DEPARTMENT OF ENERGY

Federal Energy Regulatory Commission

[Docket No. EL08-72-000]

NRG Energy, Inc., Complainants, v. Entergy Services, Inc., Respondent; Notice of Complaint

June 30, 2008.

Take notice that on June 27, 2008, NRG Energy, Inc. and its affiliated companies, (collectively, NRG) pursuant to sections 206 and 306 of the Federal Power Act, 16 U.S.C. 824e and 825e (2000) and Rules 206 and 306 of the Commission's Rules of Practice and Procedure, 18 CFR 385.206 and 386.306 (2008), submit this complaint against Entergy Services, Inc. (Entergy), alleging that Entergy's May 30, 2008 annual transmission rate filing includes bonus compensation paid to Entergy employees that should not be passed on to its transmission service customers.

Any person desiring to intervene or to protest this filing must file in accordance with Rules 211 and 214 of the Commission's Rules of Practice and Procedure (18 CFR 385.211, 385.214). Protests will be considered by the Commission in determining the appropriate action to be taken, but will not serve to make protestants parties to the proceeding. Any person wishing to become a party must file a notice of intervention or motion to intervene, as appropriate. The Respondent's answer and all interventions, or protests must be filed on or before the comment date. The Respondent's answer, motions to intervene, and protests must be served on the Complainants.

The Commission encourages electronic submission of Respondent's answer, protests and interventions in lieu of paper using the "eFiling" link at <http://www.ferc.gov>. Persons unable to file electronically should submit an original and 14 copies of the answer, protest or intervention to the Federal Energy Regulatory Commission, 888 First Street, NE., Washington, DC 20426.

DEPARTMENT OF ENERGY

Federal Energy Regulatory Commission

[Docket No. RC08-1-001]

Southeastern Power Administration; Notice of Filing

July 1, 2008.

Take notice that on June 20, 2008, the North American Electric Reliability Corporation (NERC) filed a decision addressing the Commission's February 21, 2008 decision in this proceeding remanding a NERC registry decision involving the Southeastern Power Administration (SEPA) for either reconsideration or further explanation.¹ On remand NERC states that it has affirmed SERC Reliability Corporation's (SERC) decision to remove the function of Resource Planner from the NERC

Compliance Registry for SEPA. NERC states that it has affirmed SERC's decision to retain SEPA's registration as a Transmission Operator. However, NERC states that it has also directed SERC to evaluate and determine whether the Army Corps of Engineers should be co-registered with SEPA as a Transmission Operator.

Any person desiring to intervene or to protest this filing must file in accordance with Rules 211 and 214 of the Commission's Rules of Practice and Procedure (18 CFR 385.211, 385.214). Protests will be considered by the Commission in determining the appropriate action to be taken, but will not serve to make protestants parties to the proceeding. Any person wishing to become a party must file a notice of intervention or motion to intervene, as appropriate. Such notices, motions, or protests must be filed on or before the comment date. On or before the comment date, it is not necessary to serve motions to intervene or protests on persons other than the Applicant.

The Commission encourages electronic submission of protests and interventions in lieu of paper using the "eFiling" link at <http://www.ferc.gov>. Persons unable to file electronically should submit an original and 14 copies of the protest or intervention to the Federal Energy Regulatory Commission, 888 First Street, NE., Washington, DC 20426.
