

designate a shorter time if such action is consistent with the protection of investors and the public interest. The Exchange has requested that the Commission waive the 30-day operative delay set forth in Rule 19b-4(f)(6)(iii) under the Act.¹² The Commission believes that waiving the 30-day operative delay is consistent with the protection of investors and the public interest because the proposed rule change would allow the proposed non-substantive revisions to Amex's rules to be effective immediately. Deleting the outdated rule text will eliminate potential confusion and accurately reflect the rules currently in effect. For this reason, the Commission designates the proposal to be operative upon filing with the Commission.¹³

At any time within 60 days of the filing of the proposed rule change, the Commission may summarily abrogate such rule change if it appears to the Commission that such action is necessary or appropriate in the public interest, for the protection of investors, or otherwise in furtherance of the purposes of the Act.

SECURITIES AND EXCHANGE COMMISSION

[Release No. 34-58262; File No. SR-CBOE-2008-74]

Self-Regulatory Organizations; Chicago Board Options Exchange, Incorporated; Notice of Filing and Immediate Effectiveness of Proposed Rule Change Relating to Amendments to the Customer Portfolio Margin Pilot Program

July 30, 2008.

Pursuant to Section 19(b)(1) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 ("Act" or Exchange Act)¹ and Rule 19b-4 thereunder,² notice is hereby given that on July 24, 2008, Chicago Board Options Exchange, Incorporated ("CBOE" or the "Exchange") filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission ("Commission") the proposed rule change as described in Items I, II and III below, which Items have been substantially prepared by CBOE. CBOE has designated the proposed rule change as "constituting a stated policy, practice, or interpretation with respect to the meaning, administration, or enforcement of an existing rule" under Section 19(b)(3)(A)(i) of the Act³ and Rule 19b-4(f)(1) thereunder,⁴ which renders the proposal effective upon receipt of this filing by the Commission. The Commission is publishing this notice to solicit comments on the proposed rule change from interested persons.

I. Self-Regulatory Organization's Statement of the Terms of Substance of the Proposed Rule Change

CBOE proposes to amend Rules 12.4—Portfolio Margin, and 15.8A—Risk Analysis of Portfolio Margin Accounts. The text of the proposed rule change is available on the Exchange's Web site (<http://www.cboe.org/legal>), at the Exchange's Office of the Secretary and at the Commission's Public Reference Room.

II. Self-Regulatory Organization's Statement of the Purpose of, and Statutory Basis for, the Proposed Rule Change

In its filing with the Commission, CBOE included statements concerning the purpose of and basis for the proposed rule change and discussed any comments it received on the proposed rule change. The text of these statements may be examined at the places specified in Item IV below. CBOE has prepared summaries, set forth in sections A, B, and C below, of the most significant aspects of such statements.

A. Self-Regulatory Organization's Statement of the Purpose of, and Statutory Basis for, the Proposed Rule Change

1. Purpose

The Exchange's customer portfolio margining program, as previously approved by the Commission, allows broker-dealers, for eligible securities, to compute customer margin requirements based on a portfolio margining methodology. The program is codified in CBOE Rules 9.15(c)—Delivery of Current Options Disclosure Documents, 12.4—Portfolio Margin, 13.5—Customer Portfolio Margin Accounts, and 15.8A—Risk Analysis of Portfolio Margin Accounts.

The Exchange proposes to amend Rules 12.4 and 15.8A to add certain provisions to those rules that are currently included in the “Frequently Asked Questions” regarding portfolio margin requirements published by the New York Stock Exchange.⁵ Specifically, the Exchange proposes to amend Rule 12.4(i)(5) to specify that a portfolio margin account has three days to meet a requisite margin call incurred as a result of a day trade. The Exchange proposes to amend Rule 15.8A(c) to specify that a member organization shall monitor the credit exposure resulting from concentrated positions within both individual portfolio margin accounts and across all portfolio margin accounts.⁶ The effective date of the proposed rule change shall be August 1, 2008.

³ 15 U.S.C. 78s(b)(3)(A)(i).

⁴ 17 CFR 240.19b-4(f)(1).

2. Statutory Basis

Because the proposed rule change codifies previously issued SRO guidance regarding portfolio margining, the Exchange believes the proposed rule change is consistent with Section 6(b) of the Exchange,⁷ in general, and furthers the objectives of Section 6(b)(5) of the Act⁸ in particular, in that it is designed to perfect the mechanism of a free and open market and to protect investors and the public interest.

B. Self-Regulatory Organization’s Statement on Burden on Competition

CBOE does not believe that the proposed rule change will impose any burden on competition that is not necessary or appropriate in furtherance of the purposes of the Act.

C. Self-Regulatory Organization’s Statement on Comments on the Proposed Rule Change Received From Members, Participants or Others

No written comments were solicited or received with respect to the proposed rule change.

III. Date of Effectiveness of the Proposed Rule Change and Timing for Commission Action

Because the foregoing proposed rule change constitutes a stated policy, practice or interpretation with respect to the meaning, administration, or enforcement of an existing rule, it has become effective pursuant to Section

19(b)(3)(A) of the Act⁹ and paragraph (f)(1) of Rule 19b-4 thereunder.¹⁰

At any time within 60 days of the filing of the proposed rule change, the Commission may summarily abrogate such rule change if it appears to the Commission that such action is necessary or appropriate in the public interest, for the protection of investors, or otherwise in furtherance of the purposes of the Act.

IV. Solicitation of Comments
