply for Worker Adjustment Assistance and Alternative Trade Adjustment Assistance on March 24, 2006, applicable to workers of Delphi Connection Systems, Irvine, California. The notice was published in the Federal Register on April 12, 2006 (71 FR 18772).

At the request of the State agency, the Department reviewed the certification for workers of the subject firm. The workers were engaged in the production of flexible wiring harnesses and connectors for harsh environment.

New information shows that Packard Hughes Interconnect is the parent firm of Delphi Connection Systems. Workers separated from employment at the subject firm had their wages reported under a separate unemployment insurance (UI) tax account for Packard Hughes Interconnect.

Accordingly, the Department is amending the certification to properly reflect this matter.

The intent of the Department's certification is to include all workers of Delphi Connection Systems who were
