

regulations. In particular, Duke Sandersville requested that the Commission grant blanket approval under 18 CFR Part 34 of all future issuances of securities and assumptions of liability by Duke Sandersville.

On April 12, 2002, pursuant to delegated authority, the Director, Division of Tariffs and Rates—East, granted the requests for blanket approval under Part 34. The Director's order also stated that the Commission would publish a separate notice in the Federal Register establishing a period of time for the filing of protests. Accordingly, any person desiring to be heard or to protest the blanket approvals of issuances of securities or assumptions of liability by Duke Sandersville should file a motion to intervene or protest with the Federal Energy Regulatory Commission, 888 First Street, NE., Washington, DC 20426, in accordance with Rules 211 and 214 of the Commission's Rules of Practice and Procedure, 18 CFR 385.211, 385.214 (2006).

Notice is hereby given that the deadline for filing motions to intervene or protest is December 15, 2006.

Absent a request to be heard in opposition by the deadline above, Duke Sandersville is authorized to issue securities and assume obligations or liabilities as guarantor, indorser, surety, or otherwise in respect of any security of another person, provided that such issuance or assumption is for some lawful object within the corporate purposes of Duke Sandersville, compatible with the public interest, and is reasonably necessary or appropriate for such purposes.

The Commission reserves the right to require a further showing that neither public nor private interests will be adversely affected by continued approvals of Duke Sandersville's issuance of securities or assumptions of liability.

Duke Energy Southaven, L.L.C.; Notice of Issuance of Order

December 1, 2006.

Duke Energy Southaven, L.L.C. (Duke Southaven) filed an application for market-based rate authority, with an accompanying rate tariff and code of conduct. The proposed market-based rate schedule provides for sales of capacity, energy, and ancillary services at market-based rates, and for the reassignment of transmission capacity. Duke Southaven also requested waivers of various Commission regulations. In particular, Duke Southaven requested that the Commission grant blanket approval under 18 CFR Part 34 of all future issuances of securities and assumptions of liability by Duke Southaven.

On February 13, 2002, pursuant to delegated authority, the Director, Division of Tariffs and Rates—Central, granted the requests for blanket approval under Part 34. The Director's order also stated that the Commission would publish a separate notice in the Federal Register establishing a period of time for the filing of protests. Accordingly, any person desiring to be heard or to protest the blanket approvals of issuances of securities or assumptions of liability by Duke Southaven should file a motion to intervene or protest with the Federal Energy Regulatory Commission, 888 First Street, NE., Washington, DC 20426, in accordance with Rules 211 and 214 of the Commission's Rules of Practice and Procedure, 18 CFR 385.211, 385.214 (2006).

Notice is hereby given that the deadline for filing motions to intervene or protest is December 15, 2006.

Absent a request to be heard in opposition by the deadline above, Duke Southaven is authorized to issue securities and assume obligations or liabilities as guarantor, indorser, surety, or otherwise in respect of any security of another person, provided that such issuance or assumption is for some lawful object within the corporate purposes of Duke Southaven, compatible with the public interest, and is reasonably necessary or appropriate for such purposes.

Notice of Filing; Eason, Carl R.

November 30, 2006.

Take notice that on November 21, 2006, Vernon N. Brinkley filed an application for authority to hold interlocking positions pursuant to section 305(b) of the Federal Power Act, Part 45 of Title 18 of the Code of Federal Regulations and Commission Order No. 664.

Any person desiring to intervene or to protest this filing must file in accordance with Rules 211 and 214 of the Commission's Rules of Practice and Procedure (18 CFR 385.211, 385.214). Protests will be considered by the Commission in determining the appropriate action to be taken, but will not serve to make protestants parties to the proceeding. Any person wishing to become a party must file a notice of intervention or motion to intervene, as appropriate. Such notices, motions, or protests must be filed on or before the comment date. On or before the comment date, it is not necessary to serve motions to intervene or protests on persons other than the Applicant.

The Commission encourages electronic submission of protests and interventions in lieu of paper using the "eFiling" link at <http://www.ferc.gov>. Persons unable to file electronically should submit an original and 14 copies of the protest or intervention to the Federal Energy Regulatory Commission, 888 First Street, NE., Washington, DC 20426.
