HUD Office of Hearings and Appeals;
Conforming Changes To Reflect Office
Address and Staff Title Changes, and Notification of Retention of Chief Administrative Law Judge

AGENCY: Office of the Secretary, HUD.

ACTION: Final rule.

SUMMARY: This final rule amends HUD's regulations to reflect the office address and staff title changes regarding HUD's Office of Hearings and Appeals (OHA). This rule makes conforming changes to HUD regulations to reflect that the title of "Chief Docket Clerk" has been changed to "Docket Clerk" and that the address of the OHA has been changed. Additionally, the preamble to this rule corrects a preamble statement in the preamble of a previously published OHA final rule regarding the elimination of the position of Chief Administrative Law Judge in OHA. That position has not been eliminated.

DATES: Effective Date: February 25, 2009.

Anderson, Director, Office of Hearings and Appeals, Department of Housing and Urban Development, 451 7th Street, SW., Room B-133, Washington, DC 20410-0001; telephone number 202-254-0000 (this is not a toll-free number). Individuals with speech or hearing impairments may access this number through TTY by calling the toll-free Federal Information Relay Service at 800-877-8339.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION:

I. Background

As the result of section 847 of the 2000 National Defense Authorization Act of Fiscal Year 2006 (Pub. L. 109-163, approved January 6, 2006), HUD terminated its Board of Contract Appeals (BCA). At the same time, HUD established the Office of Hearings and Appeals (OHA) to perform the nonprocurement contract dispute functions previously performed by the HUD BCA. OHA was established within the Office of the Secretary and, under the director of OHA, consists of two divisions: The Office of Administrative Law Judges and the Office of Appeals. Since establishing OHA, the office has been physically relocated, has a new mailing address, and has undergone some staff changes.

II. This Final Rule

This final rule updates HUD's regulations in 24 CFR parts 17, 20, 30, 103, 180, 570, 954, and 3500 to reflect the office address change and staff title changes regarding HUD's OHA. These HUD regulations contain outdated references to the title of "Chief Docket Clerk" and refer to the former address of the OHA. This final rule updates the HUD regulations to reflect these changes.

III. HUD Chief Administrative Law
Judge—Correction to Preamble
Statement in HUD's March 13, 2008
Final Rule

On March 13, 2008 (73 FR 13722), HUD published a final rule revising its regulations to reflect the organization of OHA. The preamble to that final rule contained two incorrect references regarding the position of HUD's Chief Administrative Law Judge (Chief ALJ). Specifically, the preamble provided that the position of the Chief ALJ "has been eliminated" and that the title and position of the Chief ALJ "are now obsolete since the establishment of OHA." The March 13, 2008 final rule was technical in nature, reflecting the establishment of the OHA and the new supervisory role of the Director of OHA over the entire office. HUD did not intend, however, for the preamble language to convey the impression that the Director of OHA had assumed duties or responsibilities reserved for the Chief ALJ. Although the regulatory amendments made by the March 13, 2008 final rule (and which became effective on April 14, 2008) are correct, HUD wishes to rectify the statements contained in the preamble of that rule, so as to avoid any confusion regarding the organization of the OHA and the position of the Chief ALJ. Through publication of this final rule, HUD clarifies that the position of the Chief ALJ continues to be a part of the staffing plan of the OHA.

IV. Justification for Final Rulemaking

Generally, HUD publishes a rule for public comment before publishing a rule for effect, in accordance with HUD's regulations on rulemaking at 24 CFR part 10. Part 10, however, allows in § 10.1 for omission of notice and public comment in cases of statements of policy, interpretive rules, rules governing the Department's organization or internal practices, or if a statute expressly provides for omission of notice and comment. In this case, HUD has determined that prior public comment is unnecessary because this rule is exclusively concerned with the internal organization of OHA. Specifically, the regulatory amendments made by the final rule are technical and nonsubstantive in nature, since they are limited to updating the terminology used in HUD's regulations governing administrative hearings and to correcting an outdated address.

V. Findings and Certifications

Environmental Impact

This final rule does not direct, provide for assistance or loan and mortgage insurance for, or otherwise govern or regulate, real property acquisition, disposition, leasing, rehabilitation, alteration, demolition, or new construction, nor does it establish, revise, or provide for standards for construction or construction materials, manufactured housing, or occupancy. Accordingly, under 24 CFR 50.19(c)(1), this final rule is categorically excluded from environmental review under the National Environmental Policy Act of 1969 (42 U.S.C. 4321 et seq.).

Executive Order 13132, Federalism

Executive Order 13132 (entitled "Federalism") prohibits an agency from publishing any rule that has federalism implications, if the rule either imposes substantial direct compliance costs on state and local governments and is not required by statute, or the rule preempts state law, unless the agency meets the consultation and funding requirements of section 6 of the Executive Order. This final rule does not have federalism implications and does not impose substantial direct compliance costs on state and local governments nor preempt state law within the meaning of the Executive Order.

Unfunded Mandates Reform Act

Title II of the Unfunded Mandates Reform Act of 1995 (2 U.S.C. 1531-1538) (UMRA) establishes requirements for federal agencies to assess the effects of their regulatory actions on state, local, and tribal governments and the private sector. This final rule does not impose any federal mandates on any state, local, or tribal governments or the private sector within the meaning of UMRA.
