

in any change to balances due by a debtor on any debt owed to the United States. The interim rule therefore addresses an internal "agency * * * procedure, or practice" within the meaning of section 553(b)(3)(A). Second, and relatedly, the Departments have determined that a comment period would be "unnecessary" under section 553(b)(3)(B), as the interim rule does not alter or affect the rights, interests, or duties of any person or entity. Because no notice of proposed rulemaking is required, the provisions of the Regulatory Flexibility Act (5 U.S.C. 601 et seq.) do not apply.

The public is invited to submit comments on the interim rule, which will be taken into account before a final rule is issued.

Regulatory Analysis

This action is limited to agency organization and management as described by Executive Order 12866 ((3)(d)(3) and, therefore, is not a "regulation" as defined by that Executive Order. Accordingly, review of this action by the Office of Management and Budget is not required.

Congressional Review Act

This action pertains to agency organization and management and does not substantially affect the rights or obligations of non-agency parties and, accordingly, is not a "rule" as that term is used by the Congressional Review Act (Subtitle E of the Small Business Regulatory Enforcement Fairness Act of 1996 (SBREFA)). Therefore, the reporting requirement of 5 U.S.C. 801 does not apply.
