

regarding eligibility for workers and former workers of the subject firm to apply for Trade Adjustment Assistance (TAA) and Alternative Trade Adjustment Assistance (ATAA). The denial notice was signed on July 28, 2008 and published in the Federal Register on August 12, 2008 (73 FR 46924).

Pursuant to 29 CFR 90.18(c) reconsideration may be granted under the following circumstances:

(1) if it appears on the basis of facts not previously considered that the determination complained of was erroneous;

(2) if it appears that the determination complained of was based on a mistake in the determination of facts not previously considered; or

(3) if in the opinion of the Certifying Officer, a mis-interpretation of facts or of the law justified reconsideration of the decision.

The TAA petition, which was filed on behalf of workers at Siny Corporation, d/b/a Monterey Mills, Janesville, Wisconsin engaged in the production of acrylic knit pile fabric, was denied based on the findings that imports of acrylic knit pile fabric did not contribute importantly to worker separations at the subject firm and no shift in production to a foreign source occurred.

In the request for reconsideration, the petitioner stated that workers of the subject firm were previously certified eligible for Trade Adjustment Assistance. The petitioner further stated that in order to reveal the import impact, the Department should consider the time period prior to 2006. The petitioner seems to allege that because the subject firm was previously certified eligible for TAA, the workers of the subject firm should be granted another TAA certification.

When assessing eligibility for TAA, the Department exclusively considers import impact during the relevant time period (from one year prior to the date of the petition). Therefore, events occurring before 2006 are outside of the relevant period and are not relevant in this investigation.

After careful review of the request for reconsideration, the Department determines that 29 CFR 90.18(c) has not been met.

Conclusion

After review of the application and investigative findings, I conclude that there has been no error or misinterpretation of the law or of the facts which would justify reconsideration of the Department of Labor's prior decision. Accordingly, the application is denied.

Signed at Washington, DC, this 15th day of September, 2008.

Elliott S. Kushner,

Certifying Officer, Division of Trade Adjustment Assistance.

Wheeling Pittsburgh Steel Corporation, Including On-Site Leased Workers from Pro Unlimited, Allenport, PA; Amended Notice of Revised Determination on Reconsideration

In accordance with Section 223 of the Trade Act of 1974 (19 U.S.C. 2273), and Section 246 of the Trade Act of 1974 (26 U.S.C. 2813), as amended, the Department of Labor issued a Notice of Revised Determination on Reconsideration on August 11, 2008. The notice was published in the Federal Register on August 19, 2008 (73 FR 48395).

At the request of the State agency, the Department reviewed the Notice of Revised Determination on Reconsideration for workers of the subject firm. The workers are engaged in the production of cold rolled sheet coils.

New information shows that leased workers from Pro Unlimited were employed on-site at the Allenport, Pennsylvania location of Wheeling Pittsburgh Steel Corporation. The Department has determined that these workers were sufficiently under the control of Wheeling Pittsburgh Steel Corporation to be considered leased workers.

Based on these findings, the Department is amending this revised determination to include workers leased from Pro Unlimited working on-site at the Allenport, Pennsylvania location of the subject firm.

The intent of the Department's certification is to include all adversely affected secondary workers employed at Wheeling Pittsburgh Steel Corporation, Allenport, Pennsylvania.

The amended notice applicable to TA-W-63,278 is hereby issued as follows:

"All workers of Wheeling Pittsburgh Steel Corporation, including on-site leased workers from Pro Unlimited, Allenport, Pennsylvania, who became totally or partially separated from employment on or after April 21, 2007, through August 11, 2010, are eligible to apply for adjustment assistance under Section 223 of the Trade Act of 1974, and are also eligible to apply for alternative trade adjustment assistance under Section 246 of the Trade Act of 1974."

Signed at Washington, DC this 12th day of September 2008.

Linda G. Poole,

Certifying Officer, Division of Trade Adjustment Assistance.
