

INTERNATIONAL TRADE COMMISSION

[Investigation No. 731-TA-895 (Review)]

Pure Magnesium From China

Determination

On the basis of the record¹ developed in the subject five-year review, the United States International Trade Commission (Commission) determines, pursuant to section 751(c) of the Tariff Act of 1930 (19 U.S.C. 1675(c)) (the Act), that revocation of the antidumping duty order on certain pure magnesium from China would be likely to lead to continuation or recurrence of material injury to an industry in the United States within a reasonably foreseeable time.²

Background

The Commission instituted this review on October 2, 2006 (71 FR 58001) and determined on January 5, 2007 that it would conduct an expedited review (72 FR 3876, January 26, 2007).

The Commission transmitted its determination in this investigation to the Secretary of Commerce on March 1, 2007. The views of the Commission are contained in USITC Publication 3908 (March 2007), entitled Pure Magnesium from China: Investigation No. 731-TA-895 (Review).

Issued: March 1, 2007.

By order of the Commission.

Marilyn R. Abbott,

Secretary to the Commission.

National Institute of Justice; Agency Information Collection Activities, Proposed Collection; Comment Requested

ACTION: 60-Day Notice of Information Collection Under Review: Extension of a Currently Approved Collection. Requirements Data Collection Application for the Juvenile Accountability Incentive. Block Grants Program.

The Department of Justice, Office of Justice Programs has submitted the following information collection request to the Office of Management and Budget (OMB) for review and approval in accordance with the Paperwork Reduction Act of 1995. The proposed information collection is published to obtain comments from the public and affected agencies. Comments are encouraged and will be accepted for "sixty days" until May 7, 2007. This process is conducted in accordance with 5 CFR 1320.10.

If you have comments, especially on the estimated public burden or associated response time, suggestions, or need a copy of the proposed information collection instrument with instructions or additional information, please contact Tom Murphy, Office of Justice Programs, The Office of Juvenile Justice and Delinquency Prevention, (202) 353-8734.

Written comments and suggestions from the public and affected agencies concerning the proposed collection of information are encouraged. Your comments should address one or more of the following four points:

- Evaluate whether the proposed collection of information is necessary for the proper performance of the functions of the agency, including whether the information will have practical utility;
- Evaluate the accuracy of the agencies' estimate of the burden of the proposed collection of information, including the validity of the methodology and assumptions used;
- Enhance the quality, utility, and clarity of the information to be collected; and
- Minimize the burden of the collection of information on those who are to respond, including through the use of appropriate automated, electronic, mechanical, or other technological collection techniques or other forms of information technology, e.g. permitting electronic submission of responses.
