GENERAL SERVICES ADMINISTRATION

[OMB Control No. 3090-00XX]

Chapter 35), the General Services Administration will be submitting to the Office of Management and Budget (OMB) a request to review and approve the new information collection requirement regarding the collection of personal data for background check investigations for temporary contractors and child care workers accessing GSA owned and leased controlled facilities.

FOR FURTHER INFORMATION CONTACT: Ms. Layna Koentopf, Program Analyst, Building Security and Policy Division, GSA, 1800 F Street, NW., Washington, DC 20405; or telephone (202) 208-1585. #### SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION:

A. Purpose

Homeland Security Presidential Directive (HSPD) 12 "Policy for a Common Identification Standard for Federal Employees and Contractors" requires the implementation of a governmentwide standard for secure and reliable forms of identification for Federal employees and contractors. OMB's implementing instructions require all contract employees requiring routine access to federally controlled facilities for greater than six (6) months to receive a background investigation. The minimum background investigation is the National Agency Check with Written Inquiries or NACI.

The policy on background check requirements for temporary contractors, defined as requiring access for six (6) months or less, is up to each individual agency. GSA requires that temporary contractors who will be working up to 6 months and need routine access to nonpublic areas of GSA-controlled facilities shall either undergo a law enforcement check or must be escorted, at the minimum. Because of a lack of escorting personnel, temporary contractors expected to work more than 10 days usually receive law enforcement checks.

In addition, there is no requirement in the law or HSPD-12 that requires child care employees to be subject to the NACI since employees of child care providers are neither government employees nor government contractors. Instead, the child care providers are required to complete the criminal history background checks mandated in the Crime Control Act of 1990, Public Law 101-647, dated November 29, 1990, as amended by Public Law 102-190, dated December 5, 1991. These statutes require that each employee of a child care center located in a Federal building or in leased space must undergo a background check.

According to GSA policy, both temporary contractors and child care workers (as described above) will need to submit the following:

1. An original signed copy of a Basic National Agency Check Criminal History, GSA Form 176T (for temporary contractors); or a Basic National Agency Check Criminal History, GSA Form 176C (for child care workers); and
2. Two sets of fingerprints on FBI Fingerprint Cards, for FD-258.

This is not a request to collect new information, this is a request to change the form that is currently being used to collect this information. The new GSA forms will be less of a public burden. This information is presently being collected on either the old Federal Protective Service 176 Form or the SF85P.

GOVERNMENT ACCOUNTABILITY OFFICE*Publication of Volume III of GAO's "Principles of Federal Appropriations Law"

AGENCY: Government Accountability Office.

ACTION: Notice.

SUMMARY: The third edition of Volume III of GAO's "Principles of Federal Appropriations Law" was recently published by the Government Printing Office (GPO). Government departments, agencies, and other federal organizations that normally require more than one copy were given an opportunity to request them through their agencies' account representatives at a pre-publication rate. This notice is intended for other parties who might be interested in purchasing the book.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION: The Government Accountability Office (GAO) published Volume III of "Principles of Federal Appropriations Law," third edition—also known as "The Red Book." This publication is part of a multi-volume set intended to present a basic reference covering those areas of law in which the Comptroller General renders decisions. Our approach is to lay a foundation with text discussion, using specific legal authorities to illustrate the principles discussed, their application, and exceptions. These authorities include GAO decisions and opinions, judicial decisions, statutory provisions, and other relevant sources.

GAO provided copies of this volume to the heads and general counsels of Federal agencies, and agencies were already given an opportunity to place advance (rider) orders for additional copies of this volume with their account representatives at the Government Printing Office (GPO).

This notice is intended to tell the general public that they can now order this publication through GPO's new online bookstore, at <http://bookstore.gpo.gov/actions/GetPublication.do?stocknumber=020-000-00289-1>. The price is $75.

Through periodic training courses on federal appropriations law, GAO believes that this publication might be useful in particular to law offices, to accounting firms, to the financial, budget, or accounting officers of government contractors, to university and state law libraries, to corporate chief financial officers, and to people who follow federal financial management, contracts, trust funds, facilities management, and real property.

We published the third edition in loose-leaf format and include a CD-Rom. Volume III includes four chapters covering acquisition of goods and services, real property, claims by and against the government, and miscellaneous topics such as boards and commissions, government use of corporate entities, nonappropriated fund instrumentalities, and trust funds. Volume III, third edition replaces the old Volume IV, second edition. This completes the third edition of The Red Book. However, we plan to update the third edition annually. The updates will only be published electronically at <http://www.gao.gov/legal/redbook.htm>. GAO did not revise Volume III, second edition. That volume covers topics that are no longer the responsibility of GAO, including claims settlement, debt collection, and the payment of judgments. Chapter 14 of Volume III, third edition, briefly summarizes the contents of Volume III, second edition.
