

Competitive conditions within the industry are adverse.

Conclusion

After careful consideration of the facts obtained on reopening, I determine that there was an increase in imports of samples and patterns for women's apparel like or directly competitive with those produced by Jones Apparel Group, Incorporated, Internal Production Department, Bristol, Pennsylvania. In accordance with the provisions of the Act, I make the following revised determination:

"Workers engaged in the production of patterns and samples at Jones Apparel Group, Incorporated, Internal Production Department, Bristol, Pennsylvania, who became totally or partially separated from employment on or after June 16, 2005 through July 13, 2009, are eligible to apply for adjustment assistance under Section 223 of the Trade Act of 1974, and are also eligible to apply for alternative trade adjustment assistance under Section 246, of the Trade Act of 1974."

Signed in Washington, DC, this 13th day of July 2007.

Linda G. Poole,

Certifying Officer, Division of Trade Adjustment Assistance.

Lexington Furniture Industries Plant No. 1, Lexington, NC; Dismissal of Application for Reconsideration

Pursuant to 29 CFR 90.18(C) an application for administrative reconsideration was filed with the Director of the Division of Trade Adjustment Assistance for workers at Lexington Furniture Industries, Plant No. 1, Lexington, North Carolina. The application did not contain new information supporting a conclusion that the determination was erroneous, and also did not provide a justification for reconsideration of the determination that was based on either mistaken facts or a misinterpretation of facts or of the law. Therefore, dismissal of the application was issued.

MacDonald's Industrial Products Including On-Site Leased Workers of Spherion Corporation Including Workers Whose Wages Were Paid by Access Personnel Options, Spencerville, OH; MacDonald's Industrial Products Including On-Site Leased Workers of Forge Industrial Staffing Including Workers Whose Wages Were Paid by Access Personnel Options; Grand Rapids, MI; Amended Certification Regarding Eligibility To Apply for Worker Adjustment Assistance and Alternative Trade Adjustment Assistance

In accordance with Section 223 of the Trade Act of 1974 (19 U.S.C. 2273), and Section 246 of the Trade Act of 1974 (26 U.S.C. 2813), as amended, the Department of Labor issued a Certification of Eligibility to Apply for Worker Adjustment Assistance and Alternative Trade Adjustment Assistance on August 31, 2006, applicable to workers of MacDonald's Industrial Products, including on-site leased workers of Spherion Corporation, Spencerville, Ohio, MacDonald's Industrial Products, including on-site leased workers of Forge Industrial Staffing, Kentwood, Michigan and MacDonald's Industrial Products, including on-site leased workers of Forge Industrial Staffing, Grand Rapids, Michigan. The notice was published in the Federal Register on September 21, 2006 (71 FR 55216).

At the request of a company official, the Department reviewed the certification for workers of the subject firm. The workers were engaged in the production of automotive door handle assemblies, grills and emblems until the company closed in August 2006.

New information shows that MacDonald's Industrial Products contracted with Access Personnel

Options to provide payroll and benefit services for workers at the Spencerville, Ohio, Kentwood, Michigan, and Grand Rapids, Michigan locations of the subject firm. Workers separated from employment at these locations of the subject firm had their wages reported under a separate unemployment insurance (UI) tax account for Access Personnel Options.

Accordingly, the Department is amending the certification to properly reflect this matter.

The intent of the Department's certification is to include all workers of MacDonald's Industrial Products who were adversely affected by a shift in production to Canada.

The amended notice applicable to TA-W-59,883, TA-W-59,883A and TA-W-59,883B are hereby issued as follows:

"All workers of MacDonald's Industrial Products, including on-site leased workers of Spherion Corporation, including workers whose wages were paid by Access Personnel Options, Spencerville, Ohio (TA-W-59,883), MacDonald's Industrial Products, including on-site leased workers of Forge Industrial Staffing, including workers whose wages were paid by Access Personnel Options, Kentwood, Michigan (TA-W-59,883A), and MacDonald's Industrial Products, including on-site leased workers of Forge Industrial Staffing, including workers whose wages were paid by Access Personnel Options, Grand Rapids, Michigan (TA-W-59,883B), who became totally or partially separated from employment on or after August 8, 2005, through August 31, 2008, are eligible to apply for adjustment assistance under Section 223 of the Trade Act of 1974."

Signed at Washington, DC, this 17th day of July 2007.
