

would, by their terms, terminate and have no value.

10. Thus, the Plan acquired the Rights pursuant to the Plan provisions for the individually-directed investment of participants' accounts. All decisions regarding the holding and disposition of the Rights by the Plan were made in accordance with these Plan provisions. The Plan participants were issued, and the Broker received from the Plan participants, a total of 24,893 Rights, of which 8,822 were exercised. This represented approximately 0.3 percent of the 3.4 million Rights that were issued and exercised for $2.25 per share. As noted above, those Rights not exercised expired. Of the total Rights issued and exercised, 2,347,272 Shares represented Basic Subscription Rights and 1,052,728 Shares were attributed to Over-Subscription Rights. The Rights were not listed for trading on any stock exchange or on the OTC Bulletin Board. The total number of shares of Bank Stock outstanding at the Expiration Time, as adjusted to give effect to the shares issued pursuant to the Rights Offering, was 11,343,720 shares.

The Bank compensated the Subscription Agent for fees generated in connection with the Rights Offering. Thus, no fees paid to the Subscription Agent were attributable to Plan assets. Although all shareholders of record were responsible for paying any other fees associated with the exercise of the Rights, the Subscription Agent waived all such fees.

11. For each Plan participant who directed the Broker to exercise Rights attributable to his or her Personal Brokerage Account, the funds which were needed to pay the $2.25 per share exercise price were obtained by either selling specific investments at the participant's direction or by using cash equivalents in such participant's account, again at the participant's direction. Moreover, a participant who, under the terms of the Plan, was eligible to elect to receive a taxable distribution from his or her Plan account, was permitted, under the terms of the Offering Circular, to direct the Broker to cause such participant to be substituted for the record holder of the Bank Stock held in the Plan and to exercise the Rights attributable to the Bank Stock the participant beneficially owned. This was only permissible to the extent the terms of the Plan permitted a distribution to a participant and would be treated as a taxable distribution of a portion of the participant's Plan account.

12. In summary, the Applicant represents that the transactions satisfied the statutory criteria for an exemption under section 408(a) of the Act because:

(a) The Rights were acquired by the Plan pursuant to Plan provisions for the individually-directed investment of participant accounts.

(b) The Plan's receipt of the Rights occurred in connection with the Rights Offering that was made available to all shareholders of Bank Stock.

(c) All decisions regarding the holding and disposition of the Rights by the Plan were made in accordance with Plan provisions for the individually-directed investment of participant accounts by the individual participants whose accounts in the Plan received Rights in the Offering, and if no instructions were received, the Rights expired.

(d) The Plan's acquisition of the Rights resulted from an independent act of the Bank as a corporate entity, and all holders of the Rights, including the Plan, were treated in the same manner with respect to the acquisition, holding and disposition of such Rights.

(e) The Plan received the same proportionate number of the Rights as other owners of Bank Stock.

General Information

The attention of interested persons is directed to the following:

(1) The fact that a transaction is the subject of an exemption under section 408(a) of the Act and/or section 4975(c)(2) of the Code does not relieve a fiduciary or other party in interest or disqualified person from certain other provisions of the Act and/or the Code, including any prohibited transaction provisions to which the exemption does not apply and the general fiduciary responsibility provisions of section 404 of the Act, which, among other things, require a fiduciary to discharge his duties respecting the plan solely in the interest of the participants and beneficiaries of the plan and in a prudent fashion in accordance with section 404(a)(1)(b) of the Act; nor does it affect the requirement of section 401(a) of the Code that the plan must operate for the exclusive benefit of the employees of the employer maintaining the plan and their beneficiaries;

(2) Before an exemption may be granted under section 408(a) of the Act and/or section 4975(c)(2) of the Code, the Department must find that the exemption is administratively feasible, in the interests of the plan and of its participants and beneficiaries, and protective of the rights of participants and beneficiaries of the plan;

(3) The proposed exemptions, if granted, will be supplemental to, and not in derogation of, any other provisions of the Act and/or the Code, including statutory or administrative exemptions and transitional rules. Furthermore, the fact that a transaction is subject to an administrative or statutory exemption is not dispositive of whether the transaction is in fact a prohibited transaction; and

(4) The proposed exemptions, if granted, will be subject to the express condition that the material facts and representations contained in each application are true and complete, and that each application accurately describes all material terms of the transaction which is the subject of the exemption.

Signed at Washington, DC, this 26th day of June, 2007.

The Secretary of Labor must review the application for financial assistance for the purpose of certifying to the Secretary of Agriculture that the assistance is not calculated, or likely, to result in: (a) A transfer of any employment or business activity from one area to another by the loan applicant's business operation; or, (b) An increase in the production of goods, materials, services, or facilities in an area where there is not sufficient demand to employ the efficient capacity of existing competitive enterprises unless the financial assistance will not have an adverse impact on existing competitive enterprises in the area.
