Summary of the Order To Show Cause

In the Order to Show Cause, the Federal Communications Commission's Enforcement Bureau, pursuant to delegated authority, commences a hearing proceeding before an administrative law judge to determine whether David L. Titus is qualified to be and remain a Commission licensee and, if not, whether his license for Amateur Radio Station KB7ILD should be revoked. Information has come to the Commission's attention that David L. Titus was convicted in Benton County, Washington, on April 16, 1993, of having violated section 9.68A.090 of the Revised Code of Washington, communicating with a minor for immoral purposes, a Class C felony. Titus was sentenced to serve 25 months in prison. In addition, David L. Titus is identified by the Seattle Police Department as a registered sex offender.

David L. Titus' felony conviction for at least one sexual-related offense involving children raises material and substantial questions as to whether he possesses the requisite character qualifications to be and remain a Commission licensee.

Thus, pursuant to 47 U.S.C. 312(a) and (c), the Order to Show Cause directs David L. Titus to show cause why his authorization for Amateur Radio Station KB7ILD should not be revoked, upon the following issues: (a) To determine the effect of David L. Titus' felony conviction(s) on his qualifications to be and to remain a Commission licensee; and (b) to determine, in light of the evidence adduced pursuant to the foregoing issue, whether David L. Titus is qualified to be and to remain a Commission licensee; and (c) to determine, in light of the evidence adduced pursuant to the foregoing issues, whether the license of David L. Titus for Amateur Radio Station KB7ILD should be revoked. The hearing will be held at a time and place to be specified in a subsequent order. Copies of the Order to Show Cause are being sent to David L. Titus via Certified Mail, Return Receipt Requested, and by regular United States mail.

To avail himself of the opportunity to be heard, David L. Titus, in person or by his attorney, is directed by the Order to Show Cause, pursuant to 47 CFR 1.91(c), to file with the Commission, by March 1, 2007, a written appearance stating that he will appear on the date fixed for hearing and present evidence on the issues specified herein.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION:

A. Need for and Use of the Information Collection

Section 4 of the Federal Home Loan Bank Act (Bank Act) establishes the eligibility requirements an institution must meet in order to become a member of a Federal Home Loan Bank (Bank). See 12 U.S.C. 1424. Part 925 of the Finance Board regulations—the membership rule—implements section 4 of the Bank Act. See 12 CFR part 925. The membership rule provides uniform requirements an applicant for Bank membership must meet and review criteria a Bank must apply to determine if an applicant satisfies the statutory and regulatory membership eligibility requirements.

More specifically, the membership rule implements the statutory eligibility requirements and provides guidance to an applicant on how it may satisfy such requirements. The rule authorizes a Bank to approve or deny each membership application subject to the statutory and regulatory requirements and permits an applicant to appeal to the Finance Board a Bank's decision to deny certification as a Bank member. The rule also imposes a continuing obligation on a current Bank member to provide information necessary to determine if it remains in compliance with applicable statutory and regulatory eligibility requirements.

The information collection is contained in sections 925.2 through 925.31 of the membership rule, 12 CFR 925.2-925.31, and chapter 2 of the Data Reporting Manual, which contains instructions addressing data definitions as well as requirements concerning data elements, reporting format, reporting method (e.g., electronic or paper), record retention, timeliness, reporting
