Regulatory Certifications

Regulatory Flexibility Act

The Deputy Administrator hereby certifies that this action will not have a significant economic impact upon small entities whose interests must be considered under the Regulatory Flexibility Act, 5 U.S.C. 601–612. The establishment of the assessment of annual needs for ephedrine, pseudoephedrine and phenylpropanolamine is mandated by law. The assessments are necessary to provide for the estimated medical, scientific, research and industrial needs of the United States, for lawful export requirements, and the establishment and maintenance of reserve stocks. Accordingly, the Deputy Administrator has determined that this action does not require a regulatory flexibility analysis.

Executive Order 12866

The Office of Management and Budget has determined that notices of assessment of annual needs are not subject to centralized review under Executive Order 12866.

Executive Order 13132

This action does not preempt or modify any provision of state law; nor does it impose enforcement responsibilities on any state; nor does it diminish the power of any state to enforce its own laws. Accordingly, this action does not have federalism implications warranting the application of Executive Order 13132.

Executive Order 12988

This action meets the applicable standards set forth in Sections 3(a) and 3(b)(2) of Executive Order 12988 Civil Justice Reform.

Unfunded Mandates Reform Act of 1995

This action will not result in the expenditure by state, local, and tribal governments, in the aggregate, or by the private sector, of $120,000,000 or more in any one year, and will not significantly or uniquely affect small governments. Therefore, no actions were deemed necessary under the provisions of the Unfunded Mandates Reform Act of 1995.

Congressional Review Act

This action is not a major rule as defined by Section 804 of the Small Business Regulatory Enforcement Fairness Act of 1996. This action will not result in an annual effect on the economy of $100,000,000 or more; a major increase in costs or prices; or significant adverse effects on competition, employment, investment, productivity, innovation, or on the ability of United States-based companies to compete with foreign-based companies in domestic and export markets.

Dated: October 7, 2008.

Michele M. Leonhart,

Deputy Administrator.

Delphi Corporation, Electronics and Safety Division, Including On-Site Leased Workers From Acro Service Corporation, Kokomo, IN; Amended Certification Regarding Eligibility To Apply for Worker Adjustment Assistance and Alternative Trade Adjustment Assistance

In accordance with Section 223 of the Trade Act of 1974 (19 U.S.C. 2273), and Section 246 of the Trade Act of 1974 (26 U.S.C. 2813), as amended, the Department of Labor issued a Certification of Eligibility to Apply for Worker Adjustment Assistance and Alternative Trade Adjustment Assistance on February 14, 2008, applicable to workers of Delphi Corporation, Electronics and Safety Division, Kokomo, Indiana. The notice was published in the Federal Register on February 29, 2008 (73 FR 11152).

At the request of the petitioner, the Department reviewed the certification for workers of the subject firm. The workers are engaged in the production of various types of automobile components, including: Heating, ventilating, air-conditioning systems (HVAC), amplifiers, mainboards, gas control modules, hybrid airmeter electronics, hybrid ignition electronics, pressure sensors, transmission control modules, crash sensing devices, occupant sensing devices, warning systems and semiconductors.

New information shows that leased workers of Acro Service Corporation were employed on-site at the Kokomo, Indiana location of Delphi Corporation, Electronics and Safety Division. The Department has determined that these workers are sufficiently under the control of the subject firm.

Based on these findings, the Department is amending this certification to include leased workers of Acro Service Corporation working on-site at the Kokomo, Indiana location of the subject firm.

The intent of the Department's certification is to include all workers employed at Delphi Corporation, Electronics and Safety Division who were adversely affected by a shift in production Mexico.

The amended notice applicable to TA–W–62,760 is hereby issued as follows:

All workers of Delphi Corporation, Electronics and Safety Division, including on-site leased workers from Acro Service Corporation, Kokomo, Indiana, who became totally or partially separated from employment on or after January 28, 2007, through February 14, 2010, are eligible to apply for adjustment assistance under Section 223 of the Trade Act of 1974, and are also eligible to apply for alternative trade adjustment assistance under Section 246 of the Trade Act of 1974.

Signed at Washington, DC this 16th day of October 2008.

Elliott S. Kushner,

Certifying Officer, Division of Trade Adjustment Assistance.

Robert Bosch Tool Corporation, Including On-Site Leased Workers From Bartlett Business Services and Salem Tools, Lincolnton, NC; Amended Certification Regarding Eligibility To Apply for Worker Adjustment Assistance and Alternative Trade Adjustment Assistance

In accordance with Section 223 of the Trade Act of 1974 (19 U.S.C. 2273), and

Section 246 of the Trade Act of 1974 (26 U.S.C. 2813), as amended, the Department of Labor issued a Certification of Eligibility to Apply for Worker Adjustment Assistance and Alternative Trade Adjustment Assistance on August 20, 2008, applicable to workers of Robert Bosch Tool Corporation, including on-site leased workers of Bartlett Business Services, Lincolnton, North Carolina. The notice was published in the Federal Register on September 3, 2008 (73 FR 51529).

At the request of the State agency, the Department reviewed the certification for workers of the subject firm. The workers are engaged in the production of hand tools.

New information shows that leased workers of Salem Tools were employed on-site at the Cleveland, Ohio location of Robert Bosch Tool Corporation. The Department has determined that this worker was sufficiently under the control of the subject firm.

Based on these findings, the Department is amending this certification to include a leased worker of Salem Tools working on-site at the Lincolnton, North Carolina location of the subject firm.

The intent of the Department's certification is to include all workers employed at Robert Bosch Tool Corporation who were adversely affected by increased imports following a shift in production of hand tools to China.

The amended notice applicable to TA-W-63,830 is hereby issued as follows:

All workers of Robert Bosch Tool Corporation including on-site leased workers from Bartlett Business Services and Salem Tools, Lincolnton, North Carolina, who became totally or partially separated from employment on or after August 5, 2007, through August 20, 2010, are eligible to apply for adjustment assistance under Section 223 of the Trade Act of 1974, and are also eligible to apply for alternative trade adjustment assistance under Section 246 of the Trade Act of 1974.

FCI USA, Inc., Including On-Site Leased Workers From Accountemps, Novi, MI; Amended Certification Regarding Eligibility To Apply for Worker Adjustment Assistance and Alternative Trade Adjustment Assistance

In accordance with Section 223 of the Trade Act of 1974 (19 U.S.C. 2273), and Section 246 of the Trade Act of 1974 (26 U.S.C. 2813), as amended, the Department of Labor issued a Certification of Eligibility to Apply for Worker Adjustment Assistance and Alternative Trade Adjustment Assistance on August 12, 2008, applicable to workers of FCI USA, Inc., Novi, Michigan. The notice was published in the Federal Register on August 29, 2008 (73 FR 51004).

At the request of the State agency, the Department reviewed the certification for workers of the subject firm. The workers supported production of electrical connectors that is produced at the Westland, Michigan location of the subject firm. The Westland, Michigan location was certified on June 11, 2007 (TA-W-61,612).

New information shows that leased workers of Accountemps were employed on-site at the Novi, Michigan location of FCI USA, Inc. Information also shows that the impact date was incorrectly stated as June 21, 2007 and should read July 21, 2007, one year back from the July 21, 2008 petition date.

The Department has determined that these workers were sufficiently under the control of the subject firm to be considered leased workers.

Based on these findings, the Department is amending this certification to include leased workers of Accountemps working on-site at the Novi, Michigan location of the subject firm and to correct the impact date to read July 21, 2007.

The intent of the Department's certification is to include all workers employed at FCI USA, Inc. who were adversely affected by a shift in production of electrical connectors to Mexico.

The amended notice applicable to TA-W-63,742 is hereby issued as follows:

All workers of FCI USA, Inc., including on-site leased workers from Accountemps, Novi, Michigan, who became totally or partially separated from employment on or after July 21, 2007, through August 12, 2010, are eligible to apply for adjustment assistance under Section 223 of the Trade Act of 1974, and are also eligible to apply for alternative trade adjustment assistance under Section 246 of the Trade Act of 1974.
