SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION: On October 16, 2006, FCA published a proposed rule in the Federal Register to amend its regulations in part 613 governing financing of processing and marketing operations by System institutions under titles I and II of the Farm Credit Act of 1971, as amended (Act). See 71 FR 60678. Specifically, this proposal would add additional specific criteria to determine eligibility of legal entities for financing as processing and marketing operations. The Agency further proposed a non-substantive technical correction to its regulation defining the term "person". The comment period closed on December 15, 2006. In letters dated December 15, 2006, the Independent Community Bankers of America, Independent Bankers of Colorado, Nebraska Independent Community Bankers, Independent Bankers Association of Texas, and Financial Services Roundtable requested the FCA to extend the comment period for at least 90 days because of the breadth and complexity of the proposed rule. On December 19, 2006, the Farm Credit Council filed an opposition to the request for extension of comment period, stating that the proposed rule is of "vital importance to America's farmers and ranchers," that "ample time" has already been provided to interested parties to review and comment and that any additional comment period should not extend past January 15, 2007. The commenters requesting an extension asserted that the proposed rule will significantly expand the lending authority of FCS institutions to include virtually all commercial enterprises, up to and including WalMart. Such a wide scale expansion of lending authority is not the intent of the proposed rule. Instead, as discussed at length in the preamble to the proposed rule, the intent of the amended rule is to better ensure that FCS institutions are meeting their statutory mandate to provide necessary credit to bona fide farmers and ranchers for their processing and marketing needs in light of changing ownership structures in the modern agricultural economy. In their written comments on the proposed rule, many FCS institutions submitted examples of family farm operations (that already borrow from FCS lenders) that cannot obtain FCS credit for their processing and marketing operations under current FCA rules because of the way ownership of the processing or marketing operation is structured.

Because the FCA supports public involvement and participation in its regulatory process, we are reopening the comment period for 45 days and invite and encourage all interested parties to submit constructive and specific suggestions on ways our proposed rule can be improved to better meet our goal of ensuring that all bona fide farmers and ranchers have access to FCS credit for their processing and marketing needs in accordance with the Act.

Dated: January 5, 2007.

James M. Morris,

Acting Secretary, Farm Credit Administration Board.
