SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION:

A. Purpose

The General Services Administration (GSA) has various mission responsibilities related to the acquisition and provision of the Federal Acquisition Service's (FAS's) Stock, Special Order, and Schedules Programs. These mission responsibilities generate requirements that are realized through the solicitation and award of various types of FAS contracts. Individual solicitations and resulting contracts may impose unique information collection and reporting requirements on contractors, not required by regulation, but necessary to evaluate particular program accomplishments and measure success in meeting program objectives. As such, GSAR 516.506, Solicitation provision and clauses, specifically directs contracting officers to insert 552.216-72, Placement of Orders, when the contract authorizes FAS and other activities to issue delivery or task orders and 552.216-73, Ordering Information, directs the Offeror to elect to receive orders placed by FAS by either facsimile transmission or computer-to-computer Electronic Data Interchange (EDI).

DEPARTMENT OF HEALTH AND HUMAN SERVICES

Centers for Disease Control and Prevention

Opportunity To Collaborate in the Evaluation of Rapid Diagnostic Tests for HIV and HCV

AGENCY: Centers for Disease Control and Prevention (CDC), Department of Health and Human Services (DHHS).

ACTION: Opportunities for collaboration for evaluation of rapid diagnostic tests for HIV and hepatitis C virus (HCV). The Centers for Disease Control and Prevention (CDC), National Center for HIV/AIDS, Viral Hepatitis, STD, and TB Prevention (NCHHSTP), has an opportunity for collaboration to evaluate diagnostic tests for HIV and HCV. These evaluations will include evaluation of the sensitivity and specificity of the tests, and the predictive value of algorithms using two or more different rapid tests in combination.

Specific tests are sought to meet one or more of the following purposes: (1) Laboratory-based or rapid point-of-care tests designed to detect both HIV antigen and antibody; (2) laboratory-based or rapid point-of-care tests that can distinguish persons with acute HIV infection from persons who have longer-standing HIV infection; (3) laboratory-based or rapid point-of-care tests that can be used as supplemental confirmatory tests to help diagnose HIV-1 or HIV-2 infection, (4) rapid laboratory-based or rapid point-of-care tests designed to detect HCV antibody, antigen or both. Tests of interest include those that can detect HIV-1/2 and/or HCV antibody, antigen, RNA, or DNA when used on whole blood, serum, plasma, oral fluid or dried blood spots. Evaluations will include the sensitivity and specificity of the test when used in the intended application (e.g., for screening or confirmation).

SUMMARY: The National Center for HIV/AIDS, Viral Hepatitis, STD, and TB Prevention (NCHHSTP) at the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention (CDC) of the Department of Health and Human Services (DHHS) seeks one or more companies that have developed or are distributing rapid diagnostic tests for HIV or HCV and are interested in marketing the tests for use in the United States. The Division of HIV/AIDS Prevention and the Division of Viral Hepatitis are interested in evaluating such tests. The evaluation will include determination of sensitivity and specificity of the test, and may also evaluate the predictive value of two or more different tests used in combination in populations of low prevalence. This collaboration will have an expected duration of two (2) to three (3) years. The goals of the collaboration include the timely development of data to be used to determine whether the test could be used in screening and/or diagnosis for HIV or HCV in the United States, and to examine laboratory-based or rapid point-of-care tests. These tests require high sensitivity to detect persons with acute and longer-standing HIV infection; or high specificity to distinguish persons with acute infection from those with longer-standing infection; or high specificity for tests that can be used as to confirm HIV-1 or HIV-2 infection. Acute HIV infection is defined as the early infection period associated with a transient symptomatic illness, high viral load, and expansive immunologic response. For HCV testing,
