footwear, by reason of infringement of claims 1-2 of U.S. Patent No. 6,993,858; U.S. Patent No. D517,789 (the asserted design patent); and the Crocs trade dress. The complaint identified 11 respondents.

DATES: Effective date: The matching program will become effective 40 days after a copy of the agreement, as approved by the Data Integrity Board of each agency, is sent to Congress and the Office of Management and Budget, or 30 days after publication of this notice in the Federal Register, whichever is later. The projected date for this agreement is September 2006 or as soon thereafter as the agreement becomes effective. The matching program will continue for 18 months after the effective date and may be extended for an additional 12 months, if the conditions specified in 5 U.S.C. 552a(o)(2)(D) have been met.

Objectives to Be Met by the Matching Program: The purpose of this program is to provide DOJ with the most current addresses of taxpayers to notify debtors of legal actions that may be taken by DOJ and the rights afforded them in the litigation to enforce collection of debts owed to the United States.

Records to Be Matched: DOJ will provide records from the Debt Collection Management System, JUSTICE/JMD-006, last published at 58 FR 60058-60060 (November 12, 1993). This system of records contains information on persons indebted to the United States who have allowed their debts to become delinquent and whose debts have been sent by client Federal agencies to DOJ for enforced collection through litigation. about each individual is called a "record," and the system, whether manual or computer-driven, is called a "system of records." The Privacy Act requires each agency to publish notices of systems of records in the Federal Register and to prepare reports to OMB whenever the agency publishes a new or "altered" system of records.

The records in this system contain requests for repayment benefits, information pertaining to the DOJ employees who are approved to receive benefits, as well as the benefit amounts and service agreements specific to each individual case. Information contained in this system will be used by the Department to compile annual reports for the Office of Personnel Management (OPM) on the Department's use of the Student Loan Repayment authority.

The official version of this document is the document published in the Federal Register. Free Internet access to the official edition of the Federal Register and the CFR is available on GPO Access at: <http://www.access.gpo.gov/nara/index.html>.
