

request further states that the appeal is limited to the "PPAP Dept."

The request for reconsideration alleges that the PPAP "is an essential part of the production process, it is directly involved in the manufacturing of the final product in the production line" and that "Lear Corporation took our jobs to Mexico."

The Department has carefully reviewed the worker's request for reconsideration and has determined that the Department will conduct further investigation.

Conclusion

After careful review of the application, I conclude that the claim is of sufficient weight to justify reconsideration of the U.S. Department of Labor's prior decision. The application is, therefore, granted.

Signed at Washington, DC, this 3rd day of October 2008.

Elliott S. Kushner,

Certifying Officer, Division of Trade Adjustment Assistance.

In accordance with Section 223 of the Trade Act of 1974 (19 U.S.C. 2273), and Section 246 of the Trade Act of 1974 (26 U.S.C. 2813), as amended, the Department of Labor issued a Certification Regarding Eligibility to Apply for Worker Adjustment Assistance and Alternative Trade

Adjustment Assistance on July 21, 2008, applicable to workers of NewPage Corporation, formerly known as Stora Enso North America, Stamford, Connecticut. The notice was published in the Federal Register on August 12, 2008 (73 FR 46923).

At the request of a company official, the Department reviewed the certification for workers of the subject firm.

New information provided shows that worker separations have occurred involving employees of the Stamford, Connecticut facility of NewPage Corporation, formerly known as Stora Enso North America working out of various locations in the following states: North Carolina, California, Georgia, Illinois, Michigan, Minnesota, New York, Ohio, Pennsylvania and Texas. These employees provided sales, accounting and managerial function support services for the production of coated and uncoated paper by the subject firm.

Based on these findings, the Department is amending this certification to include employees of the Stamford, Connecticut facility of NewPage Corporation, formerly known as Stora Enso North America working out of various locations in the above mentioned states.

The intent of the Department's certification is to include all workers of NewPage Corporation, formerly known as Stora Enso North America, Stamford, Connecticut, who were adversely affected by increased imports of coated and uncoated paper.

The amended notice applicable to TA-W-62,849 is hereby issued as follows:

All workers of NewPage Corporation, formerly known as Stora Enso North America, Stamford, Connecticut (TA-W-62,849), including employees of NewPage Corporation, formerly known as Stora Enso North America, Stamford, Connecticut located at various locations in the following states: North Carolina (TA-W-62,849A), California (TA-W-62,849B), Georgia (TA-W-62,849C), Illinois (TA-W-62,849D), Michigan (TA-W-62,849E), Minnesota (TA-W-62,849F), New York (TA-W-62,849G), Ohio (TA-W-62,849H), Pennsylvania (TA-W-62,849I), and Texas (TA-W-62,849J), who became totally or partially separated from employment on or after February 13, 2007, through July 21, 2010, are eligible to apply for adjustment assistance under Section 223 of the Trade Act of 1974, and are also eligible to apply for alternative trade adjustment assistance under Section 246 of the Trade Act of 1974.

Signed at Washington, DC, this 2nd day of October 2008.

[TA-W-63,662]

Steelcase, Inc.; Andersons Desk, Inc.; City of Industry Plant, City of Industry, California; Amended Certification Regarding Eligibility To Apply for Worker Adjustment Assistance and Alternative Trade Adjustment Assistance

In accordance with Section 223 of the Trade Act of 1974 (19 U.S.C. 2273), and Section 246 of the Trade Act of 1974 (26 U.S.C. 2813), as amended, the Department of Labor issued a Certification Regarding Eligibility to Apply for Worker Adjustment Assistance and Alternative Trade Adjustment Assistance on July 31, 2008, applicable to workers of Steelcase, Inc., City of Industry Plant, City of Industry, California. The notice was published in the Federal Register on August 12, 2008 (73 FR 46923).

At the request of the State agency, the Department reviewed the certification for workers of the subject firm. The workers were engaged in the production of office furniture.

New information shows that some workers separated from employment at the subject firm have had their wages reported under a separate unemployment insurance (UI) tax account for Andersons Desk, Inc.

Accordingly, the Department is amending the certification to properly reflect this matter.

The amended notice applicable to TA-W-63,662 is hereby issued as follows:

All workers of Steelcase, Inc., Andersons Desk, Inc., City of Industry Plant, City of Industry, California, who became totally or partially separated from employment on or after July 9, 2007, through July 31, 2010, are eligible to apply for adjustment assistance under Section 223 of the Trade Act of 1974 and are also eligible to apply for alternative trade adjustment assistance under Section 246 of the Trade Act of 1974.
