OMB Control No.: 3060-0874.

OMB Approval Date: 09/11/2007.

Expiration Date: 09/30/2010.

Title: Consumer Complaint Forms, FCC Forms 475-B and FCC Form 2000.

Form No.: FCC Forms 475-B; 2000-A, 2000-B, 2000-C, 2000-D, 2000-E, and 2000-F.

Estimated Annual Burden: 1,330,108 responses; 15 to 30 minutes per response; 347,221 total annual hourly burden.

Needs and Uses: Section 208(a) of the Communications Act of 1934, as amended, authorizes complaints by any "person complaining of anything done or omitted to be done by any common carrier" subject to the provisions of the Act. Section 208(a) further states that, if a carrier does not satisfy a complaint or there appears to be any reasonable ground for investigating the complaint, the Commission shall "investigate the matters complained of in such manner and by such means as it shall deem proper." Although the Act does not discuss how the Commission should treat complaints against non-common carriers for violations of the Act or Commission rules, the Commission investigates such complaints in a manner similar to how it treats those against common carriers.

Currently, the Commission has specific complaint forms for the unauthorized conversion of a person's telephone service ("slamming") (FCC Form 501), the broadcast of indecent, obscene, or profane material (FCC Form 475B), and the unlawful telemarketing, "junk faxing," or e-mail messaging to a wireless device (FCC Form 1088).

The new FCC Form 2000 replaces the FCC Form 475, providing greater clarity and ease of use by separating the various complaint subject areas into separate subparts tailored to each subject. The Internet-based version of FCC Form 2000 first asks for the complainant's contact information, including name, address, telephone number, and e-mail address; then presents a "gateway" question to determine the general topic of the complaint: (1) Deceptive or unlawful advertising or marketing; (2) billing, privacy, or service quality; (3) disability access; (4) emergency or public safety; (5) general media issues; or (6) other complaints. As described below, the form provides examples of the types of issues covered by each topic. After the complainant answers this question, the form asks additional questions geared to the specific type of violation reported. The form poses certain mandatory threshold questions that must be answered for the Commission to determine whether a violation has occurred. It also provides space for complainants to provide additional information and details that may be necessary or helpful to the Commission in investigating the complaint.

In printed format, FCC Form 2000 has six subparts, one for each area described above. Each subpart of the printable version of FCC Form 2000 consolidates the complainant's personal information with detailed questions about the specific violations alleged by the complainant. The information collected by FCC Form 2000 may ultimately become the foundation for enforcement actions and/or rulemaking proceedings, as appropriate. FCC Form 475-B, Obscene, Profane, and Indecent Complaint Form is used by consumers to lay out precisely their complaint(s) and issue(s) concerning the practices of the communications entities, which
