[Docket Nos. ER02-530-000; ER02-530-001]

Duke Energy Marshall, LLC; Notice of Issuance of Order

December 1, 2006.

Duke Energy Marshall County, LLC (Duke Marshall) filed an application for market-based rate authority, with an accompanying rate tariff. The proposed market-based rate tariff provides for the sale of energy, capacity and certain ancillary services at market-based rates and for the reassignment and sale of transmission capacity. Duke Marshall also requested waivers of various Commission regulations. In particular, Duke Marshall requested that the Commission grant blanket approval under 18 CFR Part 34 of all future issuances of securities and assumptions of liability by Duke Marshall.

On April 17, 2002, pursuant to delegated authority, the Director, Division of Tariffs and Rates—West, granted the requests for blanket approval under Part 34. The Director's order also stated that the Commission would publish a separate notice in the Federal Register establishing a period of time for the filing of protests. Accordingly, any person desiring to be heard or to protest the blanket approvals of issuances of securities or assumptions of liability by Duke Marshall should file a motion to intervene or protest with the Federal Energy Regulatory Commission, 888 First Street, NE., Washington, DC 20426, in accordance with Rules 211 and 214 of the Commission's Rules of Practice and Procedure, 18 CFR 385.211, 385.214 (2006).

Notice is hereby given that the deadline for filing motions to intervene or protest is December 15, 2006.

Absent a request to be heard in opposition by the deadline above, Duke Marshall is authorized to issue securities and assume obligations or liabilities as guarantor, indorser, surety, or otherwise in respect of any security of another person, provided that such issuance or assumption is for some lawful object within the corporate purposes of Duke Marshall, compatible with the public interest, and is reasonably necessary or appropriate for such purposes.

The Commission reserves the right to require a further showing that neither public nor private interests will be adversely affected by continued approvals of Duke Marshall's issuance of securities or assumptions of liability.

Copies of the full text of the Director's Order are available from the Commission's Public Reference Room, 888 First Street, NE., Washington, DC 20426. The Order may also be viewed on the Commission's Web site at <http://www.ferc.gov>, using the eLibrary link. Enter the docket number excluding the last three digits in the docket number filed to access the document. Comments, protests, and interventions may be filed electronically via the internet in lieu of paper. See 18 CFR 385.2001(a)(1)(iii) and the instructions on the Commission's Web site under the e-Filing link. The Commission strongly encourages electronic filing.

Duke Energy Murray, LLC; Notice of Issuance of Order

December 1, 2006.

Duke Energy Murray, LLC (Duke Murray) filed an application for market-based rate authority, with an accompanying rate tariff and a code of conduct. The proposed market-based rate tariff provides for the sale of capacity, energy and ancillary services at market-based rates and for the reassignment of transmission capacity. Duke Murray also requested waivers of various Commission regulations. In particular, Duke Murray requested that the Commission grant blanket approval under 18 CFR Part 34 of all future issuances of securities and assumptions of liability by Duke Murray.

On January 11, 2002, pursuant to delegated authority, the Director, Division of Tariffs and Rates—East, granted the requests for blanket approval under Part 34. The Director's order also stated that the Commission would publish a separate notice in the Federal Register establishing a period of time for the filing of protests. Accordingly, any person desiring to be heard or to protest the blanket approvals of issuances of securities or assumptions of liability by Duke Murray should file a motion to intervene or protest with the Federal Energy Regulatory Commission, 888 First Street, NE., Washington, DC 20426, in accordance with Rules 211 and 214 of the Commission's Rules of Practice and Procedure, 18 CFR 385.211, 385.214 (2006).

Notice is hereby given that the deadline for filing motions to intervene or protest is December 15, 2006.

Absent a request to be heard in opposition by the deadline above, Duke Murray is authorized to issue securities and assume obligations or liabilities as guarantor, indorser, surety, or otherwise in respect of any security of another person, provided that such issuance or assumption is for some lawful object within the corporate purposes of Duke Murray, compatible with the public interest, and is reasonably necessary or appropriate for such purposes.

The Commission reserves the right to require a further showing that neither public nor private interests will be adversely affected by continued approvals of Duke Murray's issuance of securities or assumptions of liability.
