Action Affecting Export Privileges; Erika P. Jardine, aka Eriklynn Pattie Jardine, aka Erika Pattie Jardine; In the Matter of: Erika P. Jardine, aka Eriklynn Pattie Jardine, aka Erika Pattie Jardine, P.O. Box 3633, Vista, CA 92085; Order Denying Export Privileges

A. Denial of Export Privileges of Erika P. Jardine

On February 22, 2006, in the U.S. District Court in the Eastern District of Pennsylvania, following a plea of guilty, Erika P. Jardine ("Jardine") was convicted of violating Section 38 of the Arms Export Control Act (22 U.S.C. 2778 (2000)) ("AECA"), Jardine pled guilty of willfully exporting and attempting to export and causing to export, from the United States to European Countries, defense articles, that is small arm protective inserts (SAPIs), which were designated as defense articles on the United States Munitions List, without having first obtained from the Department of State a license for such export or written authorization for such export.

In addition to the violation of the AECA, Jardine was convicted of theft and selling of U.S. property, in violation of 18 U.S.C. 641(2000). Jardine was sentenced to six months imprisonment followed by three years of supervised release and fined $6,500. Her scheduled release date is February 28, 2007.

Section 11(h) of the Export Administration Act of 1979, as amended (currently codified at 50 U.S.C. app. 2401-2420 (2000)) ("Act")¹ and Section 766.25 of the Export Administration Regulations² provide, in pertinent part, that "[t]he Director of Exporter Services, in consultation with the Director of the Office of Export Enforcement, may deny export privileges of any person who has been convicted of a violation of * * * Section 38 of the Arms Export Control Act," for a period not to exceed 10 years from the date of conviction. 15 CFR 766.25(a) and (d). In addition, Section 750.8 of the Regulations states that BIS's Office of Exporter Services may revoke any BIS licenses previously issued in which the person had an interest in at the time of his conviction.

I have received notice of Jardine's conviction for violating the AECA, and have provided notice and an opportunity for Jardine to make a written submission to the Bureau of Industry and Security as provided in Section 766.25 of the Regulations. I have also received a written submission from Jardine explaining why she does not believe a 10 year denial is appropriate and have decided, following consideration of her submission and consultations with the Office of Export Enforcement, including the Director, Office of Export Enforcement, to deny Jardine's export privileges under the Regulations for a period of seven years from the date of Jardine's conviction.

Accordingly, it is hereby Ordered:

1. Until February 22, 2013, Erika Jardine, aka Eriklynn Pattie Jardine, aka Erika Pattie Jardine, P.O. Box 3633, Vista, CA 92085, and when acting for or on behalf of Jardine, her representatives, assigns, agents, or employees, (collectively referred to hereinafter as the "Denied Person") may not, directly or indirectly, participate in any way in any transaction involving any commodity, software or technology (hereinafter collectively referred to as "item") exported or to be exported from the United States that is subject to the Regulations, or in any other activity subject to the Regulations, including, but not limited to:
