

agency that submitted the data and requests that agency to verify or correct the challenged entry.

Upon receipt of an official communication directly from the agency that contributed the original information, the FBI Identification Division makes any changes necessary in accordance with the information supplied by that agency. The Licensee must provide at least ten (10) days for an individual to initiate an action challenging the results of an FBI criminal history records check after the record is made available for his/her review. The Licensee may make a final determination on unescorted access based upon the criminal history record only upon receipt of the FBI's ultimate confirmation or correction of the record. Upon a final adverse determination on unescorted access, the Licensee shall provide the individual its documented basis for denial. Unescorted access shall not be granted to an individual during the review process, except as allowed by the Order.

Protection of Information

1. Each Licensee who obtains a criminal history record on an individual pursuant to this Order shall establish and maintain a system of files and procedures for protecting the record and the personal information from unauthorized disclosure.

2. The Licensee may not disclose the record or personal information collected and maintained to persons other than the subject individual, his/her representative, or to those who have a need to access the information in performing assigned duties in the process of determining unescorted access. No individual authorized to have access to the information may re-disseminate the information to any other individual who does not have a need-to-know.

3. The personal information obtained on an individual from a criminal history record check may be transferred to another Licensee if the Licensee holding the criminal history record receives the individual's written request to re-disseminate the information contained in his/her file, and the gaining Licensee verifies information such as the individual's name, date of birth, social security number, sex, and other applicable physical characteristics for identification purposes.

4. The Licensee shall make criminal history records, obtained under this section, available for examination by an authorized representative of the NRC to determine compliance with the regulations and laws.

5. The Licensee shall retain all fingerprint and criminal history records received from the FBI, or a copy if the individual's file has been transferred, for three (3) years after termination of employment or denial to unescorted access. After the required three (3) year period, these documents shall be destroyed by a method that will prevent reconstruction of the information in whole or in part.

PEACE CORPS

Information Collection Requests Under OMB Review

AGENCY: Peace Corps.

ACTION: Notice of information collection.

SUMMARY: In accordance with the Paperwork Reduction Act, this notice invites the public to comment on the proposed collection of information by the Peace Corps' Office of the Inspector General. The Peace Corps' Office of the Inspector General wishes to collect feedback on the efficiency and effectiveness of the Peace Corps medical clearance process. The Office of the Inspector General will contact the former applicants by e-mail, telephone or mail and will request them to complete an online or paper survey in which they will share information on their experience completing the medical clearance portion of the Peace Corps application process. A small percentage of these applicants will also be contacted for telephone interviews.

DATES: Submit comments on or before June 11, 2007.

ADDRESSES: Comments should be addressed to Shelley Elbert, Senior Evaluator, Office of Inspector General, Peace Corps, 1111 20th Street, NW., Room L560, Washington, DC 20526. Shelley Elbert can be contacted by telephone at 202-692-2904 or e-mail at selbert@peacecorps.gov. E-mail comments must be made in text and not in attachments.

FOR FURTHER INFORMATION CONTACT:

Shelley Elbert, Senior Evaluator, Office of Inspector General, Peace Corps, 1111 20th Street, NW., Room L560, Washington, DC 20526.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION: The purpose of this survey is to collect feedback from Peace Corps applicants on the efficiency and effectiveness of the Peace Corps medical clearance system. The Peace Corps medical clearance process is the system by which the agency determines whether an applicant is medically fit to become a Peace Corps Volunteer. The applicants who engaged in the medical clearance process are one of the best sources of information on whether the process is running effectively. Determining whether the medical clearance is processing applications efficiently and effectively is critical to the mission of the Peace Corps. There is no statutory or regulatory requirement for this information.

The Peace Corps Office of the Inspector General will use this information to evaluate the current status of the medical clearance system and to make recommendations for necessary changes in policy and or/ systems.

Method: The information will be collected primarily through an online survey. A small percentage of those who respond to the online survey will be contacted for additional information through telephone or face to face interviews.

Title: Peace Corps Medical Clearance Survey.

OMB Control Number: [To be assigned.]

Type of Review: Emergency New Collection of Information.

Affected Public: Former applicants to the Peace Corps who at least initiated the medical clearance process.

Estimate of the total number of respondents and the amount of time for an average respondent to respond: 1,673 respondents, 1/2 hour average written response time. About 45 respondents will be requested to answer oral questions for a hour.

Estimate of the total public burden (in hours) associated with this collection: 881.5 hours.

This notice issued in Washington, DC on May 11, 2007.

Wilbert Bryant,

Associate Director for Management.
