Foreign-Trade Zones Board

[Docket 60-2008]

Foreign-Trade Zone 267—Fargo, ND Request for Manufacturing Authority CNH America, LLC (Construction and Agricultural Equipment)

An application has been submitted to the Foreign-Trade Zones Board (the Board) by the Fargo Municipal Airport Authority, grantee of FTZ 267, requesting authority on behalf of CNH America, LLC (CNH) to perform construction and agricultural equipment manufacturing under FTZ procedures within FTZ 267. The application was filed on October 23, 2008.

The CNH facilities (about 800 employees) consist of a manufacturing plant located at 3401 1st Avenue N. and a warehouse located at 3000 7th Avenue N., within the Midtown Industrial Complex (FTZ 267—Site 2). CNH could produce up to 4,000 construction wheel loaders (HTSUS 8429.51) and 7,200 agricultural tractors (8701.90) annually. Foreign-sourced components (representing about 30% of material value) that would be used in production include: Vehicle glass (HTSUS 7007.11), motor controls (8537.10), switches (8536.50), and transmissions (8483.40).

FTZ procedures would exempt CNH from customs duty payments on foreign components used in export production (estimated to be some 30 percent of the plant's shipments). On its domestic shipments, CNH could defer duty until the products are entered for consumption, and choose the duty-free rate that applies to the finished product for the foreign components used in production (duty rates ranging from 2.5% to 5.5%). The company may also realize certain logistical/procedural savings as well as savings on materials that become scrap/waste during manufacturing.

In accordance with the Board's regulations, Diane Finver of the FTZ staff is designated examiner to investigate the application and report to the Board.

Public comment is invited from interested parties. Submissions (original and 3 copies) shall be addressed to the Board's Executive Secretary at the address below. The closing period for their receipt is January 20, 2009. Rebuttal comments in response to material submitted during the foregoing period may be submitted during the subsequent 15-day period to February 2, 2009.

A copy of the application and accompanying exhibits will be available for public inspection at each of the following locations: U.S. Department of Commerce Export Assistance Center, 51 Broadway, Suite 505, Fargo, North Dakota 58102; and, Office of the Executive Secretary, Foreign-Trade Zones Board, Room 2111, U.S. Department of Commerce, 1401 Constitution Avenue, NW., Washington, DC 20230-0002.

Secretary for Industry and Security

[Docket Nos. 07-BIS-0026; 07-BIS-0027]

In the Matters of: Peter Goldsmith, Michele Geslin, Respondents; Final Decision and Order

This matter is before me upon a Recommended Decision and Order ("RDO") of an Administrative Law Judge ("ALJ"), as further described below.

In a charging letter filed on December 18, 2007, the Bureau of Industry and Security ("BIS") alleged that Respondent Michele Geslin committed one violation of the Export Administration Regulations (currently codified at 15 CFR Parts 730-774 (2008) ("Regulations")), issued pursuant to the Export Administration Act of 1979, as amended (50 U.S.C. app. 2401-2420 (2000)) (the "Act"),¹ when she aided and abetted the unlicensed export of a vessel to Cuba during a regatta she had helped to organize. Specifically, the charge against Respondent Michele Geslin is as follows:

Charge 1 15 CFR 764.2(b)—Aiding or Abetting the Export of a Vessel Without the Required License

Between on or about April 10, 2003 through on or about May 31, 2003, Geslin aided and/or abetted the doing of an act prohibited by the Regulations. Specifically, Geslin aided and/or abetted the export of the vessel Kailuana, an item classified on the Commerce Control List under Export Control Classification Number (ECCN) 8A992.f, to Cuba without the required Department of Commerce authorization. Geslin aided and/or abetted the export of the vessel to Cuba by organizing a regatta to Cuba and by traveling on board the Kailuana and assisting with the vessel's export to Cuba during the regatta. Geslin, as organizer of the regatta, was advised by the BIS Office of Export Enforcement in a letter dated April 24, 2003, that a Department of Commerce export license was required for all participants in the regatta who were to take a vessel to Cuba. On May 22, 2003, the Office of Export Enforcement met with Geslin and other regatta participants at the regatta's pre-launch party and again informed Geslin that a license was required for the temporary export of vessels to Cuba during the regatta. On May 23, 2003, the Office of Export Enforcement provided Geslin, as co-organizer of the regatta, with an additional letter indicating that an export license was required by all regatta participants who took their vessels to Cuba and that a particular license that had been identified by some participants as authority to take their vessel to Cuba during the regatta did not in fact authorize the temporary export of a vessel. Pursuant to Section 746.2 of the Regulations, a license is required for the export of vessels to Cuba and no license was obtained for the export of the Kailuana to Cuba. In aiding and abetting this unlicensed export, Geslin committed one violation of Section 764.2(b) of the Regulations.

December 18, 2007 Charging Letter against Michele Geslin, at 1–2 (originally included as Ex. E in BIS's Motion for Summary Decision).

Furthermore, in a separate charging letter filed on December 18, 2007, BIS alleged that Respondent Peter Goldsmith also committed one violation of the Regulations when he aided and abetted the unlicensed export of a vessel to Cuba during the same regatta, which he also helped to organize. Specifically, the charge against Respondent Peter Goldsmith is as follows:

Charge 1 15 CFR 764.2(b)—Aiding or Abetting the Export of a Vessel without the Required License

Between on or about April 10, 2003 through on or about May 31, 2003, Goldsmith aided and/or abetted the doing of an act prohibited by the Regulations. Specifically, Goldsmith aided and/or abetted the export of the vessel Eu-Bett, an item classified on the Commerce Control List under Export Control Classification Number (ECCN) 8A992.f, to Cuba without the required Department of Commerce authorization. Goldsmith aided and/or abetted the export of the vessel to Cuba by organizing a regatta to Cuba and by traveling on board the Eu-Bett and assisting with the vessel's export to Cuba during the regatta. Goldsmith, as organizer of the regatta, was advised by the BIS Office of Export Enforcement in a letter dated April 10, 2003, that a Department of Commerce export license was required for all participants in the regatta who were to take a vessel to Cuba. Further, the Office of Export Enforcement contacted Goldsmith on or about April 28, 2003 via telephone to again state the need of regatta participants to obtain a Department of Commerce export license before exporting a vessel to Cuba. On or about May 22, 2003, the Office of Export Enforcement met with Goldsmith and other regatta participants at the regatta's pre-launch party and again informed Goldsmith that a license was required for the temporary export of vessels to Cuba during the regatta. Pursuant to Section 746.2 of the Regulations, a license is required for the export of vessels to Cuba and no license was obtained for the export of the Eu-Bett to Cuba. In aiding and abetting this unlicensed export, Goldsmith committed one violation of Section 764.2(b) of the Regulations.

December 18, 2007 Charging Letter against Peter Goldsmith, at 1–2 (originally included as Ex. F in BIS's Motion for Summary Decision).

By separate letters, each dated "02/10/2008," Geslin and Goldsmith responded to these charges indicating an intention to contest the charges. These responses were treated as answers to the Charging Letters, and on February 11, 2008, these cases were assigned to AU Brudzinski of the U.S. Coast Guard. On April 1, 2008, the cases against Geslin and Goldsmith were consolidated.² In accordance with the Scheduling Order of ALJ Brudzinski, BIS propounded discovery requests, including Requests for Admission, upon both Geslin and Goldsmith. Neither responded to any the discovery requests, including the Requests for Admission, thus admitting the matters of fact therein. 15 CFR 766.9(b).

On September 8, 2008, BIS filed a motion for summary decision against Respondents Geslin and Goldsmith as to the above charges. On October 15, 2008, based on the record before him, ALJ Brudzinski issued an RDO in which he determined that BIS was entitled to summary decision as to both of the charges at issue, finding that Geslin committed one violation of § 764.2(b) when she aided and abetted an unlicensed export to Cuba of the vessel Kailuana, an item subject to the Regulations and classified under ECCN 8A992.f, and that Goldsmith also committed one violation of § 764.2(b) when he aided and abetted an unlicensed export to Cuba of the vessel Eu-Bett, also an item subject to the Regulations and classified under ECCN 8A992.f. ALJ Brudzinski also recommended, following consideration of the record, that Geslin and Goldsmith each be assessed a monetary penalty of $11,000.00 and a denial of export privileges for three years. The ALJ further recommended that the denial of export privileges for each respondent be suspended for the entire three year period provided that each respondent pays the monetary penalty within 30 days of the Final Decision and Order and that each respondent commits no further violations during the period of suspension. In his RDO, ALJ Brudzinski indicated that, should either Geslin or Goldsmith fail to abide by any of the conditions of suspension, then the denial order will become active with regard to whichever respondent has failed to meet the terms of the suspension.

² These cases were consolidated with a case against a third respondent. BIS has not moved for summary decision against this third respondent and, accordingly, that claim is not addressed in the RDO nor will it be addressed in this Final Decision and Order.

The RDO, together with the entire record in this case, has been referred to me for final action under § 766.22 of the Regulations. I find that the record supports the ALJ's findings of fact and conclusions of law, including the conclusion that the movement of a vessel from the United States to Cuba is considered an export, even if the vessel remains in Cuba only temporarily. RDO at 7.

I also find that the penalty recommended by ALJ Brudzinski based upon his review of the entire record is appropriate, given the nature of the violations, the facts of this case, and the importance of deterring future unauthorized exports, and especially given the multiple warnings that the respondents received from BIS agents.³

Based on my review of the entire record, I affirm the findings of fact and conclusions of law in the RDO.

Accordingly, it is therefore ordered

First, that a civil penalty of $11,000.00 is assessed against Michele Geslin and that a civil penalty of $11,000 is also assessed against Peter Goldsmith, each of which shall be paid to the U.S. Department of Commerce within (30) thirty days from the date of entry of this Order.

³ The sanction recommended by the ALJ also is consistent with the sanction proposed by BIS, which based its request on the facts, as admitted, and circumstances of the case as a whole.

Second, pursuant to the Debt Collection Act of 1982, as amended (31 U.S.C. 3701–3720E (2000)), the civil penalty owed under this Order accrues interest as more fully described in the attached Notice, and, if payment is not made by the due date specified herein, Geslin and/or Goldsmith, will be assessed, in addition to the full amount of the civil penalty and interest, a penalty charge and administrative charge.

Third, for a period of three (3) years from the date that this Order is published in the Federal Register, Michele Geslin, 2627 Staples Avenue, Key West, FL 33040, and Peter Goldsmith, 2627 Staples Avenue, Key West, FL 33040, and their successors or assigns, and when acting for or on behalf of Geslin and/or Goldsmith, their representatives, agents, or employees (hereinafter collectively known as the “Denied Persons”) may not participate, directly or indirectly, in any way in any transaction involving any commodity, software or technology (hereinafter collectively referred to as “item”) exported or to be exported from the United States that is subject to the Regulations, or in any other activity subject to the Regulations, including, but not limited to:

A. Applying for, obtaining, or using any license, License Exception, or export control document;

B. Carrying on negotiations concerning, or ordering, buying, receiving, using, selling, delivering, storing, disposing of, forwarding, transporting, financing, or otherwise servicing in any way, any transaction involving any item exported or to be exported from the United States that is subject to the Regulations, or in any other activity subject to the Regulations; or

C. Benefiting in any way from any transaction involving any item exported or to be exported from the United States that is subject to the Regulations, or in any other activity subject to the Regulations.

Fourth, that no person may, directly or indirectly, do any of the following:

A. Export or reexport to or on behalf of the Denied Persons any item subject to the Regulations;

B. Take any action that facilitates the acquisition or attempted acquisition by the Denied Persons of the ownership, possession, or control of any item subject to the Regulations that has been or will be exported from the United States, including financing or other support activities related to a transaction whereby the Denied Persons acquire or attempt to acquire such ownership, possession or control;

C. Take any action to acquire from or to facilitate the acquisition or attempted acquisition from the Denied Persons of any item subject to the Regulations that has been exported from the United States;

D. Obtain from the Denied Persons in the United States any item subject to the Regulations with knowledge or reason to know that the item will be, or is intended to be, exported from the United States; or

E. Engage in any transaction to service any item subject to the Regulations that has been or will be exported from the United States and which is owned, possessed or controlled by the Denied Persons, or service any item, of whatever origin, that is owned, possessed or controlled by the Denied Persons if such service involves the use of any item subject to the Regulations that has been or will be exported from the United States. For purposes of this paragraph, servicing means installation, maintenance, repair, modification or testing.

Fifth, that, after notice and opportunity for comment as provided in § 766.23 of the Regulations, any person, firm, corporation, or business organization related to the Denied Persons by affiliation, ownership, control, or position of responsibility in the conduct of trade or related services may also be made subject to the provisions of the Order.

Sixth, that this Order does not prohibit any export, reexport, or other transaction subject to the Regulations where the only items involved that are subject to the Regulations are the foreign-produced direct product of U.S.-origin technology.

Seventh, that, as authorized by § 766.17(c) of the Regulations, the denial period set forth above with regard to each respondent shall be suspended in its entirety, and shall thereafter be waived, provided that: (1) Within thirty days of the effective date of this Order, the respondent pays the monetary penalty imposed against him or her of $11,000.00 in full, and (2) for a period three years from the effective date of this Order, the respondent commits no further violations of the Act or Regulations.

Eighth, that the final Decision and Order shall be served on both Geslin and Goldsmith and shall be published in the Federal Register. In addition, the ALJ’s Recommended Decision and Order, except for the section related to the Recommended Order, shall also be published in the Federal Register.

This Order, which constitutes the final agency action in this matter, is effective upon publication in the Federal Register.

Dated: November 11, 2008.

Daniel O. Hill,

Acting Under Secretary of Commerce for Industry and Security.

United States Department of Commerce
Bureau of Industry and Security
Washington, DC 20230

Recommended Decision and Order¹

Issued: October 15 2008.

Issued by: Hon. Walter J. Brudzinski,
Administrative Law Judge.

Preliminary Statement

This Recommended Decision and Order is issued in response to the Agency’s September 8, 2008 Motion for Summary Decision in the above captioned matters. Pursuant to the undersigned’s Scheduling Order of May 7, 2008, Respondents had until October 8, 2008 to respond to the Agency’s motion. Since that time has passed with no response, this matter is now ripe for decision.

On April 1, 2008, I consolidated the following BIS cases: (1) In the Matter of Peter Goldsmith, Docket: 07–BIS–0026; (2) In the Matter of Michele Geslin, Docket: 07–BIS–0027; and (3) In the Matter of Wayne LaFleur, Docket: 07–BIS–0028. This Recommended Decision and Order pertains only to Respondents Michele Geslin and Peter Goldsmith (hereinafter, collectively, “Respondents”). The Agency is not seeking summary decision with regard to Respondent LaFleur. Accordingly, the matter involving Respondent LaFleur has been excluded from the case caption.

On December 18, 2007, the Bureau of Industry and Security, U.S. Department of Commerce (“BIS” or “Agency”), issued separate Charging Letters initiating administrative enforcement proceedings against Michele Geslin and Peter Goldsmith. The Charging Letter addressed to Ms. Geslin alleged that she committed one violation of the Export Administration Regulations, currently codified at 15 CFR Parts 730–774 (2008)

¹ For proceedings involving violations not relating to Part 760 of the Export Enforcement Regulations, 15 CFR 766.17(b) and (b)(2) prescribe that the Administrative Law Judge’s decision be a “Recommended Decision and Order.” The violations alleged in this case are found in Part 764. Therefore, this is a “Recommended” decision. That section also prescribes that the Administrative Law Judge make recommended findings of fact and conclusions of law that the Under Secretary for Export Administration, Bureau of Industry and Security, U.S. Department of Commerce, must affirm, modify or vacate. 15 CFR 766.22. The Under Secretary’s action is the final decision for the U.S. Commerce Department. 15 CFR 766.22(e).

(the "Regulations"),² issued under the Export Administration Act of 1979, as amended (50 U.S.C. App. §§ 2401–2420 (2000)) (the "Act").³ The Charging Letter addressed to Goldsmith alleged that he also committed one violation of the Regulations.

Specifically, the Charging Letters allege that, between on or about April 10, 2003 through on or about May 31, 2003, each respondent aided and abetted an unlawful export to Cuba in violation of the Regulations. BIS alleged that Geslin and Goldsmith organized a regatta during that time period and that Geslin assisted the passage of the vessel Kailuana, an item classified on the Commerce Control List under Export Control Classification Number (ECCN) 8A992.f, to Cuba during that regatta. BIS further alleges that Goldsmith assisted the passage of the vessel Eu-Bett, also an item classified under ECCN 8A992.f to Cuba during that regatta. BIS alleges that these acts violate 15 CFR 764.2 (2003), which prohibits the causing, aiding, or abetting of a violation of the Regulations, because the exports of the vessel Kailuana and the vessel Eu-Bett to Cuba were not authorized by the required Department of Commerce export licenses.

In a letter dated February 10, 2008, Respondent Geslin responded to BIS's Charging Letter in which she stated "I do not feel that the charges are viable." Moreover, in a similar letter dated February 10, 2008, Respondent Goldsmith responded to BIS's Charging Letter in which he stated "I would like to contest these charges." Subsequently, in a letter dated March 20, 2008, the Respondents, collectively, demanded a hearing.

On February 25, 2008, this case was assigned to the undersigned Administrative Law Judge ("ALJ") for adjudication pursuant to an Interagency Agreement with the Bureau of Industry and Security. As previously mentioned above, on April 1, 2008, the proceedings against Michele Geslin and Peter Goldsmith were consolidated. The matter involving Wayne LaFleur was also consolidated with these cases. However, BIS has stated that it will move for resolution of the case against LaFleur at a later time.

On April 14, 2008, the undersigned issued an Order granting BIS's Motion to Strike or Deny Respondents' Demand for a Hearing because the demand for hearing was deemed untimely. I further ordered that because of the untimely filing of the demand for hearing by the Respondents, this matter will be decided on the record by the undersigned ALJ, in accordance with 15 CFR 766.15.

On May 7, 2008, I issued a Scheduling Order for filing various motions and Discovery. On May 14, 2008, BIS issued to the Respondents its Requests for Admission. Responses to the Requests for Admission were due on June 6, 2008. Respondents Geslin and Goldsmith both failed to respond to these requests. Thus, all requests for admission must be deemed admitted under 15 U.S.C. 766.9. Further, on May 14, 2008, BIS issued to the Respondents its Requests for Interrogatories and Production of Documents. The answers to all interrogatories and the requested documents were due on July 11, 2008. Again, Respondents Geslin and Goldsmith were unresponsive to these requests.

On September 8, 2008, BIS filed its Motion for Summary Decision together with 12 exhibits listed in Appendix A. BIS moved for summary decision on the charges against Geslin and Goldsmith based on the evidence contained in the exhibits and Respondents' admissions. That evidence demonstrates that there are no genuine issues of material fact and that under the facts presented, BIS is entitled to summary decision as a matter of law. Section 766.8 of the Regulations provides that the Administrative Law Judge may render a recommended summary decision and order disposing of some or all of the issues if the entire record shows as to the issues under consideration "[t]hat there is no genuine issue as to any material fact[.]" and "[t]hat the moving party is entitled to a summary decision as a matter of law." 15 CFR 766.8 (2008). A dispute over a material fact is "genuine" if the evidence is such that a reasonable fact finder could render a ruling in favor of the non-moving party. Anderson v. Liberty Lobby, Inc., 477 U.S. 242, 248 (1986). Substantive law dictates which facts are material, and only disputes that might affect the outcome of the litigation will properly preclude the entry of summary decision. Id. at 247.

Section 764.3 of the Regulations sets forth the sanctions BIS may seek for violations of the Regulations. The applicable sanctions are: (i) a monetary penalty, (ii) a denial of export privileges under the Regulations, and (iii) suspension from practice before the Bureau of Industry and Security. 15 CFR 764.3. Pursuant to the International Emergency Economic Powers Act (50 U.S.C. 1701–1706 (2000)) ("IEEPA"), as amended, the maximum monetary penalty in this case is $250,000 per violation. International Emergency Economic Powers Enhancement Act of 2007, Pub. L. No. 110–96, 121 Stat. 1011 (2007); see also In the Matter of: Kabba & Amir Investments, Inc., d.b.a. International Freight Forwarders, 73 FR 25649, 25653 (May 7, 2008), aff'd 73 FR 25648. BIS requests that the ALJ recommend to the Under Secretary of Commerce for Industry and Security⁴ that Respondents each (1) be assessed a civil penalty in the amount of $11,000 and (2) be made subject to a denial of export privileges for a period of three years which shall be suspended if each respondent pays the monetary fine against him or her within thirty days from the date of the final Decision and Order and does not commit any further violations of the Regulations during the three year period of the suspension.

BIS seeks this sanction because the Respondents, while they were organizing the regatta during which the vessels in question were exported to Cuba, were, advised on numerous occasions by federal agents that taking a vessel to Cuba without the proper Department of Commerce authorization was a violation of U. S. law.⁵ In addition, the items exported in this case involved vessels controlled for anti-terrorism reasons to a country that the United States Government has designated a state sponsor of international terrorism.⁶

⁵ See 15 CFR Part 766, Supp. No. 1, § III.A. (discussing the factors that BIS considers in the context of settling an enforcement action and stating that "[i]n cases involving gross negligence, willful blindness to the requirements of the EAR, or knowing or willful violations, BIS is more likely to seek a denial of export privileges * * * and/or a greater monetary penalty than BIS would otherwise typically seek").

⁶ See 15 CFR Part 766, Supp. No. 1, § III.A. (discussing the factors that BIS considers in the context of settling an enforcement action and stating that "BIS is more likely to seek a greater monetary penalty and/or denial of export privileges * * * in cases involving: (1) exports or reexports to countries subject to anti-terrorism controls * * *"). Cuba has been designated as a Terrorist Supporting Country and is subject to such anti-terrorism controls. See 15 CFR Part 740, Supp. No.

² The charged violations occurred in 2003. The Regulations governing the violations at issue are found in the 2003 version of the Code of Federal Regulations (15 CFR Parts 730–774 (2003)). The 2008 Regulations establish the procedures that apply to this matter.

Pursuant to the undersigned's Scheduling Order of May 7, 2008, the deadline for serving and filing a response to Motions for Summary Decision is 30 days from the date of the motion. In this matter, the Respondents' responses were due no later than October 8, 2008. Prior to issuing this Recommended Decision and Order, the undersigned waited an additional week for Respondents to submit a response in the event of unexpected delays in mail delivery. To date, the Respondents have failed to submit a response.

I find that the entire record before me shows that there are no genuine issues of material fact and that BIS is entitled to summary decision against Respondents Geslin and Goldsmith as a matter of law. Through their failure to answer BIS's Requests for Admissions, Respondents admitted that they aided and abetted the export of the vessels Kailuana and Eu-Bett to Cuba.⁶ Section 746.2 of the Regulations, requires a license to export these vessels from the United States to Cuba. Under the Regulations, the movement of the vessels from the United States to Cuba is considered an export, even if the vessels remained in Cuba only temporarily.^{7, 8}

The Respondents have admitted, and BIS has confirmed by searching its licensing database, that no such licenses were obtained. Ex. L, Ex. J (Requests 6 & 15). Respondents have also both admitted to receiving multiple letters from BIS agents prior to the regatta in question informing them that the export of a vessel to Cuba required an export license. Ex. J (Requests 7–9, 16–18), Exs. A–D. In addition to admitting the facts described in the Charging Letters against them, the Respondents have also failed to raise any defenses to the charges in their answers to the respective Charging Letters, thus precluding them from any attempt to raise any new defense at this time.⁹

After admitting the facts against them and waiving any defenses to the charges, it is clear that no genuine issues of material fact remain in this case and that BIS is entitled to summary decision as a matter of law with regard to the charges against Geslin and Goldsmith.

Recommended Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law

Based upon the record before me, I make following findings of fact and conclusions of law:

Findings of Fact

1. The vessel Kailuana was classified under Export Control Classification Number 8A992.f on the Commerce Control List at the time of the alleged violations. Ex. K.

2. The vessel Kailuana traveled to Cuba during the regatta described in the charging letter. Ex. J (Request 3).

3. Prior to the regatta that began on May 23, 2003, BIS specifically warned Michele Geslin on multiple occasions that a Department of Commerce license is required for a vessel to travel to Cuba. Ex. J (Requests 7–9).

4. No Department of Commerce authorization was obtained for the Kailuana to travel to Cuba. Ex. J (Request 6); Ex. L.

5. Michele Geslin organized and/or promoted the regatta that is referenced in the charging letter and which began on May 23, 2003. Ex. J (Request 1).

6. In addition, Michele Geslin traveled onboard the vessel Kailuana to Cuba during the regatta that began on May 23, 2003 and assisted its passage to Cuba as a crew member or through assistance to the captain and crew of that vessel. Ex. J (Requests 2 & 4).

Conclusions of Law

1. The vessel Kailuana's passage to Cuba was an export and as such it required an export license from the Department of Commerce. See Ex. L; See also, Ex. J (Requests 5 & 14).

2. Geslin aided and/or abetted an act prohibited by the Regulations by assisting the vessel Kailuana's passage to Cuba as a crew member or through assistance to the captain and crew of that vessel.

3. The vessel Eu-Bett's passage to Cuba was an export and as such it required an export license from the Department of Commerce. See Ex. L; See also, Ex. J (Request 14).

4. Goldsmith aided and/or abetted an act prohibited by the Regulations by assisting the vessel Eu-Bett's passage to Cuba as a crew member or through assistance to the captain and crew of the vessel.

Respondents' role in aiding and abetting the export of vessels from the United States to Cuba demonstrates indifference to U.S. export control laws. Therefore, I find BIS's penalty recommendation entirely reasonable, especially given the repeated efforts made by BIS agents to specifically advise Respondents of the proper export licensing requirements.

Accordingly, I recommend that the Under Secretary enter an Order imposing, for each respondent, an $11,000 civil penalty and a denial of export privileges for three years. Further, I recommend the Order state that the denial of export privileges with regard to each Respondent be suspended for the three year period provided that each respondent pays the monetary penalty within 30 days of the final Decision and Order and that each respondent commits no further violations during the period of the suspension. Should either Geslin or Goldsmith fail to abide by any of the conditions of suspension, then the denial order will become active with regard to whichever respondent has failed to meet the terms of the suspension. This penalty is consistent with prior cases decided by this Court.

⁸ See 15 CFR 734.2 (defining "export" to include "an actual shipment or transmission of items subject to the [Regulations] out of the United States. * * *"). As BIS noted in its Motion, temporary exports have been subject to export control laws for more than 60 years. See, e.g., 7 FR 5007 (July 2, 1942) (amending Part 802 of title 32 of the Code of Federal Regulations to authorize the export of certain stores and spare parts that are carried abroad on vessels and planes for use or consumption by the crew); cf. 15 CFR 740.15(b)(2008).

In the Matter of: Kabba & Amir Investments, Inc., d.b.a. International Freight Forwarders, 73 FR 25649, 25652 (May 7, 2008), aff'd at 73 FR 25648 (imposing a monetary penalty of $6,000 and a conditional denial of export privileges for three years against a freight forwarder that aided and abetted an attempted export of medical equipment to Cuba).

The terms of the export privileges denial against the Respondents should be consistent with the standard language used by BIS in such orders with modifications as necessary to comply with the conditional nature of the denial of export privileges described above:

International Trade Administration

Notice and call for applications for the Environmental and Clean Energy Technologies Trade Mission to Croatia, Italy, and Greece, March 30 to April 5, 2009

AGENCY: International Trade Administration, Department of Commerce.

ACTION: Notice and call for applications for the Environmental and Clean Energy Technologies Trade Mission to Croatia, Italy, and Greece, March 30 to April 5, 2009.

Mission Description

The United States Department of Commerce, International Trade Administration, U.S. and Foreign Commercial Service (USFCS) is organizing an Environmental and Clean Energy Technologies Trade Mission to Zagreb, Croatia; Milan, Italy; and Athens, Greece, from March 30 to April 4, 2009. All three fast growing markets hold promising potential for U.S. firms offering equipment, services, and technologies in the target sectors. The mission will introduce participating U.S. firms to prospective representatives, distributors, end-users, and partners through one-on-one appointments in all three cities and will include participation in the EcoTec Environmental Tradeshow (EcoTec 2009) in Athens, where the USFCS will provide entry to the trade show, manage a booth, and organize meetings with business and industry contacts for each of the mission participants.
