Proposed Project: Training PhDs: Faculty Views on Their Role and Their Institution's Role to Promote the Development of Responsible Researchers—OMB No. 0990-New-Office of Research Integrity (ORI)

Abstract: Preventing research misconduct and abuse is of paramount importance. The Institute of Medicine (IOM) has issued two reports in the last 10 years addressing this concern and clearly states that mentoring is a key factor in promoting the development of responsible researchers. However, little is actually known about the qualities and activities of effective mentors. The proposed project will focus on collecting descriptive information from faculty about their role as advisor and mentor and how faculty members perform these roles in their daily work with PhD candidates. In addition faculty members will be asked to describe how involved their institution is in promoting training or otherwise supporting research mentoring and advising.

The data will come from a random selection of 10,000 investigators drawn from the 2005 and 2006 National Institutes of Health or National Science Foundation grant recipients who have supervised doctoral students in the last five years and are faculty in two types of institutions: (1) medical schools (within universities or stand alone) and (2) all other universities. We are requesting clearance for a one-time web based survey, which will be conducted over one year.

Proposed Project: Evaluation of the ACF Marriage and Family Strengthening Grants for Incarcerated and Reentering Fathers and their Partners—OMB No. 0990-NEW—Assistant Secretary for Planning and Evaluation (ASPE).

Abstract: The Office of Family Assistance within the Administration for Children and Families (ACF) is conducting a demonstration program called Marriage and Family Strengthening Grants for Incarcerated and Re-entering Fathers and their Partners (MFS-IP). These demonstration programs are funded to support activities in the areas of marriage strengthening and responsible fatherhood among incarcerated and recently released fathers, their partners, and children. The Office of the Assistant Secretary for Planning and Evaluation (ASPE) is conducting an evaluation of these demonstration projects. The objective of the evaluation is to help to determine what types of marriage and family strengthening programs work best, what does not work, and what effects these programs may have on fostering healthy marriages, families and children for those involved in the criminal justice system. Information from the evaluation will assist federal, state, and community policymakers and patrons in deciding whether to replicate or redesign identified marriage and family strengthening program models.

The MFS-IP evaluation will assess the effects of marriage and family strengthening activities with incarcerated populations by comparing relationship quality and stability, positive family interactions, family financial well-being, recidivism, and community connectedness between intervention and control groups. Primary data for the evaluation will come from three waves of in-person data collection, including a baseline survey and follow-up surveys at approximately 6 and 12 months post-baseline. Data collection is expected to last 4 years, from the time the first participant is enrolled until the last 12-month follow-up survey is administered.

ESTIMATED ANNUALIZED BURDEN TABLE

Instrument	Number of respondents (annualized)	Number of responses per respondent	Average burden hours per response	Total annualized burden hours
Baseline survey for incarcerated men	444	1	1.5	666
Baseline survey for partners of incarcerated men	444	1	1.5	666
Follow-up survey for incarcerated or formerly incarcerated men	444	2	1.5	1332
Follow-up survey for partners of incarcerated or formerly incarcerated men	444	2	1.5	1332
