On June 1, 2007, the Department published in the Federal Register (72 FR 30637) a Notice of Proposed Exemption (the Notice) which would permit the purchase (the Purchase) by the respective IRAs of Paul and Lynne Niednagel (the Account Holders) of certain ownership interests (the Units) from Pacific Island Investment Partners, LLC (Pacific Island) (the issuer of the Units), an entity which is indirectly controlled by Daniel and Stephen Niednagel (the Principals), both of whom are lineal descendants of the Account Holders and therefore disqualified persons with respect to the IRAs. With respect to the information contained in the Summary of Facts and Representations section of the Notice, footnote number 4 located at the bottom of the second column on page 30638 should be corrected to read as follows:

“** The Department notes that a divergence of interests may develop over time between (1) the IRAs and the IRA fiduciaries in their capacities as individuals, or (2) the IRAs and other persons in which the IRA fiduciaries, in their individual capacities, may have an interest. In the event that such a divergence of interests develops, the IRA fiduciaries would be required to take steps to eliminate the conflict of interest in order to avoid engaging in a prohibited transaction.”
