SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION:

I. Purpose

The National Advisory Council for Healthcare Research and Quality was established in accordance with Section 921 (now Section 931) of the Public Health Service Act (42 U.S.C. 299c). In accordance with its statutory mandate, the Council is to advise the Secretary of the Department of Health and Human Services and the Director, Agency for Healthcare Research and Quality (AHRQ), on matters related to actions of the Agency to enhance the quality, improve the outcomes, reduce the costs of health care services, improve access to such services through scientific research, and to promote improvements in clinical practice and in the organization, financing, and delivery of health care services. The Council is composed of members of the public, appointed by the Secretary, and Federal ex-officio members.

II. Agenda

On Friday, November 9, the Council meeting will convene at 9 a.m., with the call to order by the Council Chair and approval of previous Council minutes. The Director, AHRQ, will present her update on AHRQ's current research, programs, and initiatives. The agenda will include a discussion of the National Healthcare Quality and Disparities Reports, needed research on Health Care Value and Capacity Building. The official agenda will be available on AHRQ's Web site at http://www.ahrq.gov no later than November 2, 2007.

Dated: October 5, 2007.

Carolyn M. Clancy,

Director.

Focus Groups as Used by the Food and Drug Administration—(OMB Control Number 0910–0497)—Extension

Focus groups provide an important role in gathering information because they allow for a more in-depth understanding of consumers' attitudes, beliefs, motivations, and feelings than do quantitative studies. Focus groups serve the narrowly defined need for direct and informal opinion on a specific topic and as a qualitative research toolhave three major purposes:

- To obtain consumer information that is useful for developing variables and measures for quantitative studies,
