Presidential Documents

Wednesday, June 11, 2008

| Title 3—      | Proclamation 8269 of June 6, 2008  |
|---------------|--|
| The President | Flag Day and National Flag Week, 2008  |
|               | By the President of the United States of America   |
|               | A Proclamation   |
|               | The American flag has been our national symbol for 231 years, and itremains a beacon of freedom wherever it is flown. Since the Second Conti-nental Congress adopted the Stars and Stripes as our flag in 1777, it hasstood for freedom, justice, and the resolve of our Nation.   |
|               | When Francis Scott Key saw the American flag flying over Fort McHenryin 1814, he believed that liberty would triumph. The flag that inspiredKey to write our National Anthem still energizes and emboldens the Amer-ican spirit today. As our Nation faces the challenges of a new era, OldGlory reminds us that liberty can prevail over oppression.  |
|               | Since the first days of our Republic, Americans have flown the flag toshow their pride and appreciation for the freedoms they enjoy in this greatNation. Every day, Americans pledge their allegiance to the flag of theUnited States, and our troops carry it before them as they defend the libertiesfor which it stands.  |
|               | On Flag Day and during National Flag Week, we remember those in uniformwhose courage and sacrifice inspire us here at home. We also rememberthe rich history of one of our oldest national symbols and reflect on ourduty to carry our heritage of freedom into the future.  |
|               | To commemorate the adoption of our flag, the Congress, by joint resolutionapproved August 3, 1949, as amended (63 Stat. 492), designated June 14of each year as "Flag Day" and requested that the President issue an annualproclamation calling for its observance and for the display of the flag ofthe United States on all Federal Government buildings. The Congress alsorequested, by joint resolution approved June 9, 1966, as amended (80 Stat.194), that the President issue annually a proclamation designating the weekin which June 14 occurs as "National Flag Week" and calling upon allcitizens of the United States to display the flag during that week.  |
|               | NOW, THEREFORE, I, GEORGE W. BUSH, President of the United Statesof America, do hereby proclaim June 14, 2008, as Flag Day and the weekbeginning June 8, 2008, as National Flag Week. I direct the appropriateofficials to display the flag on all Federal Government buildings duringthat week, and I urge all Americans to observe Flag Day and NationalFlag Week by flying the Stars and Stripes from their homes and otherappropriate places. I also call upon the people of the United States toobserve with pride and all due ceremony those days from Flag Day throughIndependence Day, also set aside by the Congress (89 Stat. 211), as a timeto honor America, to celebrate our heritage in public gatherings and activities,and to publicly recite the Pledge of Allegiance to the Flag of the UnitedStates of America.   |
|               | show their pride and appreciation for the freedoms they enjoy in this greatNation. Every day, Americans pledge their allegiance to the flag of thUnited States, and our troops carry it before them as they defend the libertiefor which it stands.On Flag Day and during National Flag Week, we remember those in uniformwhose courage and sacrifice inspire us here at home. We also rememberthe rich history of one of our oldest national symbols and reflect on ouduty to carry our heritage of freedom into the future.To commemorate the adoption of our flag, the Congress, by joint resolutionapproved August 3, 1949, as amended (63 Stat. 492), designated June 14of each year as "Flag Day" and requested that the President issue an annuaproclamation calling for its observance and for the display of the flag ofthe United States on all Federal Government buildings. The Congress alsorequested, by joint resolution approved June 9, 1966, as amended (80 Stat194), that the President issue annually a proclamation designating the weekin which June 14 occurs as "National Flag Week." and calling upon alcitizens of the United States to display the flag during that week.NOW, THEREFORE, I, GEORGE W. BUSH, President of the United Stateof America, do hereby proclaim June 14, 2008, as Flag Day and the weekbeginning June 8, 2008, as National Flag Week. I direct the appropriatofficials to display the flag on all Federal Government buildings durin,that week, and I urge all Americans to observe Flag Day and NationaFlag Week by flying the Stars and Stripes from their homes and otheappropriate places. I also call upon the people of the United States toobserve with pride and all due ceremony those days from Flag Day througlIndependence Day, also set aside by the Congress (89 Stat. 211), as a timto honor America, to celebrate our heritage in public gatherings and activitiesand to publicly recite the Pledge of Allegiance to the Flag of the United |

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand this sixth day of June, in the year of our Lord two thousand eight, and of the Independence of the United States of America the two hundred and thirty-second.

Janze

[FR Doc. 08–1346 Filed 6–10–08; 8:45 am] Billing code 3195–01–P