Remand Investigation

The group eligibility requirements for directly-impacted (primary) workers under Section 222(a) the Trade Act of 1974, as amended, can be satisfied in either one of two ways:

(A)(1) A significant number or proportion of the workers in such workers' firm, or an appropriate subdivision of the firm, have become totally or partially separated, or are threatened to become totally or partially separated; and (2) the sales or production, or both, of such firm or subdivision have decreased absolutely; and (3) increased imports of articles like or directly competitive with articles produced by such firm or subdivision have contributed importantly to such workers' separation or threat of separation and to the decline in sales or production of such firm or subdivision;

(B)(1) A significant number or proportion of the workers in such workers' firm, or an appropriate subdivision of the firm, have become totally or partially separated, or are threatened to become totally or partially separated, and (2) there has been a shift in production by such workers' firm or subdivision to a foreign country of articles like or directly competitive with articles which are produced by such firm or subdivision.

Further, one of the following must be satisfied:

- 1. the country to which the workers' firm has shifted production of the articles is a party to a free trade agreement with the United States, or
- 2. the country to which the workers' firm has shifted production of the articles is a beneficiary country under the Andean Trade Preference Act, African Growth and Opportunity Act, or the Caribbean Basin Economic Recovery Act: or
- 3. there has been or is likely to be an increase in imports of articles that are like or directly competitive with articles which are or were produced by such firm or subdivision.

Because the subject firm shut down, AR 21, the Department determines that a significant number or proportion of workers at the subject firm have become totally separated and that the sales or production of the subject firm decreased absolutely.

In order for criterion (A)(3) to be satisfied, it must be shown that increased imports of plastic bottles during the relevant period "contributed importantly" to the workers" separations and subject firm sales and/or production declines.

Per 29 CFR 90.2, "increased imports" means that imports have increased, absolutely or relative to domestic production, compared to a representative base period. The regulation also establishes the representative base period as the one-year period proceeding the relevant period (the twelve-month period prior to the date of the petition).

Because subject firm sales and production increased in 2005 from 2004 levels, there were no apparent sales and/or production declines during the relevant period. Rather, subject firm's sales and production declines occurred after the relevant period. Therefore, there were no sales or production declines at the subject firm to which increased imports could have contributed importantly.

Assuming, however, that there were subject firm sales and/or production declines during the relevant period, the Department conducted a survey of the subject firm's major declining customers regarding their import purchases of plastic bottles. SAR 50–51, 189–199, 207–221, 226–227. None of the respondents reported increased imports, either direct or indirect, of plastic bottles or articles like or directly competitive with plastic bottles during the relevant period. SAR 49–50, 207, 215–216, 219–220, 226–227, 233.

Further, the subject firm did not have any imports of plastic bottles during the relevant period. AR 43.

During the remand investigation, Alcan explained that the subject firm's sudden closure (sales and production increased in 2005 from 2004 levels and the plant closure was announced in November 2005, AR 72) was the result of the loss of two major contracts. SAR 49, 71–72, 74–75. When the Department contacted the two "lost" customers, the Department was informed by both customers that the contracts were not "lost" because of any import factors and that the contracts were awarded to other domestic vendors. SAR 52, 216, 226–227.

Given the above-stated reasons, the Department determines that TAA criterion (A)(3) has not been met.

The Department affirms that a shift of production to Puerto Rico is not considered a shift of production abroad, for purposes of the Trade Act, because it is a U.S. Territory. Therefore, a shift of production to Puerto Rico cannot be a basis for satisfaction of TAA criterion (B)(2).

In response to Plaintiff's allegation that subject firm production shifted abroad, the Department requested that Alcan identify those domestic facilities to which subject firm production shifted and explain the documents which indicate that machines were shipped to Brazil and Australia. SAR 49, 52–71.

Alcan stated that subject firm production was either discontinued or shifted to Alcan production facilities in Des Plaines, Illinois or Youngsville, North Carolina, SAR 73, 228. Alcan also stated that the machines identified by Plaintiff were surplus equipment, SAR 49, 71; that the surplus equipment sent to Alcan's Brazilian facility was used to produce articles for the Brazilian market, SAR 49, 71; and that the surplus equipment sent to Australia was sold to third-party vendors only. SAR 71.

Given the above-stated reasons, the Department determines that TAA criterion (B)(2) has not been met.

In addition, in accordance with Section 246 of the Trade Act of 1974, as amended, the Department herein presents the results of its investigation regarding certification of eligibility to apply for ATAA.

In order to apply the Department to issue a certification of eligibility to apply for ATAA, the subject worker group must be certified eligible to apply for TAA. Since the workers are denied eligibility to apply for TAA, they cannot be certified eligible to apply for ATAA.

Conclusion

After careful review of the findings of the remand investigation, I affirm the notice of negative determination of eligibility to apply for worker adjustment assistance for workers and former workers of Alcan Global Pharmaceutical Packaging, Inc., Plastics Americas Division, Centralia, Illinois.

Signed at Washington, DC this 19th day of March 2007.

Elliott S. Kushner,

Certifying Officer, Division of Trade Adjustment Assistance.

Formica Corporation; Wildon Industries, Inc.; Rocklin, CA; Amended Certification Regarding Eligibility To Apply for Worker Adjustment Assistance and Alternative Trade Adjustment Assistance

In accordance with Section 223 of the Trade Act of 1974 (19 U.S.C. 2273), and Section 246 of the Trade Act of 1974 (26 U.S.C. 2813), as amended, the Department of Labor issued a Certification of Eligibility to Apply for Worker Adjustment Assistance and Alternative Trade Adjustment Assistance on May 17, 2006, applicable to workers of Formica Corporation, Rocklin, California. The notice was published in the Federal Register on June 9, 2006 (71 FR 33488).

At the request of the State agency, the Department reviewed the certification for workers of the subject firm. The workers were engaged in the production of high pressure laminates.

New information shows that during 2004, workers separated from employment at the subject firm had their wages reported under a separate unemployment insurance (UI) tax account for a subsidiary company, Wildon Industries, Inc.

Accordingly, the Department is amending the certification to properly reflect this matter.

The intent of the Department's certification is to include all workers of Formica Corporation who were adversely affected by increased company imports.

The amended notice applicable to TA–W–59,368 is hereby issued as follows:

"All workers of Formica Corporation, Wildon Industries, Inc., Rocklin, California, who became totally or partially separated from employment on or after May 9, 2005, through May 17, 2008, are eligible to apply for adjustment assistance under Section 223 of the Trade Act of 1974, and are also eligible to apply for alternative trade adjustment assistance under Section 246 of the Trade Act of 1974."

Signed at Washington, DC, this 30th day of March 2007.

Richard Church.

Certifying Officer, Division of Trade Adjustment Assistance.
