

declaratory order proceeding will be instituted in this proceeding to address these issues. To facilitate BNSF's request for expedition, BNSF will be permitted to supplement its petition by October 17, 2008. Any person seeking to reply in support of, or in opposition to, BNSF's position may submit written comments to the Board by November 6, 2008. Because there is already a substantial record in this proceeding, the parties are directed to focus their comments on the issue of whether these two planned projects are merely track relocations not requiring Board authorization or whether they would remove service to shippers and/or extend BNSF's operations into new territory. Both the continued ability to serve Boardman and any specific new territory that could be served should be identified and addressed. Additionally, concerning service to shippers on the eastern segment, BNSF is specifically directed to submit a statement from ODOT confirming that its contractor is obligated to construct both a new railroad bridge to elevate the Red Rock Subdivision over the planned location of the new highway and new industry tracks to connect Producers and Mid-States directly to the Red Rock Subdivision.

In the meantime, Mr. Kessler has not shown that his requests for injunctive relief should be entertained in this declaratory order proceeding. Mr. Kessler says that, with the request for a locomotive shipment, Boardman was "testing" BNSF's ability to serve Boardman.⁵ But Boardman is not before us complaining that a locomotive was not delivered, or that BNSF has failed to meet any reasonable request for service. Indeed, according to BNSF, Boardman refused delivery of the shipment by transload, explaining that the car was ordered for political reasons. The Board will not order injunctive relief where the supposedly aggrieved shipper does not even appear before the agency, and certainly will not do so where, as here, the moving party has not provided any verified evidence. Any party aggrieved by a service failure may file a complaint and seek appropriate relief. Finally, because BNSF has had an opportunity to respond to Mr. Kessler's September 5 pleading, the Board will not strike it.

Board decisions, notices, and filings in this and other Board proceedings are available on our Web site at <http://www.stb.dot.gov>.

Decided: October 1, 2008.

⁵ Kessler's Reply to BNSF's Amendment to Petition at 11.

By the Board, David M. Konschnik,
Director, Office of Proceedings.

Anne K. Quinlan,
Acting Secretary.
