Meeting of Advisory Committee on International Communications and Information Policy

The Department of State's Advisory Committee on International Communications and Information Policy (ACICIP) will hold a public meeting on April 17, 2008, from 10 a.m. to 11:30 a.m., in the Loy Henderson Auditorium of the Harry S. Truman Building of the U.S. Department of State. The Truman Building is located at 2201 C Street, NW., Washington, DC 20520.

The committee provides a formal channel for regular consultation and coordination on major economic, social and legal issues and problems in international communications and information policy, especially as these issues and problems involve users of information and communications services, providers of such services, technology research and development, foreign industrial and regulatory policy, the activities of international organizations with regard to communications and information, and developing country issues.

The meeting will be led by ACICIP Chair Mr. Richard E. Wiley of Wiley Rein LLP and Ambassador David A. Gross, Deputy Assistant Secretary of State and U.S. Coordinator for International Communications and Information Policy.

The meeting's agenda will include discussions pertaining to various upcoming international telecommunications meetings and conferences. In particular, there will be a report on preparations by the U.S. Delegation for the APEC Ministerial Meeting on Telecommunications and Information Industry to be held in Bangkok from April 23-25, 2008. Additionally, there will be reports and discussion concerning recent meetings between the U.S. and various government and industry during the recent GSMA Mobile World Congress in Barcelona as well as CTIA Wireless 2008 in Las Vegas. There will also be discussion about additional upcoming events, including the OECD Ministerial on the Future of the Internet Economy to be held in Seoul in June and the International Telecommunication Union's Telecom Africa 2008 to be held in Cairo in May. And there will also be discussion further to the last meeting of the ACICIP on a conference that will be led by the President's Digital Freedom Initiative (a public-private partnership) that is expected to be held in July 2008 and will focus on promoting broadband access in West Africa.

Members of the public may submit suggestions and comments to the ACICIP. Submissions regarding an event, consultation, meeting, etc. listed in the agenda above should be received by the ACICIP Executive Secretary (contact information below) at least ten working days prior to the date of that listed event. All comments must be submitted in written form and should not exceed one page for each country (for comments on consultations) or for each subject area (for other comments). Resource limitations preclude acknowledging or replying to submissions.

While the meeting is open to the public, admittance to the Department of State building is only by means of a pre-clearance. For placement on the pre-clearance list, please submit the following information no later than 5 p.m. on Monday, April 14, 2008 (Please note that this information is not retained by the ACICIP Executive Secretary and must therefore be re-submitted for each ACICIP meeting):
